SECTION II - RISK FACTORS

An investment in Equity Shares involves a high degree of financial risk. You should carefully consider all information in this Prospectus, including the risks described below, before making an investment in our Equity Shares. The risk factors set forth below do not purport to be complete or comprehensive in terms of all the risk factors that may arise in connection with our business or any decision to purchase, own or dispose of the Equity Shares. This section addresses general risks associated with the industry in which we operate and specific risks associated with our Company. If any of the following risks, as well as the other risks and uncertainties discussed in this Prospectus, could have a material adverse effect on our business and could cause the trading price of our Equity Shares to decline and you may lose all or part of your investment.

This Prospectus also contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. We have described the risks and uncertainties that our management believes are material, but these risks and uncertainties may not be the only ones we face. Additional risks and uncertainties, including those we are not aware of or deem immaterial, may also result in decreased revenues, increased expenses or other events that could result in a decline in the value of our Equity Shares. In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of our Company and the Offer, including the merits and risks involved. Unless specified or quantified in the relevant risk factors below, we are not in a position to quantify the financial or other implications of any of the risks described in this section. Investors are advised to read the risk factors carefully before taking an investment decision in this Offer. Investors should not invest in this Offer unless they are prepared to accept the risk of losing all or part of their investment, and they should consult their tax, financial and legal advisors about the particular consequences to them of an investment in the Equity Shares.

Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors, including the considerations described below and elsewhere in this Prospectus.

Unless otherwise stated, the financial data in this chapter is derived from our Restated Consolidated Financial Information for the Financial Year ended on March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 as included in “Restated Consolidated Financial Information” beginning on page 364.

Unless stated otherwise, industry and market data used in this Prospectus has been obtained or derived from publicly available information as well as industry publication and sources. Further, the information has also been derived from the report titled “Assessment of infrastructure construction industry in India with focus on water and wastewater management” dated July, 2026 prepared by Crisil Intelligence (“CRISIL”) (“CRISIL Report”), which was appointed by our Company vide engagement letter dated April 10, 2025 read with corrigendum dated March 07, 2026 and has been exclusively commissioned and paid for by our Company in connection with the Offer. Unless otherwise indicated, all financial, operational, industry and other related information derived from the CRISIL Report and included herein with respect to any particular year refers to such information for the relevant calendar year.

Internal Risk Factors

- 1. Our business is significantly dependent on contracts awarded by Government authorities under Government programmes, and any failure or delay in securing, executing or collecting payments under such contracts could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

A substantial portion of our revenues is derived from contracts awarded by Central and State Governments, local authorities under Government-led schemes such as the Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation (“AMRUT”), Jal Jeevan Mission (“JJM”), Namami Gange and Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana (“PMGSY”). Our order book is therefore highly dependent on Government budgetary allocations and policy priorities. Any reduction or reallocation in public spending, delay in issuance of tenders, change in pre-qualification norms, or cancellation of awarded projects could materially reduce our pipeline of opportunities.

Further, the execution of large infrastructure projects involves significant operational challenges, including adherence to strict timelines, technical specifications and environmental standards. Any inability to mobilise resources, obtain timely approvals, or address site constraints may lead to cost overruns, penalties, invocation of performance securities, or delays in certification of work done, which may adversely affect our liquidity and financial position. Unforeseen factors such as adverse weather, land acquisition delays, labour availability and supply chain disruptions may also materially affect execution schedules.

In addition, our projects are typically characterised by long receivable cycles and milestone-based payments from Government authorities. Delays in certification of work done, disputes on variation claims, or fiscal constraints of the awarding authority can lead to extended collection timelines and working capital pressures. While we generally maintain performance securities and bank guarantees, prolonged delays or deductions may adversely affect our liquidity and financial position.

As majority of our revenue is generated through the government tenders so our Company's trade receivables constitute only receivables from Governments:

(₹ in million)

Particulars	For the financial year ended
	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024
Trade Receivables	1,179.76	581.84	1,001.83
Revenue from operations	3,449.96	2,795.64	2,261.02
Trade Receivables as % of revenue from operations	34.20	20.81	44.31

In the past, we have experienced an instance of dispute relating to execution of a wastewater infrastructure project awarded by Rajasthan the Urban Infrastructure Development Project ("RUIDP") in Udaipur. Certain delays, which were not attributable to our Company, resulted in deductions and the levy of liquidated damages by the client, which were disputed by us. Pursuant to the final Extension of Time dated February 27, 2025 granted by RUIDP, under which an amount aggregating to ₹ 5.00 million towards recovery of deductions and ₹ 54.06 million (towards price escalation claims) were subsequently released and/or adjusted in favour of our Company.

Our Company has not experienced any receivable write-offs or disputes on bills with customers to date except we have initiated arbitration proceedings vide Case No. 02 of 2021 pursuing the recovery of additional claims aggregating approximately ₹ 50.15 million and are also contesting the revised liquidated damages of ₹ 5.39 million imposed by RUIDP. Any adverse outcome in these proceedings may have an adverse impact on our profitability and cash flows.

Except for the arbitration proceedings described below, we have not experienced any material receivable write-offs or disputes regarding certification of bills.

The details of the arbitration proceedings are summarised below:

Particulars	Amount (₹ in million)	Status
Original Statement of Claim filed against RUIDP (Case No. 02 of 2021)	90.09	Filed; superseded by Amended Statement of Claim
Amended Statement of Claim filed against RUIDP (Case No. 02 of 2021)	109.21	Arbitration proceedings currently in abeyance
Amount released / adjusted in favour of the Company post Extension of Time (delays not attributable to Company): •Illegal deduction	5.00	Completed

•Price escalation claim	54.06
Balance claim to be pursued by filing second amendment of Statement of Claim	50.15	To be received
Revised LD imposed by RUIDP (disputed)	5.39	Being contested
Two road restoration penalties (disputed)	1.04	Being contested

Although disputes have been limited so far, there can be no assurance that similar situations will not occur in the future. Given our significant exposure to Government-awarded projects, any failure or delay in securing contracts, executing them, or realizing payments under such contracts could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows, and results of operations.

For further details of our order book and contract terms, kindly refer “Our Business – Our Order Book” on page 254 and for arbitration details, kindly refer “Outstanding Litigations and Material Developments” beginning on page 526.

2. Our ability to secure projects is dependent on successful qualification and bidding under government tendering processes, and any failure to qualify or win tenders may adversely affect our order book and financial performance.

We participate in public infrastructure development projects primarily through competitive bidding processes conducted by central and state government agencies, Urban Local Bodies (“ULBs”), and public sector undertakings. Our ability to win such projects including those in wastewater treatment, water supply, electrical transmission and distribution, road construction, microtunneling, and urban infrastructure is contingent upon meeting technical and financial qualification criteria either independently or through joint venture arrangements.

The table below sets forth details of the bids submitted by us and the corresponding conversion metrics for the period ended July 15, 2026 and for the financial years ended March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 indicated:

While we selectively bid for projects that align with our strategic priorities and resource capacity, there can be no assurance that we will continue to pre-qualify or emerge successful in the bidding process. In particular, for high-value or technically complex projects such as sewage treatment plants (“STPs”) of high capacity, multi-zone water transmission networks, high-voltage substation works, or multilateral-funded tenders, further we may need to form joint ventures to meet eligibility norms for the projects of STPs having high capacity. Inability to forge timely and competitive consortiums may limit our ability to pursue such projects. In past we have successfully completed sewage treatment plants (“STPs”) between 3 MLD to 56 MLD.

Further, public tender processes are often subject to change in qualification benchmarks, delays in issuance, or cancellation of tenders altogether. The time and cost invested in bid preparation may not always result in contract awards, which could impact our resource utilization and financial results. Delays in project awarding or declaration of appointed dates even where we are successful can result in under-deployment of labour and equipment, increasing our overheads and affecting margins.

Additionally, awarded projects may be challenged by unsuccessful bidders through legal proceedings. While we have not experienced adverse outcomes or termination of awarded contracts due to such litigation in past, we cannot assure that future legal disputes, if any, will not result in delays or cancellations. Defending such claims may also require us to incur significant time and expenditure, and any unfavourable ruling could have a material adverse effect on our operations, revenue, and profitability.

For further details, kindly refer “Our Business – Our Order Book” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Conditions and Results of Operations” beginning on pages 254 and 486 respectively.

5. Our business is largely concentrated in two states (“States”) and is affected by various factors associated with these states.

Our project portfolio has historically been concentrated in projects in Uttar Pradesh and Rajasthan. Though we are undertaking projects in other parts of India, including Uttarakhand, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar, Odisha and National Capital Territory of Delhi. This concentration of our business in Uttar Pradesh and Rajasthan subjects us to various risks, including but not limited to:

- regional slowdown in construction activities or reduction of infrastructure projects in states;
- vulnerability to change of policies, laws and regulations or the political and economic environment of states;
- constraint on our ability to diversify across states;
- perception by our potential clients that we are a regional construction company, which hampers us from competing for large and complex projects at the national level; and
- Limitation on our ability to cluster projects in the states where we intend to conduct business.

While we strive to diversify across states and reduce our concentration risk, there is no guarantee that the above factors associated with the states will not continue to have a significant impact on our business. If we are not able to mitigate this concentration risk, we may not be able to develop our business as we planned and our business, financial condition and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected. As on the date of this Prospectus, our Company has executed 18 projects out of which 16 projects were executed in Uttar Pradesh and currently we are executing 19 projects out of which 08 projects are executing in Uttar Pradesh. While our Company has not faced any instance of disqualification, cancellation, or blacklisting of any project in these states in past, there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not arise in the future, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

For further information, kindly refer ‘Our Business’ – “Our Order Book” and “Order Book for Completed Projects” beginning on pages 254 and 268, respectively.

The above data has been taken from search report dated July 17, 2026 issued by R & D Company Secretaries, Practicing Company Secretary, vide UDIN: F007775H000869361 along with the addendum dated July 29, 2026. For further details, kindly refer "Material Contracts and Documents for Inspection" beginning on page 618.

We have filed Form GNL-2 with the RoC on July 22, 2026 with, formally notifying the RoC of the aforesaid non-compliances and seeking it's acknowledgement thereof.

No show cause notice in respect to the above (delayed filing and erroneous filing) has been received by our Company till date and no penalty or fine has been imposed by any regulatory authority in respect to the same. Our Company may be required to re-file the e-forms erroneously filed, as the case may be, with additional fees and penalties. Our Company and its Directors and Key Managerial Personnel may face action against above delayed filing or erroneous filing, which may cause a material effect on our results, operations and financial position. Our Company has appointed a Company Secretary & Compliance Officer for statutory compliances, however, it cannot be assured, that there will not be such instances in the future, or our Company will not commit any further delays or defaults in relation to its reporting requirements, or any penalty or fine will not be imposed by any regulatory authority in respect to the same. We will ensure timely compliance in the future, our Company Secretary shall oversee all legal and compliance matters and will make sure to timely comply with all the requirements under the relevant laws and regulation.

7. Our operations are working capital intensive, and any shortfall or delay in the availability of working capital may adversely affect our project execution, business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

Our operations across infrastructure segments, including water and wastewater projects, roads, electrical networks, and civil construction are inherently working capital intensive due to significant upfront expenses in procurement, mobilization, and project execution. As per our restated consolidated financial Information, our working capital requirements for the financial year ended March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 amounted to ₹ 1,338.16 million, ₹ 1,400.09 million and ₹ 1,280.66 million, respectively.

Further, our working capital requirements for Financial Year 2027 are estimated at ₹ 2,909.29 million out of which an amount of ₹ 1,500.00 million will be funded out of the Net Proceeds from issue of fresh equity shares in financial year 2027, whereas the balance, if any, would be arranged from our internal accruals and/or borrowings. For details of our working capital requirements and estimation, kindly refer “Objects of the Offer” beginning on page 136.

Our projects typically follow milestone-based billing structures with clients primarily government authorities releasing payments subject to certification protocols. These procedures, often coupled with administrative delays, result in extended receivable cycles and cash flow mismatches. We are also required to furnish performance guarantees backed by cash margins, and a portion of our contract value is retained as security until defect liability periods are over, further tightening available liquidity. Delays in client-side invoice certification, slower-than-expected release of payments, or a build-up in trade receivables can compel us to rely on short-term borrowings to meet operational needs. Any such dependency may expose us to increased interest costs and strain our liquidity position.

Our ability to secure financing on favourable terms is subject to prevailing credit norms and our relationship with lenders. Changes in bank policies, interest-rate hikes, or the imposition of restrictive loan covenants may impair our access to funding. While our Company has not faced any working-capital shortfall, funding delay, or disruption in project execution due to liquidity constraints as on date of this Prospectus, there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not arise in the future. Any inefficiency in managing our working-capital cycle could lead to execution delays, cost overruns, or project disruptions, thereby adversely impacting our financial performance and operational continuity.

For further details, kindly refer “Restated Consolidated Financial Information” and “Objects of the Offer” beginning on pages 364 and 136, respectively.

8. Our growth is significantly dependent on leveraging government initiatives in the water and wastewater infrastructure sector and our inability to capitalize on these opportunities could adversely affect our business prospects.

Our business is driven by public infrastructure projects funded under various Central and State Government programs. These include sector-specific schemes such as Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation (“AMRUT”), Jal Jeevan Mission (“JJM”), National Mission for Clean Ganga (“NMCG”), as well as broader infrastructure initiatives like the Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana (“PMGSY”), the Rajiv Gandhi Grameen Vidyutikaran Yojana (“RGVY”) and Restructured Accelerated Power Development and Reforms Programme (“RAPDRP”) and electrification schemes by utility agencies such as Paschimanchal Vidyut Vitaran Nigam Limited (“PVVNL”) and Dakshinanchal Vidyut Vitaran Nigam Limited (“DVVNL”). These schemes have collectively contributed to a significant portion of our order book across sectors such as wastewater treatment, water supply, sewerage, roads, and power distribution. For further details of our ongoing projects, kindly refer “Our Business – Our Order Book” on page 254.

As of July 15, 2026, we are executing 06 projects under AMRUT 2.0. Apart from these projects, the bid of our Company has also been recently awarded as L1 status by Delhi Jal Board under AMRUT 2.0 valuing ₹1964.68 million. Our continued participation in such government-led initiatives is crucial to maintaining project flow and sustaining our growth.

However, the ability to secure contracts under these schemes depends on various factors, including adherence to evolving eligibility norms, timely availability of internal and external resources, and responsiveness to tendering requirements. Any failure to qualify, delays in bidding processes, or inability to execute awarded projects in line with prescribed benchmarks may curtail our ability to grow in these sectors. We intend to continue participating in tenders issued under these and similar schemes. However, our ability to secure and successfully execute such projects depends on various factors including availability of financial and technical resources, management bandwidth, and responsiveness to tender conditions. Any inability or delay in capitalizing on these schemes, or failure to meet qualification or execution standards, could restrict our growth trajectory. Moreover, the scope and funding of these schemes are contingent upon government budgetary allocations and policy priorities. A reduction in outlay, reallocation of funds, delays in disbursement, or a shift in implementation strategy such as moving from

EPC to Public-Private Partnership (PPP) or Hybrid Annuity Model (HAM) models could reduce the availability of new projects or alter risk-sharing frameworks unfavourably. Any such development may materially affect our future business pipeline and financial performance.

The table below sets forth our revenue from Government & Government authorities and from Private clients for the financial years ended March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 indicated:

As certified by Rishi Kapoor & Company, Chartered Accountants pursuant to their certificate dated July 10, 2026 vide UDIN: 26455362MFNQNB9135.

While our Company has not experienced any difficulties in past for tendering & securing the contracts, there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not arise in the future, which could adversely affect our operations and financial results.

9. Our business is subject to seasonal fluctuations that could result in delays or disruptions to our operations during the critical periods of our projects and cause severe damages to our premises and equipment's.

Our business operations may be affected by seasonal factors which may restrict our ability to carry on activities related to our construction projects, laying of water pipes and fully utilize our resources.

The following factors may restrict our ability:

- Heavy or sustained rainfalls
- Flood
- Cyclones or
- Other extreme weather conditions

The above could result in delays or disruptions to our operations during the critical periods of our projects and cause severe damages to our premises and equipment's.

In particular, the monsoon season may adversely affect our ability to carry on activities related to our projects and efficiently utilize our resources, resulting in a slowdown in construction projects. This may lead to delays in project execution and consequently defer the recognition of revenue and profits to subsequent quarters. Adverse seasonal developments may also necessitate the evacuation of personnel, suspension or curtailment of operations, damage to construction sites or delays in the delivery of materials. Such fluctuations may adversely affect our revenues, cash flows, results of operations and financial conditions.

In the past, we have experienced an instance of dispute in relation to project execution. A wastewater infrastructure project was awarded by Rajasthan Urban Infrastructure Development Project ("RUIDP") in Udaipur, certain delays, not attributable to our Company, led to deductions and the imposition of liquidated damages by the client, which we disputed. Pursuant to the final Extension of Time dated February 27, 2025 granted by RUIDP, under which an amount aggregating to ₹ 5.00 million (towards deductions) and ₹ 54.06 million (towards price escalation claims) were subsequently released/adjusted in our favour.

Apart from the above, we have not experienced any significant delay of projects or any disruptions to our operations during the critical periods of our projects or severe damages to our construction projects due to any seasonal fluctuations. Further, no assurance can be given that we will not experience such incidents in future.

10. We rely on our in-house engineering and construction teams and on the continued services of our Key Managerial Personnel (KMPs) and Senior Management Personnel (SMPs). Loss of key talent, inability to recruit/retain skilled manpower, or elevated attrition may adversely affect our operations and growth.

Our ability to execute infrastructure projects (including wastewater treatment, water supply, roads, electrical networks and micro-tunnelling) is critically dependent on our in-house teams of engineers, designers and site supervisors and on the leadership and experience of our KMPs and SMPs. As of May 31, 2026, we employed 170 full-time personnel, including 78 engineers across civil, mechanical and electrical disciplines. This internal capacity enables us to manage the EPC lifecycle (design, procurement, construction, commissioning and quality assurance).

For further details, kindly refer “Our Business – Human Resources” on page 304 and “Our Management-Key Management Personnel and Senior Management Personnel” on page 352.

We face risks of attrition (particularly at project sites where relocations are required), competition for technical talent, and timely onboarding of replacements. Any inability to retain KMPs/SMPs or attract qualified engineers, site supervisors and project managers could delay bids and execution, raise costs, impair quality, or result in loss of institutional know-how. As our project portfolio expands, we may need to offer enhanced compensation or long-term incentives to attract/retain talent, which could impact margins. Delays or lapses in workforce planning or statutory HR compliance could also affect operations.

As certified by Rishi Kapoor & Company, Chartered Accountants pursuant to their certificate dated July 10, 2026, vide UDIN: 26455362MZDSEH9378.

While we have not experienced material attrition at the KMP/SMP level in the past, there can be no assurance that such stability will continue. Any significant loss of leadership, or failure to maintain a robust talent pipeline, could adversely affect our business continuity, financial condition and growth prospects.

Further, we also employ contract labour for civil construction work. The number of contract labourers employed by us fluctuates depending on the scope and scale of the projects we undertake. Our dependence on such contract labour introduces certain risks to our operations, particularly regarding the availability and skillset of these labourers, as well as potential disruptions during peak periods in labour-intensive sectors like ours. There is no guarantee that we will always have access to skilled labour at competitive rates or in the locations where we carry out our projects. Consequently, we may need to incur additional expenses to ensure the timely completion of our projects.

11. We are required to furnish bank guarantees as part of our business. Our inability to arrange such guarantees or the invocation of such guarantees may adversely affect our cash flows and financial condition.

As part of our business operations and in accordance with industry practice, we are required to furnish financial and performance bank guarantees in favour of our project clients pursuant to the terms of the respective project contracts. Typically, we provide such bank guarantees to the relevant contracting authority for an amount aggregating to approximately 10-15% of the respective contract value.

We may not be able to continue obtaining new financial and performance bank guarantees in sufficient quantities to match our business requirements. If we are unable to provide sufficient collateral to secure the financial bank guarantees, performance bank guarantees or letters of credit, our ability to enter into new contracts or obtain adequate supplies could be limited and could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Further, the process of obtaining contracts, financial and performance bank guarantees, tends to increase our working capital requirements. As of March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025, and March 31, 2024, we had issued bank guarantees amounting to ₹ 1,680.33 million, ₹ 1,113.16 million and ₹ 792.27 million, respectively, towards securing our financial / performance obligations under our ongoing projects. We may be unable to fulfil any or all of our obligations under the contracts entered into by us in relation to our ongoing projects due to unforeseen circumstances which may result in a default under our contracts resulting in invocation of the bank guarantees issued by us.

If any or all the bank guarantees are invoked, it may result in a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

12. Failure to meet performance standards or retain skilled staff in our Operations and Maintenance (O&M) segment may adversely impact our long-term contracts and client relationships.

We undertake long-term Operations and Maintenance (“O&M”) assignments following commissioning of public infrastructure assets including sewage treatment plants “STPs”, sewerage networks, and water supply systems. These contracts, often spanning 5-10 years, require deployment of dedicated teams for round-the-clock site management, preventive maintenance, and compliance with service benchmarks.

O&M work is resource-intensive and spread across geographically dispersed locations. High attrition, particularly among locally recruited site-level technicians, may disrupt operational continuity and affect performance-linked payments. Failure to meet contractually agreed performance standards may result in imposition of penalties, reputational damage, or termination of ongoing contracts.

As of July 15, 2026, in addition to O&M works to be done by our Company after completion of sewerage works, we are executing 5 O&M contracts with a total value of ₹ 248.70 million. For further details, kindly refer “Our Business – Our Order Book for Operations and Maintenance (O&M) works” on page 266.

While our Company has not faced any instance of penalty, termination, or adverse client action in relation to non-performance due to manpower attrition or any other non-compliance due to skilled manpower under any O&M Contracts as on date of this Prospectus, there can be no assurance that such instances will not occur in the future. Any failure to meet prescribed performance standards or retain skilled technical personnel could adversely affect our recurring revenues, reputation, and ability to secure future O&M mandates.

13. Our reliance on contract labour introduced through sub-contractors may create operational uncertainties and impact project timelines and cost efficiency.

We execute works using third-party sub-contractors who deploy contract labour for civil construction, electrical works and site operations depending on project scale and location. The availability, skill level and cost of such sub-contractors' deployed workmen vary across geographies and may be influenced by seasonal factors or competing infrastructure demands.

There is no assurance that we or our sub-contractors will always have access to an adequate pool of skilled workmen at competitive rates. Labour shortages or disruptions during peak construction phases may delay execution, inflate costs or compromise workmanship. Additionally, variations in local labour regulations, unionisation risks and site-specific conditions could further affect deployment.

Our contract labour deployment is via sub-contractors on a project-specific basis and fluctuates with execution timelines and local requirements. Our agreements with sub-contractors require them to comply with applicable labour and safety laws and to ensure timely wage payments and social security contributions (as applicable), however, any failure on their part may still disrupt our operations and expose us to contractual or statutory risks (including, where applicable, responsibilities that may be attributed to a principal employer under law).

While we have not experienced any instance of labour unrest, non-compliance, or disruption in project execution attributable to our sub-contractors or their deployed workmen as on date of this Prospectus; however, there can be no assurance that such incidents will not occur in the future. Any such event may adversely affect our project timelines, cost efficiency, and overall operations.

For further details on our manpower model, kindly refer to “Our Business – Human Resources” on page 304 and for applicable labour/safety laws, kindly refer “Key Industry Regulations and Policies” beginning on page 319.

14. *We have entered into, and may continue to enter into, related-party transactions with our Group Company, VVIP Infratech Limited, representing 4.76% and 26.64% of our cost of revenue from operations for the Financial Year ended March 31, 2026 and March 31, 2025, respectively. There can be no assurance that we will be able to address such conflicts of interests in the future, which may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

15. Our Order Book may not be a reliable indicator of our future revenue or profitability, and any delay, modification, or cancellation of projects may materially affect our financial performance, liquidity, and cash flows.

As on July 15, 2026, our Order Book includes 14 EPC projects across water & wastewater treatment infrastructure work and roads and highways work with an aggregate unexecuted contract value of ₹ 13,054.45 million and 5 Operations and Maintenance (O&M) projects aggregating ₹ 152.87 million. Our Order Book represents the unexecuted value of ongoing and newly awarded contracts. It is compiled based on internal estimates and is unaudited. The methodology used by our Company may differ from industry practices and should not be construed as a guaranteed measure of future revenue or profitability. The realization of income from our Order Book is subject to various factors including but not limited to project approvals, site conditions, contractual timelines and changes in project scope or specifications by the client.

Delays in obtaining statutory approvals or right-of-way, client-side indecision, adverse site conditions, or contractual disputes may lead to postponement, modification, or even cancellation of projects. In some cases, project activities may be initiated before receiving formal work orders or completion certificates, which may delay revenue recognition or lead to payment disputes.

Additionally, in projects involving government or public sector undertakings, even timely execution may not ensure prompt payments. Such delays can impact our billing cycle, working capital requirements, and liquidity. Consequently, our revenue and profitability may vary significantly across reporting periods and could be adversely affected if projects are stalled, altered, or not completed as expected. Any delay, variation or termination in key projects may materially affect our financial performance, liquidity and cash flows.

As an industry practice, order given by the Government agencies or bodies are subject to closure/ terminated and marked as completed before the entire work is completed by contractor for various commercial and operational reasons, including site-specific constraints, non-receipt of approvals or clearances to be arranged by concerned department or other contractual adjustments, without any fault or substandard performance of work by contractor. While our Company has not experienced any project cancellation. However, in the past, we have experienced instances of early completion/termination of project by government and loss of revenue on account of order changes due to reason not attributable to substandard work performed by our Company and there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not arise again in the future. Details of recent instances of early project completion/termination are as follows:

*Final bill is still pending

In addition to delay in receipt of payment for completed work and early completion/ termination of work, completion of work may not be to the satisfaction of government client. Such dissatisfaction might result in disputes, deduction of payment towards work done and harm the reputation of contractor which could affect its ability successfully bid for and secure future contracts and orders from government and private clients.

While our Company has experienced any disputes or reputational harm, it has experienced deductions in payment of work done by our Company for certain government clients and there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not arise again in the future.

Details of recent instances of deduction by government clients are as follows:

Further, we have experienced instances where NTP (Notice to Proceed) or completion of project has been delayed due to pending land availability, utility shifting or other conditions precedent to commencement of work, including approvals that are typically arranged by the awarding authorities, there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not arise again in the future, which may result in delays in project mobilization, extension of timelines, invocation of performance securities, or cost overruns.

- 16. We cannot assure you that the Objects of the Offer will be achieved within the expected time frame, any variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds of the Fresh Issue as disclosed in this Prospectus shall be subject to certain compliance requirements, including prior Shareholders' approval.

Our Company proposes to utilise the Net Proceeds towards the following objects:

Particulars	Amount
Working Capital Requirements	1,500.00
General Corporate Purpose ⁽¹⁾	412.18
Net Proceeds ⁽¹⁾	1,912.18

⁽¹⁾ The amount proposed to be utilised for general corporate purpose shall not exceed 25% of the gross proceed from Fresh Issue.

The Objects of the Offer have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution. While a monitoring agency has been appointed to monitor the utilisation of the Gross Proceeds from issue of fresh equity shares, the proposed utilisation of the Net Proceeds is based on current business plan, prevailing market conditions and other commercial and technical factors including interest rates and other charges, the financing and other agreements entered into by our Company, which is subject to change in light of changes in external circumstances and other factors beyond our control such as general economic conditions, inflation, technological changes, changing customer preferences and competitive landscape, credit availability and interest rate levels. Our management will have broad discretion to revise our business plans, estimates and budgets from time to time. Consequently, our funding requirements and deployment of funds may change, which may result in rescheduling of the proposed utilisation of the Net Proceeds, subject to compliance with applicable law. A portion of the Net Proceeds proposed to be utilised towards general corporate purposes will be deployed at the discretion of our management. For further information kindly refer “Objects of the Offer” beginning on page 136.

In case of increase in actual expenses or shortfall in requisite funds, additional funds for a particular activity will be met by any means available to us, including internal accruals and additional equity and/or debt arrangements. If actual utilisation towards the Objects of the Offer is lower than the proposed deployment, such balance will be used for future growth opportunities, including funding other existing objects, if required. If estimated utilisation of the Net Proceeds from issue of fresh equity shares is not completely met in a financial year, it shall be carried forward. In accordance with Section 27 of the Companies Act, 2013, we cannot undertake any variation in the utilization of the Net Proceeds from the Fresh Issue as disclosed in this Prospectus without obtaining the shareholders' approval through a special resolution. In the event of any such circumstances that requires us to undertake variation in the disclosed utilisation of the Net Proceeds, we may not be able to obtain the Shareholders' approval in a timely manner, or at all. Any delay or inability in obtaining such Shareholders' approval may adversely affect our business or operations. In addition, where required under the SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, 2018 our Promoters or controlling shareholders may be required to provide an exit opportunity to shareholders who do not agree with the proposed variation in the Objects of the Offer. We cannot assure you that they will always have adequate financial resources to do so. If our shareholders exercise such exit option, our business and financial condition could be adversely affected. Therefore, we may not be able to undertake variation of objects of the Offer to use any unutilized proceeds of the Fresh Issue, if any, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company, which may restrict our ability to respond to any change in our business or financial condition, and may adversely affect our business and results of operations. Further, we cannot assure you that the Promoters or the controlling shareholders of our Company will have adequate resources at their disposal at all times to enable them to provide an exit opportunity at the price prescribed by SEBI.

17. We rely on joint venture partners for selective project bids and the execution of certain awarded projects. Failure by such partners to perform their obligations could adversely impact our operations, increase our financial and performance-related responsibilities, and reduce our profitability.

Our Company selectively forms joint ventures to bid and execute projects where technical or financial qualification criteria require such arrangements. As of July 15, 2026, Company is executing 07 projects under the joint ventures with unexecuted contract value of ₹ 9,176.24 million, out of our total Order Book of ₹ 13,207.32 million.

For further details on the Projects of our Company with Joint Ventures, kindly refer “Our Business – Our Order Book” on page 254.

The success of projects undertaken through joint ventures is dependent on the continued performance of our joint venture partners. We and our joint venture partners are typically jointly and severally liable under the terms of the contract. If a joint venture partner fails to perform its obligations due to operational inefficiencies, financial constraints, or other reasons, we may be required to step in to perform the defaulting partner’s obligations or assume full responsibility for the project, which could lead to delays, cost overruns, or potential losses. Additionally, disputes or misalignment with our joint venture partners may delay project execution or cause reputational harm.

Moreover, our joint ventures are not wholly controlled and managed by us. There are specific risks associated with the inability to control the activities of joint venture partners, which may, in turn, pose additional risks to us. These risks include the potential failure of joint venture partners to meet their obligations under joint venture agreements, conflicts with partners, the risk of a partner misappropriating valuable knowledge, and the possibility that a joint venture entity may not have access to necessary funds. While we have not experienced any adverse impact on account of our joint ventures to the date of this Prospectus, we cannot assure that such situations will not arise in the future. Inability to secure capable joint venture partners in the future may also restrict our ability to bid for projects that require consortium participation, thereby limiting our business development opportunities.

18. We depend on external suppliers for critical inputs, and any shortfall in their performance could adversely affect our project delivery timelines and quality.

While the core design, engineering, and construction activities across our infrastructure segments including WWTPs, WSSPs, roads, and electrical works are predominantly executed by our in-house teams, we rely on suppliers for the timely provision of key inputs such as raw materials, plant and machinery, and specialized equipment. Any delay or deficiency in the delivery of such inputs whether due to material shortages, logistical disruptions, supply chain constraints, or quality issues may adversely impact our execution timelines, escalate project costs, or affect the quality of deliverables.

Although we have not experienced any material disruptions due to supplier performance in the past, there can be no assurance that such instances will not occur in the future. Any such disruptions could impair our operational efficiency, hinder our ability to comply with project schedules, and adversely affect client relationships and profitability. Given the scale and technical complexity of certain projects, the continued reliability and effective coordination with our supplier base is essential to maintain construction momentum and adhere to contractual milestones.

19. We have certain contingent liabilities, which, if materialized, may affect our financial condition and results of operations.

The details of our contingent liabilities and commitments (as per Ind AS 37), derived from the Restated Consolidated Financial Information are as set out below as at March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024:

Further, an order dated December 29, 2025 was issued by the Additional Commissioner Central Goods and Services Tax,	34.67	Amount not quantifiable	-

Commissionerate Meerut, Mangal Pandey Nagar, Opp CCS University, Meerut confirming the demand and holding that UP Jal Nigam is not a local authority. Our Company has filed a writ petition on March 30, 2026 before the High Court of Allahabad against the said order dated December 29, 2025. The Hon'ble Allahabad High Court has issued notice to the department and granted a stay. The matter is currently pending at the pre-proceedings stage.
Our Company has filed an appeal before the appropriate appellate authority against the Order-in-Original dated December 10, 2025, passed by the Assistant Commissioner, CGST Division-VI, Ghaziabad. The said order was issued pursuant to a Show Cause Notice dated June 30, 2025, based on a Directorate General of Analytics and Risk Management (DGARM) report dated July 18, 2022, alleging mismatches in Input Tax Credit (ITC) claimed in GSTR-3B vis-à-vis GSTR-2A, as well as discrepancies in GSTR-9 for the financial years 2018-19 to 2020-21. Our Company has made the required statutory pre-deposit of approximately ₹1.72 million on March 07, 2026 and has filed an appeal on March 09, 2026. The order confirmed a tax demand of ₹17.18 million (towards CGST, SGST, and IGST), along with an equivalent penalty under Section 74 of the CGST Act, 2017, aggregating to a total demand of approximately ₹ 34.38 million. Our Company contends that the invocation of Section 74 is not justified in the absence of any allegation or evidence of fraud, wilful misstatement, or suppression of facts. Further, based on the representation and confirmation provided by the management, our Company has stated that the proceedings are time-barred and in violation of the principles of natural justice, including denial of adequate opportunity of being heard. Our Company has also sought quashing of the impugned order along with the penalty. The Company's appeal in Form GST APL-01, filed on March 09, 2026 after depositing the statutory pre-deposit of approximately ₹1.72 million, is presently pending before the Central Appellate Authority and continues to reflect the status of "Appeal Submitted" on the GST portal. Subsequently, the Office of the Commissioner (Appeals), CGST Meerut, has initiated appellate proceedings and has called for comments from the jurisdictional authority on the grounds of appeal for further consideration of the matter.	34.38	-	-
The VAT Department has issued a letter to Punjab National Bank (PNB) alleging that an outstanding demand of ₹0.22 million is payable by the Company for Assessment Year (AY) 2009-2010. The said demand is completely erroneous, illegal, and contrary to the facts and applicable law. Further, the VAT Department had directed PNB for the encashment of the Fixed Deposit Receipt (FDR) of ₹ 0.1 million	0.22	-	-

deposited by the Company as security at the time of its VAT registration. Pursuant thereto, an amount of ₹0.17 million has been recovered from the Company, which action is also wholly illegal, arbitrary, and without any legal basis.
The Company has submitted a representation to the VAT Department stating that the assessment proceedings for AY 2009-2010 had already been completed and, upon completion of the assessment, a refund of ₹ 0.64 million was duly sanctioned and issued to the Company during the relevant period. Therefore, no outstanding demand exists against the Company for the said assessment year or for any period thereafter.
Accordingly, the demand raised by the VAT Department and the consequent recovery effected through encashment of the FDR are unjustified and liable to be withdrawn forthwith.

If a significant portion of these liabilities materialize, it could have an effect on our results of operations and financial condition. Further, there can be no assurance that we will not incur similar or increased levels of contingent liabilities in the future.

20. We enter into various contract agreements with our customers for our construction projects. Such agreements contain conditions and requirements, the non-fulfilment of which could result in delays or inability to implement and complete our projects as contemplated.

Most of our projects are as a direct contractor from government authorities. The agreement confers the rights on us to construct and develop the said project for a fixed fee. Such project involves following the drawing plans, architecture designs, timelines, material quality, end finishing of the structure, etc. Though we are generally empowered to make practical operating decisions for development of the project, we may be required to make certain decisions in consultation with the government agencies involved and / or regulatory authorities. These arrangements may limit our flexibility to make certain decisions in relation to the projects. In the event of any delay in the completion of the project within the envisaged time frame, we may be required to indemnify and compensate the employers or contractors with whom we have entered into an agreement with. Any disputes that may arise between us and the parties involved in the agreement may cause delay in completion, suspension or complete abandonment of the projects we undertake. This may have a material adverse effect on our business operations, financial condition and reputation.

While our Company has not faced any instance of contractual termination, invocation of indemnity, or dispute leading to delay or abandonment of any project due to non-fulfilment of conditions by our Company, there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not occur in the future, which could adversely affect our business operations, financial condition, and reputation.

21. Destruction, theft, breakdowns of our major plants or equipment or failures to repair or maintain the same may adversely affect our business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations.

We are engaged in the operations and maintenance (O&M) of STPs, water supply projects, and sewerage schemes post-commissioning, across various government contracts. These services are generally resource-intensive and depend significantly on the availability and performance of machinery, pumping stations, electrical control systems, mechanical parts, and mobile service equipment. For further information, kindly refer “Our Business - Our Order Book for Operations and Maintenance (O&M) works” on page 266.

We deploy critical plant and equipment including bar screens, blowers, Supervisory Control and Data Acquisition (“SCADA”) systems, decanters, and pumps which are necessary for maintaining treatment capacity and discharge standards under applicable effluent or water quality norms. The destruction, theft, malfunction, or prolonged downtime of such machinery due to wear and tear, accident, or vandalism can impact service continuity. In particular, delays in the repair or replacement of imported parts or specialized components sourced from OEMs (original equipment manufacturers) may result in penalty deductions under O&M contracts.

Although we have not experienced such incidents in the past, there can be no assurance that such risks will not arise in the future. Any unavailability of key equipment or breakdown of machinery during ongoing O&M assignments may render us unable to meet our contracted performance obligations, leading to breach of service-level standards, revenue loss, or invocation of contractual penalties. Additionally, if such events are not adequately covered under our insurance policies or if the claim settlement is delayed or disputed, it may further affect our liquidity and financial position.

Our ability to sustain long-term O&M contracts is critically dependent on preventive maintenance, availability of spare parts, timely repairs, and technical intervention all of which involve coordination between our internal engineering teams and external suppliers. As we continue to expand our portfolio of O&M projects across regions, these risks may be magnified and could adversely impact our business, cash flows, and results of operations.

22. Trade Receivables and Inventories form a substantial part of our current assets and net worth. Failure to accurately forecast and manage inventory could result in an unexpected shortfall and/ or surplus of raw materials, equipment and manpower, which could affect our business and financial condition.

Our business requires significant working capital investment, which constitutes trade receivables and inventories together form a substantial part of our non-cash current assets, constituting 79.50%, 72.93% and 74.59% of total non-cash current assets as of March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 respectively. As on the said dates, our total trade receivables and inventories stood at ₹ 1,863.02 million, ₹ 1,471.17 million and ₹ 1,559.28 million, respectively.

We procure materials and plan manpower deployment based on management estimates of project timelines, customer demand, and past trends. Any underestimation may result in shortages of raw materials, equipment, or labour, affecting project execution and increasing costs. Conversely, overestimation may lead to excess inventory, additional storage cost, reduced inventory quality, and potential write-offs, all of which can impact our margins and liquidity.

Moreover, our ability to effectively manage trade receivables is critical to our cash flows. If we fail to evaluate the creditworthiness of customers or secure appropriate payment terms, it may result in bad debts, delayed recoveries, or write-offs, leading to liquidity crunches. This may, in turn, require increased working capital borrowings, escalating finance costs and adversely impacting our profitability. Any inability to manage our inventory or receivables effectively may result in operational disruptions, stringent credit period, and adverse effects on our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

While our Company has not encountered any instance of inventory obsolescence, write-offs, or bad debt leading to a material adverse impact on our financial condition as on date of this Prospectus, there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not occur in the future, which could adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

23. Our Company has availed ₹ 314.93 million and ₹ 320.04 million as on March 31, 2026 and May 31, 2026 respectively, as unsecured loan which are repayable on demand. Any demand from the lenders for repayment of such unsecured loan may affect our cash flow and financial condition.

As per the Restated Consolidated Financial Information as on March 31, 2026, our Company has availed a sum of ₹ 314.93 million and ₹ 320.04 million as on May 31, 2026 as unsecured loans which are repayable on demand. Sudden recall may disrupt our operations and also may force us to opt for funding at higher interest rates, resulting in higher financial burden. Further, we will not be able to raise funds at short notice and thus resulting in shortage of working capital fund. For further details, kindly refer “Financial Indebtedness” beginning on page 473. Any demand for the repayment of such unsecured loans, may adversely affect our cash flow and financial condition.

While our Company has not received any demand or recall from any of the lenders of such unsecured loans as on date of this Prospectus, there can be no assurance that such demand will not arise in the future, which could adversely affect our cash flow, working capital availability, and financial condition.

24. Increases in the cost of raw materials, labour, and contract execution charges may impact our profitability and cash flows.

Our operations across infrastructure segments including wastewater treatment, water supply schemes, roads, housing, electrical works, and microtunneling require significant consumption of raw materials, construction equipment, and skilled and unskilled labour. Inputs such as steel, cement, pipes, electrical components, and fuel are critical to our project execution. The cost and availability of these materials are influenced by multiple external factors including domestic and international supply-demand dynamics, local sourcing constraints, transportation costs, and geopolitical developments.

For the financial year ended March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 our cost of revenue of operations adjusted to change in inventories amounted to ₹ 2,579.36 million, ₹ 2,170.50 million and ₹ 1,839.95 million, respectively, representing 74.76%, 77.64% and 81.38%, respectively of our revenue from operations. For further details, kindly refer “Restated Consolidated Financial Information” beginning on page 364.

Our contracts are typically awarded through competitive bidding and are structured as fixed-price or item-rate contracts, many of which include limited price escalation clauses. These arrangements expose us to the risk of absorbing increased costs in the event of material or labour price inflation. While some contracts include price variation mechanisms, we cannot assure that such clauses will be adequate to fully offset cost escalations or that they will be contractually enforceable in every circumstance.

Moreover, our execution costs may increase due to factors such as changes in applicable tax rates, unanticipated site conditions, labour unavailability, delays in client handovers, or exigencies arising during implementation. Any such increase in project input costs could adversely affect our margins, cash flows, and overall financial performance.

While our Company has not experienced any instance of project loss or cost overrun solely attributable to unexpected increases in input or labour costs materially affecting the financial performance of our Company as on date of this Prospectus, there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not occur in the future, which could adversely impact our margins, cash flows, and overall financial performance.

25. Variations in project execution costs from bid-stage assumptions may result in reduced profitability or losses.

We undertake the construction and execution of infrastructure projects including WWTPs, WSSPs, roads, electrical systems, and urban utilities primarily through fixed-price EPC contracts awarded by government authorities and public bodies through competitive bidding. At the bid stage, we estimate input costs based on available technical data, preliminary site assessments, and projected quantities of materials, labour, equipment, and subcontracted services.

However, actual execution costs may deviate materially from bid-stage assumptions due to a variety of factors, including unforeseen geotechnical or site-specific conditions, changes in project scope or design after award, delays in land possession or statutory approvals, labour shortages, or weather-related disruptions. Volatility in the prices of key construction inputs such as cement, steel, pipes, and fuel can further widen the gap between projected and actual costs.

Although certain contracts contain escalation clauses or permit variations in quantities, there is no assurance that such provisions will be sufficient or enforceable to fully compensate for unanticipated increases in cost. Additionally, projects undertaken through joint ventures may expose us to shared risks and liabilities, including cost overruns or delays caused by the actions or defaults of our partners. Any material cost deviations that cannot be recovered through contract variation or claims mechanisms may lead to margin erosion or project-level losses, adversely impacting our financial performance and cash flows.

While our Company has not experienced any instance of project loss or cost overrun arising out of inaccurate bid-stage assumptions as on date of this Prospectus, there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not occur in the future, which could adversely affect our profitability, cash flows, and financial performance.

26. We require certain approvals and licenses in the ordinary course of business and are required to comply with certain rules and regulations to operate our business, and the failure to obtain, retain and renew such approvals and licences in timely manner or comply with such rules and regulations or at all may adversely affect our operations.

We require certain statutory and regulatory permits, licenses and approvals to operate our business. Many of these approvals are granted for fixed periods of time and need renewal from time to time. Non-renewal of the said permits and licenses would adversely affect our operations, thereby having a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. There can be no assurance that the relevant authorities will issue any of such permits or approvals in the time-frame anticipated by us or at all.

Further, some of our permits, licenses and approvals are subject to several conditions and we cannot provide any assurance that we will be able to continuously meet such conditions or be able to prove compliance with such conditions to the statutory authorities, which may lead to the cancellation, revocation or suspension of relevant permits, licenses or approvals. Any failure by us to apply in time, to renew, maintain or obtain the required permits, licenses or approvals, or revoke the cancellation or suspension of any of the permits, licenses or approvals may result in the interruption of our operations and may have a material adverse effect on the business.

Currently no approvals/licenses are pending which we have applied. For further details, kindly refer “Key Industry Regulations and Policies” and “Government and Other Statutory Approvals” beginning on pages 319 and 539 respectively.

27. Institutional capacity constraints at government and municipal authorities, and evolving regulatory standards may delay inspections, certifications and approvals, adversely affecting billing timelines, costs and cash flows.

Execution of wastewater treatment and water supply projects requires continuous coordination with multiple government and municipal agencies, such as State Pollution Control Boards (SPCBs), Urban Local Bodies (ULBs), Jal Nigams, and project management consultants appointed under government schemes. These authorities are responsible for issuing site clearances, laboratory testing certifications, commissioning approvals, and compliance verification under state and central frameworks such as the Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974 and applicable discharge standards.

Institutional capacity in many of these bodies reflected in staffing limitations, procedural bottlenecks, or limited laboratory and technical resources can delay inspections, quality certifications, and approvals that are essential preconditions for project milestone billing. Such delays can defer invoice processing and payment cycles, resulting in temporary working capital strain.

In addition, evolving standards relating to treated water quality, reuse obligations, and discharge norms may necessitate modifications to plant design, revalidation of test results, or re-approvals from technical agencies. These evolving compliance requirements can lead to additional costs, delays in project completion, or rework at the Company's expense.

While our Company has not faced any material payment denials solely attributable to institutional capacity or regulatory approval delays to date, there can be no assurance that such delays will not occur in the future, and any such occurrence could adversely affect our profitability, cash flows, and overall financial condition. For further details of sectoral challenges, kindly refer "Industry Overview - Key Market Challenges" on page 201.

28. Our reliance on advanced and rapidly evolving technologies for the design, construction and operation of wastewater treatment plants ("WWTPs") and water supply scheme projects ("WSSPs") exposes us to the risk of disqualification from tenders and loss of competitiveness.

Our business model requires us to provide customised, design-build solutions for WWTPs and WSSPs, integrating civil, electrical, mechanical and instrumentation works with modern water treatment and distribution technologies. As disclosed under "Our Business – Segments of our Business Operations" on page 275, we deploy technologies such as Sequential Batch Reactor (SBR) and Upflow Anaerobic Sludge Blanket (UASB) to meet regulatory and client-specific standards. Government authorities and project owners periodically update their technical norms in line with evolving environmental and sustainability regulations, including those under AMRUT 2.0, Jal Jeevan Mission and Namami Gange. Our continued eligibility to participate in such projects depends on our ability to adapt to these evolving requirements.

Failure to adopt new or mandated technologies, delays in upgrading our engineering and operational capacities, or inability to demonstrate compliance with updated project specifications may result in our disqualification at the pre-qualification or bidding stage, reduced competitiveness in tender processes, or the loss of opportunities to secure contracts. Even where projects are awarded, deficiencies in technical adoption may lead to cost overruns, penalties, or reduced client confidence in our capabilities.

In parallel, water treatment and reuse technologies are evolving rapidly, with new processes and equipment being introduced by original equipment manufacturers ("OEMs") and international technology providers. Market demand may shift in favour of advanced or specialised technologies not currently in our portfolio. If our clients increasingly favour such technologies, or if we are unable to offer them at competitive costs, we may lose market share or be unable to participate in certain projects. Conversely, shifts in customer preference away from technologies we already deploy could result in discontinued or abandoned projects, adversely impacting our revenue pipeline and client relationships.

While we have in the past introduced upgraded water treatment solutions and have sought to form partnerships with technology providers, there can be no assurance that our efforts will be timely, sufficient or cost-effective. If we fail to invest adequately, or fail to secure access to the latest technologies through in-house R&D or third-party collaborations, we may miss market opportunities or be unable to meet project requirements.

Given the centrality of technology in our WWTP and WSSP projects, any inability to adapt to evolving technical norms, respond to market demand shifts, or secure access to new technologies may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and competitive positioning.

For further details of our project portfolio, kindly refer "Our Business – Our Order Book" on page 254 and "Our Business – Segments of our Business Operations" on page 275.

29. Our government contracts typically contain terms that are more favourable to government authorities. Our limited ability to negotiate such contracts, coupled with provisions permitting unilateral suspension or termination and other onerous obligations, may adversely affect our project execution, profitability, financial condition and results of operations.

We execute a significant portion of our infrastructure projects, including wastewater treatment plants, water supply schemes, roads, highways, electrical works and other infrastructure projects, pursuant to contracts awarded by government authorities and public sector bodies. These contracts are generally based on standard terms and conditions prescribed by the awarding authorities and are typically non-negotiable. Accordingly, we have limited ability to negotiate or amend provisions relating to our obligations, project specifications, operation and maintenance requirements, payment terms, construction rates, liability, indemnities, dispute resolution mechanisms and other commercial terms.

Our government contracts may contain provisions that are more favourable to the awarding authorities, including:

- (i) transfer of significant project execution risks to us without corresponding obligations on the part of the client;
- (ii) liability for defects that may continue even after project completion, termination or handover;
- (iii) discretionary powers of the client to extend project timelines, which may result in delays, increased costs and reduced profitability without corresponding compensation;
- (iv) exposure to claims for consequential or economic losses;
- (v) delays in land acquisition, utility shifting or statutory and regulatory approvals, which remain the responsibility of the client but may materially affect project execution; and
- (vi) the right of the client to suspend or unilaterally terminate the contract, including without assigning any reason or for reasons beyond our control.

Although certain contracts provide for compensation where termination is not attributable to our default, such compensation generally covers only unrecovered investments and costs incurred and does not compensate us for anticipated profits or other consequential losses. Further, the process for determination and payment of such compensation may be prolonged, and the amount ultimately received may be inadequate to recover our financial exposure. Upon such termination, we may also be required to hand over the project site, works executed and project assets to the relevant authority without full recovery of our costs.

Further, in the event of any alleged breach or default under our contracts, government authorities may suspend project execution, impose penalties, invoke performance security or indemnity obligations, levy liquidated damages or disqualify us from participating in future tenders. While we have not experienced any material instance of contract termination, invocation of liquidated damages, suspension, or disqualification under any government contract as of the date of this Prospectus, there can be no assurance that such events will not occur in the future.

The occurrence of any of the foregoing events could result in project delays, increased costs, disruption of operations, reduced profitability, revenue uncertainty, reputational harm and cash flow constraints, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

30. Inadequate performance or failure to comply with contractual standards under Operation and Maintenance (O&M) works may result in penalties, termination of contracts, or reputational harm, and could adversely impact our business and financial condition.

Our Company undertakes operation and maintenance (O&M) works as part of several government-awarded projects. These O&M works typically follow the execution and commissioning of wastewater treatment plants and are governed by detailed performance standards prescribed in the underlying contracts with the awarding authorities. As on July 15, 2026, our O&M Order Book comprises 5 projects, aggregating to an unexecuted value of ₹ 152.87 million, with contract periods ranging from 5 to 10 years. For further details, kindly refer to “Our Business – Our Order Book for Operations and Maintenance (O&M) works” on page 266.

Under the terms of these contracts, we are required to comply with specified maintenance protocols and quality benchmarks, including periodic assessments of treated water quality and project upkeep by independent third-party agencies. Non-compliance with performance obligations may result in liquidated damages, withholding of payments, or, in some cases, termination of the concession or service agreement.

Based on our records and confirmations from project/O&M teams, up to July 15, 2026, there have been no instances of contractual non-compliance under our O&M contracts that have resulted in the imposition of liquidated damages/penalties, termination notices, declaration of material default, or invocation of performance securities. This past performance, however, does not eliminate the risks described below.

Our cost structure may also be affected by unforeseen increases in O&M expenditure arising from (i) revisions in statutory maintenance standards; (ii) rise in manpower and input costs; (iii) increased frequency of major repairs; or (iv) higher fuel and electricity consumption. Moreover, technical disruptions in our operational systems or failure to meet stipulated service levels may adversely impact our financial performance.

Any significant deviation from contracted performance standards, whether due to operational inefficiencies, external cost escalations, or systemic failures, may result in the imposition of penalties, adversely affect our cash flows, and materially impact our business, reputation, and results of operations. There can be no assurance that we will not experience such instances in the future.

31. We are presently unable to trace the educational certificates of one of our Director & Promoter, Key Managerial Personnel and certain Senior Management Personnel.

One of our Director & Promoter, Mrs. Rekha Tyagi (stated to hold a Bachelor of Arts degree from Meerut University), and two of our Senior Management Personnel, Mr. Rajiv Tyagi (stated to be a graduate from the University of Delhi, in the year 1991) and Mr. Fateh Chand Sharma (stated to hold a Bachelor of Science degree from Chaudhary Charan Singh University, in the year 1996), possess the necessary experience for their respective positions. However, the original copies of their degree certificates are presently untraceable, and accordingly, their educational qualifications are not reflected at the relevant places in this Prospectus.

Further, our Company Secretary and Key Managerial Personnel, Ms. Shefali Kesarwani, has completed her LL.B. from Nehru Gram Bharti Vishwavidyalaya, Allahabad. While the final degree certificate could not be produced, she is in possession of the mark sheets for all three years of the said course, based on which her educational qualification has been disclosed in this Prospectus.

The concerned individuals have provided written confirmations/undertakings regarding the misplacement of their educational certificates. Applications have been submitted to the respective universities, together with identity documents and prescribed fees, for verification and issuance of duplicate certificates/mark-sheets. As on the date of this Prospectus, the responses from respective Universities are still awaiting.

Further, there can be no assurances that they will be able to trace or obtain the relevant documents pertaining to their educational qualifications in future or at all. For details of their profiles, kindly refer “Our Management- Brief profiles of our Directors” and “Our Management- Senior Management Personnel” on pages 337 and 352, respectively.

32. Potential and perceivable conflict of interest in view of Mr. Sanjay Tyagi’s prior employment with Ghaziabad Development Authority (GDA) during the period after our incorporation may expose us to scrutiny and could adversely affect our reputation and business.

Mr. Sanjay Tyagi served as an Engineer with the Ghaziabad Development Authority (“GDA”) from January 1990 to March 2007. Our Company was incorporated on October 21, 1998, and Mrs. Rekha Tyagi (spouse of Mr. Sanjay Tyagi) has been a Director of our Company since incorporation. As disclosed in the chapter titled ‘Our History and Certain Corporate Matters’ on page 328, our Company has secured road construction contracts from GDA, awarded through open, competitive tenders.

Given the overlap between our Company’s period of operation and Mr. Sanjay Tyagi’s employment with GDA, there exists a potential for perceivable or alleged conflict of interest, particularly in relation to road construction contracts awarded during the year 2003-2004. Based on our internal records and confirmations, these projects were awarded to our Company in the ordinary course through open tendering processes, and Mr. Sanjay Tyagi was not involved in any capacity concerning their award, technical sanction, or execution oversight during his GDA employment.

While there has been no complaint, inquiry, or proceeding initiated by GDA or any authority regarding conflict of interest or misconduct in respect of these contracts, perceptions of conflict may nonetheless arise and could lead to scrutiny by public authorities or regulatory agencies, temporary suspension from participation in tenders, or reputational implications. Any such scrutiny, even if ultimately unsubstantiated, could affect our relationships with public sector clients and have a potential impact on our business or future bidding opportunities.

As of the date of this Prospectus, there are no proceedings or orders against our Company, Directors, or Key Managerial Personnel in relation to any alleged conflict of interest or GDA-related transactions. For details of Mr. Sanjay Tyagi's professional background, kindly refer "Our Management – Brief profiles of our Directors" on page 337.

33. Our Company has experienced multiple instances of minor delays in filing of returns required under the CGST Act, 2017, the Employees' Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952.

Delays under GST Act regarding GSTR 3B and GSTR1 from F.Y. 2018 till the F.Y. 2026:

Sr. No.	Financial year	Delay in States	Reason
1.	2017-18	Uttar Pradesh, Rajasthan & Uttarakhand	The delays were primarily attributable to the initial implementation of the GST regime in FY 2017-18, during which taxpayers and professionals were adapting to the newly introduced compliance framework. Additionally, frequent changes in the GST law, continuous updates to the GST portal, system-related issues, and challenges in reconciling input tax credit during the initial implementation phase contributed to the delays in filing the returns.
2.	2018-19	Uttar Pradesh, Rajasthan & Uttarakhand
3.	2019-20	Uttar Pradesh, Rajasthan & Uttarakhand	The delays were primarily due to the time required for reconciliation of input tax credit arising from the Company's high volume of transactions. The reconciliation process was further impacted by operational constraints during the COVID-19 pandemic, including work-from-home arrangements, resulting in minor delays in filing certain GST returns.
4.	2020-21	Uttar Pradesh & Rajasthan
5.	2021-22	Uttar Pradesh & Rajasthan	The delay in filing GSTR-3B for Rajasthan (April 2021) resulted from the delayed filing of the preceding month's return. The delays in Uttar Pradesh were limited to 4-5 days and were primarily attributable to the time required for monthly input tax credit reconciliation arising from the Company's high transaction volume.

6.	2022-23	Uttar Pradesh & Rajasthan	During FY 2022-23, there were three instances of delay in filing GSTR-3B, of which two pertained to the State of Rajasthan for the months of April 2022 and June 2022 and one pertained to the State of Uttar Pradesh for the month of April 2022. These delays were primarily attributable to the time required for completion of the monthly GST reconciliation process.
7.	2023-24	Uttar Pradesh & Rajasthan	During FY 2023-24, there were three instances of delay in filing GSTR-3B, of which one pertained to the State of Rajasthan for the month of January 2024 and two pertained to the State of Uttar Pradesh for the months of September 2023 and January 2024. The delays in Uttar Pradesh were limited to one day each. These delays were primarily attributable to the time required for completion of the monthly GST reconciliation process.
8.	2024-25	Uttar Pradesh, Rajasthan & Uttarakhand	During FY 2024-25, there were a few instances of delay in filing GSTR-3B. The principal delay pertained to the State of Rajasthan and arose due to the pendency of an appeal regarding the applicability of GST on certain transactions. The Company had initially raised invoices considering such transactions to be exempt from GST. Subsequently, upon determination that GST was applicable, the corresponding tax liability was recognised in FY 2023-24 and discharged during FY 2024-25, resulting in the delay.
9.	2025-26	Uttar Pradesh, Rajasthan, Uttarakhand & Delhi	During FY 2025-26, there were certain instances of delay in filing GSTR-3B in the States of Uttar Pradesh, Delhi and Uttarakhand, and three to four instances of delay in the State of Rajasthan. These delays were primarily attributable to the time required for completion of the monthly input tax credit reconciliation process, as well as clerical and system-related issues encountered on the statutory due dates.
10.	2026-27	Madhya Pradesh & Uttar Pradesh	During FY 2026-27, there were two instances of delay in filing GSTR-3B in the state of Madhya Pradesh and one instance of delay in filing GSTR-3B in each of the state of Uttar Pradesh and Rajasthan. These delays were primarily attributable to the time required for completion of the monthly input tax credit reconciliation process, as well as clerical and system-related issues encountered on the statutory due dates.

These delays were primarily due to the administrative and technical errors. We have since taken steps such as channelling more resources towards improving our administrative systems and training our staff to rectify such delays. However, there can be no assurance that such delays may not arise in the future. This may lead to additional fee and financial penalties from respective government authorities. While we have been required to make payment of fines/ penalties for delays in payment of such statutory dues, wherever applicable, these have not been material in nature. However, we cannot assure you that we will not be subject to such penalties and fines in the future which may have a material adverse impact on our financial condition and cash flows.

34. We may be subject to liability claims or claims for damages or termination of contracts for failure to meet project completion timelines or defective work, which may adversely impact our profitability, cash flows, results of operations and reputation.

We undertake infrastructure projects including WWTPs, WSSPs, roads, and electrical systems pursuant to contracts with government authorities and public sector undertakings. These agreements typically contain provisions that impose liquidated damages in the event of project delays, subject to customary exclusions such as force majeure events or delays solely attributable to the contracting authority. In such cases, the client may deduct penalties directly from milestone payments otherwise due to us.

During both the construction phase and the post-completion defect notification period, we are contractually obligated to rectify any construction or performance deficiencies at our own cost and risk. The defect liability period generally ranges from 12 to 60 months, during which we remain responsible for addressing any defects or non-conformities. In certain contracts, we may also be required to indemnify the contracting authority for losses arising from our failure to fulfill contractual obligations.

Apart from monetary penalties, failure to meet project deadlines or perform quality-compliant work may harm our business reputation and client relationships. Government authorities may reserve the right to terminate contracts in case of material delays or defective performance not falling within agreed exclusions. Upon termination, we may be entitled only to partial compensation, which may not be commensurate with the work completed or the expected revenue from the project.

Delays in execution may also result in cost overruns, which can affect project profitability and overall viability. Factors contributing to such delays in past projects include:

- i. delays in handover of hindrance-free sites,
- ii. delays in approval of designs and drawings,
- iii. delays in payment release,
- iv. delays in providing sewage or effluent inlet connections,
- v. delays in providing electrical connections, and
- vi. seasonal disruptions due to heavy rainfall.

As of the date of this Prospectus, we have not been subjected to liquidated damages or termination for reasons attributable to us, there can be no assurance that such claims will not arise in the future. Any imposition of liquidated damages, liability claims, or contract terminations may materially and adversely affect our profitability, cash flows, financial condition, and business operations.

35. Environmental protection policies, legislation, regulations, and judicial directives significantly influence government spending on water reuse solutions. These frameworks are subject to change due to evolving political, social, and economic factors. Amendments to laws and regulations related to environmental protection, water supply, treatment, and discharge may alter the demand for our services. Such changes could materially and adversely impact our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Our operations involve risks inherent in providing erection, civil construction, and maintenance services, including equipment failures, work-related accidents, fire, explosions, and other hazards that could result in injuries, loss of life, significant damage to property and equipment, and environmental harm. Additionally, the construction and development of these projects are subject to implementation risks, such as construction delays, disruptions in the supply of raw materials, unanticipated cost escalations, force majeure events, and cost overruns. Furthermore, we may encounter the following risks:

- ✓ unforeseen technical problems, disputes with works and labour contractor, force majeure events and unanticipated costs due to defective plans and specifications;

- ✓ not being able to obtain adequate capital or other financing at affordable costs or obtain any financing at all to complete construction and installation of any of our projects;
- ✓ not being able to provide the required guarantees under project agreements or enter into financing arrangements;
- ✓ experiencing shortages of, and price increases in, materials and skilled and unskilled labour, and inflation in key supply markets;
- ✓ geological, construction, excavation, regulatory and equipment problems with respect to operating projects and projects under construction;
- ✓ the relevant authorities may not be able to fulfil their obligation prior to construction of a project, in accordance with the relevant contracts resulting in unanticipated delays;
- ✓ spread of infectious diseases at our project sites, resulting in temporary shutdown of operations at such sites until such sites are successfully decontaminated and the relevant persons are quarantined;
- ✓ delays in completion and commercial operation could increase the financing costs associated with the construction and installation and cause our forecast budget to be exceeded;
- ✓ risk of equipment failure that may cause injury and loss of life, and severe damage to and destruction of property and equipment; and
- ✓ other unanticipated circumstances or cost increases.

WWTPs and WSSPs typically have long gestation periods and require substantial capital infusion at periodic intervals. However, payments through running account bills are cleared subject to approval by the respective government authorities. There is no assurance that these projects will be completed within the expected timelines. There have been instances where delays occurred due to external factors. If any of these risks materialize, we may face significant cost overruns or even losses due to unanticipated cost increases, which could materially and adversely affect our business, profitability, and results of operations.

36. Our operations across diverse geographical regions expose us to executional, regulatory, and logistical challenges that may adversely affect our project performance and financial condition.

As on July 15, 2026, we have successfully executed 18 infrastructure projects including WWTPs, WSSPs, roads, and other public utility works across multiple states in northern India over the past 5 years. While this geographic diversification enhances our market reach and order book visibility, it also introduces region-specific challenges that may affect execution timelines and costs. For further details, kindly refer “Our Business – Our Order Book for Completed Projects” beginning on page 268.

Such challenges include variations in topography, climate conditions (particularly project delays during monsoon seasons), regional labour availability, transportation and supply chain limitations, and differing regulatory frameworks and administrative processes across states. Our engagement with new subcontractors, limited familiarity with local socio-political dynamics, and language or cultural barriers may also complicate site coordination and stakeholder communication.

Operational and administrative inefficiencies in unfamiliar territories may result in cost overruns, workforce mobilization issues, or delays in obtaining local clearances. Additionally, logistical bottlenecks or disputes with local authorities, suppliers, or communities may disrupt project progress.

Any inability to efficiently manage region-specific risks and coordinate execution across diverse locations could adversely affect the cost efficiency, timelines, and profitability of our projects, thereby impacting our business operations, financial condition, and results of operations.

While our Company has not encountered any instance of project delay, disruption, or cost and time overrun solely attributable to region-specific or inter-state operational challenges as on date of this Prospectus, there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not arise in the future, which could adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

37. Failure to increase the size of our projects or enhance our pre-qualification credentials may negatively impact our growth prospects.

We have executed and upgraded STPs ranging from 3 MLD to 56 MLD in capacity. Projects with higher installed capacities typically attract lower competition, enable greater economies of scale, and allow for more efficient deployment of resources, thereby offering the potential for improved margins. We intend to continue focusing on the design, construction, operation, and maintenance of wastewater treatment plants, with the strategic objective of scaling up to higher capacity projects.

An increase in the size and complexity of executed projects also contributes to our technical pre-qualification for future bids involving large-scale public infrastructure contracts. We continue to pursue opportunities for WWTPs and WSSPs on an EPC basis, either independently or through joint venture partnerships. For further details on our completed projects, kindly refer “Our Business – Our Order Book for Completed Projects” on page 268.

However, our ability to qualify for and secure larger contracts depends on our financial, technical, and operational track record, including the timely and quality execution of ongoing projects. Any failure to win or execute high-capacity projects may limit our pre-qualification credentials and competitiveness in future tenders. Such limitations could, in turn, constrain our order book expansion and adversely impact our growth trajectory, financial condition, and results of operations.

While our Company has not been disqualified, denied pre-qualification, or faced rejection in any bid process for large-capacity projects as on date of this Prospectus, there can be no assurance that such events will not occur in the future, which could adversely affect our ability to secure new projects, expand our order book, and sustain our growth prospects.

38. Our Company, Promoters, members of Promoter Group and relatives of our Promoters & Promoter Group have mortgaged their personal properties and provided personal guarantees for our borrowings to secure our loans. Our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects may be adversely affected by the revocation of all or any of the personal guarantees provided by our Promoters, members of Promoters Group and relatives of our Promoters & Promoter Group in connection with our Company’s borrowings.

Our Promoters, members of our Promoter Group and relatives of our Promoters & Promoter Group have mortgaged their personal properties and provided personal guarantees for our borrowings to secure our loans as disclosed below:

If any of these guarantees are revoked, our lenders may require alternative guarantees or collateral or cancellation of such facilities, entailing repayment of amounts outstanding under such facilities. If we are unable to procure alternative guarantees satisfactory to our lenders, we may need to seek alternative sources of capital, which may not be available to us at commercially reasonable terms or at all, or to agree to more onerous terms under our financing agreements, which may limit our operational flexibility. Accordingly, our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects may be adversely affected by the revocation of all or any of the personal guarantees provided by our Promoters, Promoter Group and relatives of our Promoters & Promoter Group in connection with our Company’s borrowings.

39. We may not be able to successfully protect our brand name and trademark, which may adversely affect our business, reputation, and competitive position.

We have filed an application for registration of our logo  as a device mark under Class 37 vide application no. 6798628, of the Trade Marks Act, 1999. As on the date of this Prospectus, the status of our application is “Objected”. Pursuant to the observations raised by the Trade Marks Registry, the Company has submitted its response along with an application dated July 11, 2026 under Rule 37 of the Trade Marks Rules, 2017, seeking correction of the user details from “Proposed to be Used” to “February 22, 2000”, supported by documentary evidence demonstrating continuous use of the trademark since such date. For further details, kindly refer “Our Business – Intellectual Property” on page 309.

There is no assurance that our trademark will be successfully registered or that third parties will not oppose the registration. Until registration is granted, our ability to enforce exclusive rights over the use of the mark remains limited. Any failure to secure or maintain trademark protection may result in loss of brand identity or dilution of market recognition, particularly if similar marks are used by competitors or unrelated entities in the EPC or infrastructure sector.

In addition, enforcement of intellectual property rights whether through opposition, infringement suits, or cease-and-desist actions may require significant legal expenditure and managerial attention. These efforts may not always result in favorable outcomes and could divert resources from our core business operations. Any adverse ruling or inability to prevent unauthorized use of our mark may impact our reputation, erode competitive advantage, and adversely affect our business prospects and financial results.

40. Our inability to respond effectively to increasing competition may adversely impact our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

We operate in a competitive infrastructure development environment, particularly in sectors such as WWTPs WSSPs, and related EPC services. We face competition from a range of players, including large, well-established domestic companies with greater financial resources, stronger brand recognition, wider operational footprints, and the capacity to execute larger and more complex projects.

Additionally, emerging players and new entrants with greater operational flexibility or technological agility may intensify competition. Competitive factors include not only pricing but also execution capability, technological efficiency, compliance record, and overall value proposition to the client.

We have previously encountered significant price-based competition in government tenders. Continued or increased price pressure may require us to submit lower-margin bids, potentially affecting our revenue generation and profitability. Moreover, some of our competitors may be able to offer more aggressive pricing, faster project delivery timelines, or better access to skilled resources, which could erode our competitive position and restrict our ability to secure new contracts.

There can be no assurance that we will continue to maintain or grow our market share in the face of such competition, or that our existing cost structures will remain sustainable in a more competitive landscape. Any inability to adapt to evolving market dynamics may adversely affect our business operations, financial condition, and long-term growth.

42. Some of our borrowings carry restrictive covenants or conditions and could affect our ability to manage our business operations.

Our borrowings from banks have certain restrictive covenants which could affect our operational flexibilities such as:

- Effecting any change in control/ ownership/ management/ directorship of our Company amongst others.
- Amending the constitutional documents of our Company, including the Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association.
- Effecting any changes to the capital structure or shareholding pattern of our Company.
- Enter into any scheme of merger, amalgamation, compromise or reconstruction, or do a buyback.
- Undertaking any new business, operations or projects or substantial expansion of any current business. operations, or projects; and
- Pledge of its shares to any other lender/entity.

Further, we have received NoC from following Bankers to our Company;

Name of the Bank/Lender	Date of NoC
Punjab National Bank Limited	June 20, 2025
Kotak Mahindra Bank Limited	June 09, 2025
ICICI Bank Limited	June 18, 2025
HDFC Bank Limited	June 27, 2025

Our inability to meet these conditions or ensure that compliance of these conditions does not hamper the operational flexibility needed from time to time could materially adversely affect our results of operations and financial conditions.

While our Company has not breached any restrictive covenant or received any notice of default from its lenders in respect of such borrowings as on date of this Prospectus, there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not arise in the future, which could adversely affect our business reputation, cash flows, and financial condition.

43. Our Company has engaged in related party transactions in the past with our Directors, KMPs, members/entities of the Promoter Group and Group Companies and may continue to do so in the future. Our Company has entered into such transactions due to easy proximity and quick execution, while all related-party transactions that we may enter into in the future will be subject to the requisite approvals of our Audit Committee, Board of Directors, or shareholders, as mandated by the Companies Act, we cannot assure you that such transactions, whether individually or collectively, will not adversely affect our financial condition or results of operations. Further, there can be no assurance that we could not have secured more favorable terms if these transactions were conducted with unrelated parties.

While our Company has not entered into any related party transaction that has been determined to be non-compliant with applicable laws or prejudicial to the interests of the Company as on date of this Prospectus, there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not arise in the future, which could adversely affect our business operations, and financial condition.

44. If we are not successful in managing our growth, our business may be disrupted and our profitability may be reduced.

We have experienced a steady growth in recent years and expect our businesses to continue to grow significantly. Our future growth is subject to risks arising from a rapid increase in order volume, and inability to retain and recruit skilled staff. Although, we plan to continue to expand our scale of operations through organic growth or investments in other entities or to form a joint ventures, we may not grow at a rate comparable to our growth rate in the past, either in terms of income or profit or work quality. Our future growth may place significant demands on our management and operations and require us to continuously evolve and improve our financial, operational and other internal controls within our Company. In particular, continued expansion may pose challenges in:

- maintaining high levels of project control and management, and client satisfaction;
- recruiting, training and retaining sufficient skilled management, technical and bidding personnel;
- developing and improving our internal administrative infrastructure, particularly our financial, operational, communications, internal control and other internal systems;
- making accurate assessments of the resources we will require;

- adhering to the standards of health, safety and environment and quality and process execution to meet clients' expectations;
- operating in jurisdictions and business segments where we have limited experience;
- preserving a uniform culture, values and work environment;
- strengthening internal control and ensuring compliance with legal and contractual obligations;
- managing relationships with clients, suppliers, contractors, investors, lenders and service providers; and
- Supporting infrastructure such as IT and HR management systems.

If we are not successful in managing our growth, our business may be disrupted and profitability may be reduced. Our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

In respect of our growth, kindly refer “Our Business- Our Financial Performance” on page 252, “Our Business-Our Strengths” on page 289, “Our Business-Our Strategies on page 292 and “Our Business - Our Order Book” on page 254.

While our Company has not experienced any material operational disruption, or decline in profitability attributable to growth-related challenges as on date of this Prospectus, there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not occur in the future, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, and financial performance.

45. The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters is lower than the floor price.

Our Promoters average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares in our Company is lower than the Floor Price of the Price Band as may be decided by the Company in consultation with the Book Running Lead Manager. For further details regarding average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters in our Company and build-up of Equity Shares by our Promoters in our Company, kindly refer “Capital Structure - Average Cost of Acquisition of Specified Securities for our Promoters and the Promoter Selling Shareholder” on page 133.

46. Any adverse revision to our credit rating by rating agencies may adversely affect our ability to raise additional financing and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such funding is available.

Currently, our borrowing facilities availed from the banks are rated by CARE Ratings and Infomercials Ratings, credit rating agency. The credit ratings assigned to bank facilities availed by our Company are as follows:

Type of credit rating	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024
Date of Rating	March 18, 2026	March 31, 2025	February 01, 2024
Ratings Agency	Infomercials Ratings	Care Ratings	Care Ratings
Bank Facility	₹ 284.00 Crores	₹ 250.00 Crores	₹ 170.00 Crores
Long term rating	IVR BBB-/ Stable	CARE BB+; Stable	CARE BB+; Stable
Short term rating	IVR A3	CARE BB+; Stable / CARE A4+	CARE BB+; Stable / CARE A4+

Though the ratings have not been downgraded in the past three years, any downgrade in our credit ratings by rating agencies in future may increase our costs of accessing funds in the capital markets and adversely affect our ability to raise additional financing and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such funding is available. This could have an adverse effect on our business and future financial performance, our ability to obtain financing for capital expenditures or other purposes.

47. Our inability to effectively execute our growth strategies, including expansion into Hybrid Annuity Model (HAM) projects and new geographies, could adversely impact our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

As part of our future growth plans, we intend to selectively pursue Hybrid Annuity Model (HAM) projects in the water and wastewater treatment segment and expand into new geographies across India. These initiatives are expected to strengthen our presence in the EPC space and diversify our revenue base. For further details, kindly refer “Our Business - Our Strategies” on page 292.

However, our ability to successfully implement these strategies depends on various factors, including identification of suitable projects, accurate assessment of financial and operational viability, timely availability of capital and human resources, and obtaining requisite regulatory and environmental approvals. HAM projects, in particular, involve long gestation cycles and require substantial upfront capital investment and working capital commitments. There can be no assurance that we will be able to secure the funding required for such projects at terms favourable to us or at all.

Execution of our growth strategies may also place significant demands on our management and operational infrastructure, including internal processes, systems, and manpower. In addition, entry into new geographic markets may expose us to operational and regulatory risks associated with unfamiliar regional dynamics, potential delays in mobilization, or the absence of established supplier or labour relationships in those areas.

We may also face delays in project execution, cost overruns, increased competition, or the risk of not winning bids for new projects. Any delay or inability to implement our growth strategy or failure to achieve anticipated benefits may materially affect our business, prospects, and profitability. Additionally, if our plans are financed through additional debt, our interest obligations and leverage may increase, which could restrict operational flexibility.

Accordingly, any failure to efficiently implement our growth strategies or manage associated risks may adversely impact our financial condition, business operations and overall performance.

48. We may not be able to obtain adequate financing on acceptable terms in the future, which could adversely impact our growth plans and business operations.

Our future business plans may require additional financing beyond the Net Proceeds from issue of fresh equity shares and our internal accruals. Such funding could be needed for working capital, expansion of operations, or unforeseen project-related requirements. To meet these demands, we may be required to access external financing, including new debt facilities from banks and financial institutions.

However, the availability and cost of such financing are subject to a number of factors, many of which are beyond our control. These include our financial condition, operational performance, prevailing interest rates, our credit profile, the terms of our existing borrowings, and broader economic and market conditions in India and globally. Our ability to raise debt may also be constrained by our existing leverage levels, potential covenant restrictions, or requirements to offer security in the form of pledges or guarantees.

If we are unable to secure additional funding on acceptable terms, in a timely manner, or at all, we may be forced to delay, modify, or abandon planned business initiatives. Such developments could adversely affect our ability to execute projects, pursue new opportunities, and achieve our targeted growth, thereby impacting our operational performance, financial condition, and future prospects.

49. Inadequate or insufficient insurance coverage may expose us to significant losses, liabilities, or regulatory consequences, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Our operations involve inherent risks associated with the construction, installation, and operation of water and wastewater treatment projects (WWTPs and WSSPs), including potential accidents, damage to plant and machinery, employee injury or fatality, and damage during the transportation of equipment to project sites. In addition, we face risks such as power outages, labour disputes, equipment failure, natural disasters, and other force majeure events that could disrupt operations and lead to financial loss or liability.

Although we maintain insurance coverage for certain risks including fire insurance for our registered office and project sites, and insurance for our vehicles and movable assets our policies are subject to exclusions, deductibles, and coverage limits. For details of our insurance policies, kindly refer “Our Business – Insurance” on page 314. As on the date of this Prospectus, certain ongoing projects are not covered by dedicated insurance policies.

However, we have not encountered any instance in the past three financial years, where the amount of claim made exceeded the insured amount or where a material loss occurred without insurance coverage.

Further, our insurance coverage may not be sufficient to cover potential losses or damages to life, property, and any consequential losses that may arise from such events, which could impact our operations and financial condition. Moreover, even if we are fully insured or not found liable for a fatal accident or incident causing damage or loss, it could harm our reputation, making it harder to conduct our business effectively and potentially affect our future Order Book and results of operations.

Further, in the future, we might also face challenges in obtaining insurance coverage for new projects at favorable rates, which could increase our costs. If we cannot secure adequate insurance or if our coverage is insufficient to cover losses, it could negatively impact our business, financial condition, and operations. Additionally, if our projects are underinsured or uninsured, we may face penalties from government authorities for non-compliance with contract terms, potentially affecting our ability to bid for future projects.

50. We will not receive any proceeds from the Offer for Sale. The Promoter Selling Shareholder will receive the Net Proceeds from the Offer for Sale.

Equity Shares held by one of the Promoters i.e. Kartikey Constructions, Partnership Firm (“Promoter Selling Shareholder”) have been held by such Promoter Selling Shareholder for a period of at least one year immediately preceding the date of the Draft Red Herring Prospectus filed with the SEBI and are eligible for being offered for sale pursuant to the Offer in terms of the SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, 2018. Further, the Promoter Selling Shareholder has confirmed that its Offered Shares are compliant with Regulation 8 of the SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, 2018.

The Promoter Selling Shareholder is offering up to 2,376,000 Equity Shares of face value of ₹10 each, through Offer for Sale, which was acquired by Promoter Selling Shareholder on May 31, 2010. The Promoter Selling Shareholder will not offer any Equity shares acquired through bonus shares issued on May 29, 2025.

The Offer consists of an Offer for Sale by the Promoter Selling Shareholder. The Promoter Selling Shareholder shall be entitled to the Net Proceeds from the Offer for Sale, which comprises proceeds from the Offer for Sale net of Offer Expenses for the share of the Offer for Sale. Our Company will not receive any proceeds from the Offer for Sale. For details, kindly refer “Objects of the Offer” and “Capital Structure” beginning on pages 136 and 113, respectively.

51. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements and capital expenditures.

We have not paid any dividends on our Equity Shares in the past. The decision to declare future dividends, if any, will depend on factors that our Board considers relevant, including our future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital needs, capital expenditures, applicable Indian legal restrictions, and other considerations. Therefore, there is no assurance that our Company will be able to pay dividends in the future. For further details, kindly refer ‘Dividend Policy’ beginning on page 363.

52. Our operations may be adversely affected in case of industrial accidents at our construction sites.

Usage of heavy machineries, laying of water pipes, safety equipment such as belts and ropes, air-blowers, the presence of toxic gases, or handling of sharp parts of machinery during construction activities or otherwise may result in accidents. Such events could cause injury to labourers, employees, or other persons on site, and may prove fatal, in addition to causing damage to our properties and adversely affecting our operations.

While our Company has obtained Employees’ Compensation Insurance Policy, Contractors Plant and Machinery Insurance, Stock Insurance, Municipal Council Kotputli Sewerage Work, Nagar Nigam Kota Sewerage Work, Nagar Nigam Bikaner Sewerage Work, PWD Saharanpur Road Work, DJB Swaroop Nagar Sewerage Work, DJB Swaroop Nagar Sewerage Workman, DJB Sangam Vihar Sewerage Work, DJB Sangam Vihar Sewerage Workman, Municipal Council Kotputli -HPCL Sewerage Work, Indore Municipal Corporation Sewerage Work there can be no assurance that any claim under these insurance policies will be honoured fully, in part, or in time, or that we have taken out sufficient insurance to cover all material losses, which could adversely hamper our cash flows and profitability.

Except for the incident resulting in the registration of FIR No. 393 of 2023 dated December 13, 2023, at Police Station Kotwali, Jaunpur relating to the death of a worker during sewer excavation works in Jaunpur city, there have been no other industrial accidents reported at our construction sites as on the date of this Prospectus.

For further details, kindly refer to “Our Business - Insurance” on page 314 and “Outstanding Litigations and Material Developments” on page 526.

53. We cannot assure you that the construction of our projects will be free from any and all defects.

We cannot assure you that we will always finish the construction or development of our projects in accordance with the requisite specifications or that the construction of our projects will be free from any and all defects. If the work is unsatisfactory, the work has to be redone as per the instructions of the site-in-charge without any extra cost. In the event of discovery of defects/faults in our work, or due to damages to our construction due to factors beyond our control, or any of the other reasons, we may incur significant contractual liabilities and losses under our project contracts and such losses may materially and adversely affect our financial performance and results of operations. Further, it may result in cancellation of projects by clients and/or refund of any advance deposited with us by any customer, dissatisfaction among our customers, resulting in negative publicity, consumer litigation and lack of confidence among clients and all these factors could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Based on Company records, no claims on account of defects in construction were received from clients/awarding authorities during the Financial Years ended March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024.

This historical position does not preclude the possibility of future claims. Any significant defect-related claim could result in rework at our cost, liquidated damages, withholding of payments or reputational impact, and may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

54. Water treatment or reuse and zero liquid discharge technology is subject to rapid change. These changes may affect the demand for our services. If we are unable to keep abreast of the technological changes and new introductions our business, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected.

Water reuse and zero liquid discharge technology is subject to rapid change. These changes may affect the demand for our services and construction activities. Our future performance will depend on the successful installation of WWTPs and WSSPs with updated new, improved and enhanced technology catering to customer requirements and changing market trends. If our clients require a new technology or a technology which we are not able or capable to provide, we may be disqualified from bidding from such projects and if our clients continue to prefer a technology which we are unable to provide, our business, results of operations and financial condition would be adversely affected.

There is possibility that we may miss a market opportunity if we fail to invest, or invest too late, or would be unable to upgrade ourselves or enter into an arrangement with a technology partner. Changes in market demand may also cause us to discontinue existing or planned projects, which can have an adverse effect on our relationships with clients. If we fail to service or construct WWTPs or WSSPs in line with the changing preferences and market trends in our business, results of operations and financial condition could be adversely affected.

- 55. *Our employees may engage in misconduct or other improper activities, including non-compliance with regulatory standards and requirements and the same may result in imposition of criminal proceedings, fines, revocation of regulatory approvals and harm to our reputation, any of which could form a material adverse effect on our business.

We are exposed to the risk of employee fraud or other misconduct which could include intentional failures to comply with regulations, providing inaccurate information to regulatory authorities, not adhering to manufacturing standards, or misreporting financial data. In particular, our industry is subject to laws and regulations aimed at preventing fraud, misconduct, kickbacks, self-dealing, and other unethical practices. These regulations can restrict various business activities such as pricing, discounting, marketing, promotions, and customer incentive programs. Although we have not encountered such issues in the past, there is no guarantee that we will be able to detect and prevent fraud or misconduct effectively. If such misconduct occurs, we could face criminal penalties, fines, loss of regulatory approvals, and damage to our reputation, any of which could have a significant negative impact on our business.

- 56. *If we are unable to establish and maintain an effective internal control and compliance system, our business and reputation could be adversely affected.

We are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal measures that align with the size and complexity of our operations. We continuously evaluate the adequacy and effectiveness of our internal systems to ensure that our operations comply with policies, regulations, and internal guidelines. Our internal processes and systems are periodically tested and updated, and there have been no significant instances of failure in maintaining effective controls. However, we remain exposed to operational risks due to the potential inadequacy or failure of these processes or systems, and our efforts may not always be sufficient to ensure effective checks and balances. We take reasonable measures to maintain appropriate compliance procedures and robust internal controls over financial reporting to ensure reliable financial reporting and prevent fraud. As risks evolve, our internal controls must be continuously reviewed, and maintaining these controls requires diligent compliance, which may still be subject to lapses or errors.

Further, our operations are subject to anti-corruption laws and regulations. These laws generally prohibit us and our employees and intermediaries from bribing, being bribed or making other prohibited payments to government officials or other persons to obtain or retain business or gain some other business advantage. We participate in collaborations and relationships with third parties, there is a potential risk that their actions could expose us to liability under these laws or other local anti-corruption regulations. While our code of conduct requires employees to comply with applicable laws, and we continuously enhance our policies and procedures to ensure compliance with anti-corruption laws, these measures may not entirely eliminate the risk of violations, particularly in emerging markets like India. Non-compliance with anti-corruption laws could result in criminal and civil penalties, disgorgement, sanctions, legal expenses, and other remedial actions, which could negatively affect our business, results, and financial condition. Furthermore, any investigation into potential violations by authorities could harm our reputation and operations.

While our Company has not experienced any instance of internal control failure, or compliance breach as on date of this Prospectus, there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not occur in the future, which could adversely affect our business operations, reputation, and financial condition.

- 57. *We are exposed to the risks of malfunctions or disruptions of information technology systems, which could adversely affect our business operations and financial condition.

Our business operations across the engineering, procurement, construction, and commissioning lifecycle rely on various information technology ("IT") systems and platforms for planning, execution, and control. These systems support functions such as project design and modeling (including CAD-based engineering and structural detailing), inventory and procurement planning, manpower deployment, performance tracking, finance and accounts, and HR processes. We also utilize cloud-based platforms and real-time dashboards to monitor project progress and enable communication between project sites and the corporate office.

Any malfunction, disruption, or security breach affecting these systems due to reasons such as power outages, system errors, cyberattacks, data corruption, or connectivity failures may impact our ability to execute projects in a timely and efficient manner. In particular, our reliance on digital coordination tools for inter-office communication, tender submissions, documentation, and statutory compliance introduces additional vulnerabilities. Prolonged IT downtimes or delays in system restoration could hinder workflow continuity, delay invoicing and billing processes, or impair financial reporting.

While we have not encountered material IT disruptions to date, there is no assurance that such events will not occur in the future. Any significant failure of our IT infrastructure or inability to secure and maintain the integrity of our systems could adversely impact our business continuity, reputation, results of operations, and cash flows.

58. Our funding requirements and the proposed deployment of Net Proceeds from issue of fresh equity shares ("Net Proceeds") have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution or any other independent agency and our management will have broad discretion over the use of the Net Proceeds.

We plan to use Net Proceeds for the purposes outlined in “Objects of the Offer” beginning on page 136. Our business is working capital intensive, and we fund the majority of our working capital requirements in the ordinary course of business from our internal accruals, net worth and financing from various banks. As of the date of this Prospectus, our funding requirements are based on management estimates, the current state of our business, prevailing market conditions, and other commercial and technical factors and have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution. These estimates are based on current conditions and may change due to factors such as our financial condition, business strategy, and external influences like government policies, market conditions, competitive landscape, interest or exchange rate fluctuations, and other factors beyond our management's control. While we will use the Net Proceeds from fresh issue of equity shares for purposes such as part funding of working capital requirements of ₹ 1,500.00 million specified in “Objects of the Offer” on page 136.

The deployment of Gross Proceeds through fresh issue of equity shares will be monitored by a monitoring agency as required by the SEBI ICDR Regulations. However, our internal management estimates may exceed the fair market value, which could lead to the need to reschedule or reallocate our expenditure, potentially impacting our business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows. We may need to reconsider our estimates or business plans due to changes in factors beyond our control, such as fluctuations in interest rates, changes in input costs, and other financial or operational factors. As such, prospective investors will need to rely on our management's judgment regarding the use of Net Proceeds. Any delays or inefficiencies in deploying Net Proceeds could negatively affect our business and results of operations.

59. Significant differences exist between Ind AS and other accounting principles, such as U.S. GAAP and IFRS, which investors may be more familiar with and may consider material to their assessment of our financial condition.

Our Restated Consolidated Financial Information for the Financial Year ended on March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024, have been prepared and presented in conformity with Ind AS. Ind AS differs in certain significant respects from IFRS, U.S. GAAP and other accounting principles with which prospective investors may be familiar in other countries. If our financial statements were to be prepared in accordance with such other accounting principles, our results of operations, cash flows and financial position may be substantially different. Prospective investors should review the accounting policies applied in the preparation of our financial statements and consult their own professional advisers for an understanding of the differences between these accounting principles and those with which they may be more familiar. Any reliance by person not familiar with Indian accounting practices on the financial disclosures presented in this Prospectus should be limited accordingly.

60. Our Promoters and certain members of our Board of Directors hold Equity Shares in our Company and are therefore interested in our performance beyond remuneration and reimbursement of expenses.

Some of our Directors, including our Promoters, have an interest in the Company beyond their regular remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses, due to their shareholding in our Company. For more information, kindly refer “Our Management- Shareholding of our Directors in our Company” on page 339. However, there is no assurance that our Directors (including our Promoters) will always exercise their rights as shareholders in a manner that benefits or is in the best interest of the Company. Further, our Promoters will maintain significant control over the Company, including the ability to control the composition of our Board and make decisions requiring shareholder voting, whether by simple or special majority. As a result, other shareholders may have limited influence on the outcome of such decisions. Our Promoters may take or block actions with respect to our business, which may conflict with the best interests of our Company or that of minority shareholders.

External Risk Factors

61. Political, economic or other factors that are beyond our control may have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

Over the past decade, India’s economy has undergone significant changes, with external trade and capital flows becoming increasingly important. Any slowdown or perceived slowdown in the Indian economy, or in specific sectors of the Indian economy, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition and the price of the Equity Shares. Conditions outside India may also contribute to a slowdown in the Indian economy or changes in India’s economic policies and regulations, which could adversely affect the level of trading activity in the securities market, such as the Russia-Ukraine war, Middle East War, power shortages in Europe, and rising inflation rates globally. Our performance and the growth of our business depend on the overall performance of the Indian economy as well as the economies of the regional markets in which we operate. Further, the following external risks may have an adverse impact on our business and results of operations, should any of them materialize:

- i. instability in other countries and adverse changes in geopolitical situations;
- ii. Tariffs imposed by US on countries.
- iii. increase in interest rates may adversely affect our access to capital and increase our borrowing costs, which may constrain our ability to grow our business and operate profitably;
- iv. downgrade of India’s sovereign debt rating by an independent agency;
- v. political instability, resulting from a change in governmental or economic and fiscal policies, may adversely affect economic conditions in India. In recent years, India has implemented various economic and political reforms. Reforms in relation to land acquisition policies and trade barriers have led to increased incidents of social unrest in India over which we have no control;
- vi. civil unrest, acts of violence, terrorist attacks, regional conflicts or situations or war; and
- vii. India has experienced epidemics, and natural calamities such as earthquakes, tsunamis, floods, and drought in recent years.
- viii. contagious diseases such as the COVID-19 pandemic or a similar contagious disease could adversely affect the Indian economy and economic activity in the region.

62. The occurrence of natural or man-made disasters could adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Hostilities, terrorist attacks, civil unrest and other acts of violence could adversely affect the financial markets and our business.

The occurrence of natural disasters such as cyclones, floods, earthquakes, and man-made disasters like acts of terrorism, military actions, or civil unrest could negatively impact our operations, cash flow, or financial condition. Such events, including terrorist attacks or war, may disrupt the Indian securities markets. Additionally, deteriorating international relations, particularly between India and its neighboring countries, may raise investor concerns about regional stability, affecting the price of our Equity Shares. Social, economic, or political disturbances within India may also harm our business and negatively affect the market perception of investment in Indian companies, leading to a decline in the price of our Equity Shares.

We cannot assure that there will not be any such incidents or accidents in the future thereby causing an adverse effect on our business and operations. Any terrorist attacks or civil unrest as well as other adverse social, economic and political events in India could have a negative effect on us. Such incidents could also create a greater perception that investment in Indian companies involves a higher degree of risk and could have an adverse effect on our business and the price of the Equity Shares. India, along with several other countries in Asia and across the world, remains susceptible to outbreaks of infectious diseases, including strains of influenza such as H1N1, H5N1, and H7N9, as well as viruses with pandemic potential. While the global impact of the COVID-19 pandemic has receded, the long-term economic and operational consequences continue to be felt across industries, including the infrastructure and construction sectors.

Further, the emergence of any new epidemic or pandemic, or a resurgence of COVID-19 or similar contagious diseases, may lead to disruptions in economic activity, supply chains, labour availability, or the implementation of government projects. Such developments could adversely affect our operations, project timelines, or financial performance. Consequently, any future public health crisis could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

63. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of tax laws, in the jurisdictions in which we operate may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and subject to change. Such changes, including the instances mentioned below, could adversely affect our business, prospects and results of operations, to the extent that we are unable to suitably respond to and comply with any such changes in applicable law and policy. Further, any future amendments may affect our tax benefits such as exemptions for income earned by way of dividends from investments in other domestic companies and units of mutual funds, exemptions for interest received in respect of tax-free bonds, and long-term capital gains on equity shares. Changes in capital gains tax or tax on capital market transactions or the sale of shares could affect investor returns. As a result, any such changes or interpretations could have an adverse effect on our business and financial performance.

The Government introduced (a) the Code on Wages, 2019 (“Wages Code”); (b) the Code on Social Security, 2020 (“Social Security Code”); (c) the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020; and (d) the Industrial Relations Code, 2020, which consolidate, subsume and replace numerous existing central labor legislations. Except certain portions of the Wages Code, which have come into force pursuant to notification by Ministry of Labor and Employment, the rules for implementation under such codes are yet to be notified.

The Parliament of India has passed the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 and the Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam, 2023, which have repealed the Indian Penal Code, 1860, the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, respectively, with effect from July 01, 2024. The effect of the provisions of these on us and the litigations involving us cannot be predicted with certainty at this stage.

Unfavorable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment and stamp duty laws governing our business and operations, could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation, or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may affect the viability of our current businesses or restrict our ability to grow our businesses in the future.

64. We may be affected by competition laws, the adverse application or interpretation of which could adversely affect our business.

The Competition Act, 2002, as amended (the “Competition Act”) was enacted for the purpose of preventing practices that have or are likely to have an adverse effect on competition (“AAEC”) in certain markets in India and has mandated the Competition Commission of India (the “CCI”) to separate such practices. Under the Competition Act, any arrangement, understanding or action, whether formal or informal, which causes or is likely to cause an AAEC is deemed void and attracts substantial penalties.

Further, any agreement among competitors which directly or indirectly involves determination of purchase or sale prices, limits or controls production, or shares the market by way of geographical area or number of customers in the relevant market is presumed to have an appreciable adverse effect on competition in the relevant market in India and shall be void. Further, the Competition Act prohibits abuse of dominant position by any enterprise. If it is proved that the contravention committed by a company took place with consent or connivance or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of such company, that person shall be guilty of the contravention and liable to be punished.

The Competition Act aims to, among others, prohibit all agreements and transactions which may have an AAEC in India. Consequently, certain agreements entered into by us could be within the purview of the Competition Act. Further, the CCI has extra-territorial powers and can investigate any agreements, abusive conduct or combination occurring outside India if such agreement, conduct or combination has an AAEC in India. The effects of the provisions of the Competition Act on the agreements entered into by us cannot be predicted with certainty at this stage. However, since we pursue an acquisition driven growth strategy, we may be affected, directly or indirectly, by the application or interpretation of any provision of the Competition Act, any enforcement proceedings initiated by the CCI, any adverse publicity that may be generated due to scrutiny or prosecution by the CCI, or any prohibition or substantial penalties levied under the Competition Act, which would adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Government of India has also passed the Competition (Amendment) Act, 2023, which has proposed several amendments to the Competition Act, such as introduction of deal value thresholds for assessing whether a merger or acquisition qualifies as a “combination”, expedited merger review timelines, codification of the lowest standard of “control” and enhanced penalties for providing false information or a failure to provide material information.

If we pursue acquisitions in the future, we may be affected, directly or indirectly, by the application or interpretation of any provision of the Competition Act, any enforcement proceedings initiated by the CCI, any adverse publicity that may be generated due to scrutiny or prosecution by the CCI, or any prohibition or substantial penalties levied under the Competition Act, which would adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

65. We are entirely dependent on our operations in India for revenue, and any adverse changes in India’s economic, political or regulatory environment may negatively impact our business, results of operations, financial condition and the price of our Equity Shares.

Our Company derives all of its revenue from projects executed within India. Accordingly, our performance is closely linked to macroeconomic conditions and political developments in India. Any slowdown in the Indian economy, volatility in interest or inflation rates, decline in infrastructure spending, or reduction in government capital expenditure could materially and adversely affect the award of new projects and our ability to execute existing projects, which could, in turn, affect our revenues and profitability.

In recent years, the Indian economy has been subject to various macroeconomic headwinds, including rising inflation, high fiscal and current account deficits, volatility in the value of the Indian Rupee against major foreign currencies, elevated commodity and fuel prices, and tightening of liquidity conditions. Any further deterioration in these conditions may impair the Government's ability to finance infrastructure projects, including WWTPs and WSSPs, which form the core of our business operations.

Further, the Indian financial system has experienced periodic disruptions, including credit tightness and sectoral lending constraints. Any adverse developments in the Indian banking sector or capital markets may impact our access to project finance, working capital facilities, or bank guarantees. Such constraints could delay or impede project execution and strain our cash flows. For more information, kindly refer "Financial Indebtedness" beginning on page 473.

Our operations may also be impacted by changes in central or state government policies relating to infrastructure development, public procurement, or regulatory norms concerning environmental clearances and wastewater treatment technologies. Additionally, unforeseen political instability, social unrest, or significant policy shifts following general or state elections may create an uncertain business environment. Any changes in taxation policy, labour regulations, or the enforcement of contractual obligations by government agencies could further affect our cost structures and contractual rights.

The Government of India has historically exercised significant influence over the Indian economy and continues to intervene in various sectors through policy, regulatory, and fiscal instruments. Any abrupt or adverse changes in government policy, regulatory direction, or administrative actions could affect investor sentiment, delay project approvals, or impact our order inflow and project timelines. In such circumstances, our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and the market price of our Equity Shares could be adversely affected.

66. If inflation were to rise in India, we might not be able to increase the prices of our services at a proportional rate in order to pass costs on to our customers and our profits might decline.

Inflation rates in India have been volatile in recent years, and such volatility may continue in the future. India has experienced high inflation in the recent past. Increased inflation can contribute to an increase in interest rates and increased costs to our business, including increased costs of salaries, and other expenses relevant to our business.

High fluctuations in inflation rates can make it challenging for us to accurately estimate or control our costs. If inflation in India rises, it may increase our expenses, and we may not be able to fully or partially pass these increased costs on to our customers. This could negatively impact our business and financial condition. Specifically, if we are unable to reduce our costs or adjust our rates to offset the increase in costs, our business, results of operations, cash flows, and overall financial condition could be adversely affected.

Further, the GoI has previously initiated economic measures to combat high inflation rates, and it is unclear whether these measures will remain in effect. There can be no assurance that Indian inflation levels will not worsen in the future.

67. Any downgrading of India's debt rating by an independent agency may harm our ability to raise financing.

Our borrowing costs and access to debt capital markets are closely tied to India's sovereign credit ratings. As of now, India's sovereign rating stands at Baa3 with a "negative" outlook (Moody's), BBB- with a "stable" outlook (S&P), and BBB- with a "stable" outlook (Fitch). Any adverse changes to these credit ratings, especially from international rating agencies, could negatively affect our ability to raise additional financing and could lead to higher interest rates and less favourable commercial terms for any financing, including overseas funding. A downgrade in India's credit ratings could occur due to changes in government tax or fiscal policies, which are beyond our control. Such a downgrade would likely impair our ability to raise funds on favourable terms, or at all, which in turn could negatively impact our business, financial performance, and the market price of our Equity Shares.

Risks relating to the Equity Shares and the Offer

68. The Offer Price, market capitalization to total revenue multiple and price to earnings ratio based on the Offer Price of our Company, may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares on listing or thereafter.

The Offer Price of Equity Shares will be determined through a book-building process. Following the Offer, the market price of the Equity Shares, along with the market capitalization to total revenue multiple and price-to-earnings ratio based on the Offer Price, may experience significant fluctuations due to various factors. These factors include changes in our operating results, industry-specific market conditions, developments within India, volatility in securities markets in other jurisdictions, changes in financial indicators, fluctuations in revenue or earnings estimates by research publications, and shifts in economic, legal, and regulatory environments. As a result, the price of our Equity Shares may be volatile, and there is a possibility that you may not be able to resell your Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price, or even at all.

Prior to the Offer, there has been no public market for our Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Offer. Listing and quotation do not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. As such, any valuation conducted for the Offer may not be based on a benchmark that reflects our industry peers. The specific financial parameters used to determine the Price Band will be disclosed in the advertisement that will be issued for the publication of the Price Band.

Additionally, the Indian stock markets have recently experienced significant volatility, and the price of our Equity Shares could fluctuate substantially as a result. A decrease in the market price could lead to investors losing part or all of their investment.

69. We may be subject to surveillance measures, such as the Additional Surveillance Measures (ASM) and the Graded Surveillance Measures (GSM) by the Stock Exchanges which may adversely affect trading price of our Equity Shares.

SEBI and Stock Exchanges in order to enhance market integrity and safeguard interest of investors, have been introducing various enhanced pre-emptive surveillance measures. The main objective of these measures is to alert and advise investors to be extra cautious while dealing in these securities and advice market participants to carry out necessary due diligence while dealing in these securities. Accordingly, SEBI and Stock Exchanges have provided for:

(a) GSM on securities where such trading price of such securities does not commensurate with financial health and fundamentals such as earnings, book value, fixed assets, net-worth, price per equity multiple and market capitalization; and

(b) ASM on securities with surveillance concerns based on objective parameters such as price and volume variation and volatility.

Upon listing, our Equity Shares may be influenced by general market conditions, which could include significant fluctuations in price and trading volume. The price of our Equity Shares may continue to fluctuate post-Offer due to various factors such as volatility in both Indian and global securities markets, our financial performance, the performance of competitors, changes in performance estimates, or other political or economic events. Any of these factors may trigger the criteria set by SEBI and the Stock Exchanges for placing securities under the GSM (Graded Surveillance Measure) or ASM (Additional Surveillance Measure) framework, including factors like net worth, fixed assets, price variations, client concentration, or price movements between the high and low ranges of trading.

If our Equity Shares are subjected to pre-emptive surveillance measures by any of the Stock Exchanges, trading of our Equity Shares may be impacted by additional restrictions. These restrictions could include limitations on trading frequency, such as permitting trades only once a week or month, or capping price movements on the upper side of trading. Such measures may adversely affect the market price of our Equity Shares and could disrupt the development of an active trading market for our Equity Shares.

70. Investors bear the risk of fluctuations in the price of Equity Shares and there can be no assurance that a liquid market for our Equity Shares will develop following the listing of our Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges.

There was no public market for our Equity Shares prior to the Offer. The purchase price of our Equity Shares in the Offer will be determined by our Company in consultation with the BRLM, pursuant to the Book Building Process. This price will be based on numerous factors, as described under in “Basis for Offer Price” beginning on page 150. However, this price may not reflect the market price of our Equity Shares following the completion of the Offer. Investors may not be able to resell their Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price and could incur partial or total loss of their investment.

While our Equity Shares are proposed to be listed on the NSE and BSE post-offer, there can be no assurance that active trading will develop or be sustained. In the absence of active trading, investors may find it challenging to sell their Equity Shares at the quoted price.

The price at which our Equity Shares will trade at after the Offer will be determined by the marketplace and may be influenced by many factors, including:

- i. Our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows
- ii. The history and prospects for our business
- iii. An assessment of our management, our past and present operations and the prospects for as well as timing of our future revenues and cost structures
- iv. The valuation of publicly traded companies that are engaged in business activities similar to ours
- v. quarterly variations in our results of operations
- vi. results of operations that vary from the expectations of securities analysts and investors
- vii. results of operations that vary from those of our competitors
- viii. changes in expectations as to our future financial performance, including financial estimates by research analysts and investors
- ix. a change in research analysts’ recommendations
- x. announcements by us or our competitors of significant acquisitions, strategic alliances, joint operations or capital commitments
- xi. announcements of significant claims or proceedings against us
- xii. new laws and government regulations that directly or indirectly affecting our business
- xiii. additions or departures of Key Managerial Personnel
- xiv. changes in the interest rates
- xv. fluctuations in stock market prices and volume
- xvi. general economic conditions

The Indian stock markets have historically witnessed significant price and volume fluctuations, which have impacted the market prices of securities issued by Indian companies. Consequently, investors in our Equity Shares may face a decline in the value of their investment, irrespective of our Company’s financial performance or prospects.

71. Any future issuance of Equity Shares by us or sales of Equity Shares by our Promoter could negatively impact the trading price of our Equity Shares. Additionally, the issuance of Equity Shares by our Company may lead to dilution of the shareholding of our then-existing shareholders.

As disclosed in “Capital Structure” beginning on page 113, an aggregate of 20% of our fully diluted post-offer capital held by our Promoter shall be considered as minimum Promoters’ Contribution and locked in for a period of eighteen (18) months and the balance Equity Shares held by the Promoters following the Offer will be locked-in for six (6) months from the date of Allotment. Except for the customary lock-in on our ability to issue equity or equity-linked securities discussed in “Capital Structure- Details of Minimum Promoter’s contribution and lock-in” on page 127, there is no restriction on disposal of Equity Shares by Promoters. As such, there can be no assurance that our Company will refrain from issuing additional Equity Shares after the expiration of the lock-in period or that our Promoter will not sell, pledge, or encumber their Equity Shares post-lock-in. Future issuance of Equity Shares or convertible securities, and the subsequent sale of the underlying Equity Shares, could dilute the shareholding of existing Shareholders and negatively impact the trading price of our Equity Shares. Additionally, such securities may be issued at prices lower than the prevailing trading price of our Equity Shares or the Offer Price. Any sale of Equity Shares by the Promoter could further adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares.

72. You will not be able to immediately sell any of the Equity Shares you purchase in this Offer on the Stock Exchanges.

The Equity Shares will be listed on the Stock Exchange in compliance with applicable Indian laws and practices. Listing permission will only be granted once the Equity Shares offered have been issued, allotted, and all necessary documentation submitted to the Stock Exchanges. Additionally, certain procedural actions must be completed before the listing and trading of Equity Shares can commence. For instance, the credit of Equity Shares to investors' dematerialized ("demat") accounts with their depository participants in India is expected to occur within one (1) Working Day of finalizing the Basis of Allotment with the Designated Stock Exchange. Furthermore, the allotment process and credit of the Equity Shares to applicants' demat accounts may take up to Two (2) Working Days from the Bid/Offer Closing Date. Upon receipt of listing and trading approval from the Stock Exchanges, trading in the Equity Shares is anticipated to begin within three (3) Working Days from the Bid/Offer Closing Date. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval or otherwise commence trading in Equity Shares would restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares. We cannot assure you that the Equity Shares will be credited to investors' demat accounts or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence in a timely manner (as specified herein) or at all. We could also be required to pay interest at the applicable rates if the allotment is not made, refund orders are not dispatched or demat credits are not made to investors within the prescribed time periods.

73. You may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the sale of our Equity Shares.

Under the current Indian Tax Laws and Regulations, Capital Gains arising on the sale of Equity Shares of an Indian Company are generally taxable in India. Any Capital Gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares on a stock exchange held for more than 12 months shall be subject to capital gains tax in India at 12.50% (on the gains in excess of ₹1.25 lakhs) if Securities Transaction Tax (STT) has been paid on both acquisition and transfer of such shares. STT shall be levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which the equity shares are sold. Any gain realised on the sale of equity shares held for more than 12 months by an Indian resident, which are sold other than on a recognized stock exchange provided no STT has been paid, will be subject to long term capital gain tax in India. However, any capital gain realized on the sale of listed Equity Shares held for a period of 12 months or less shall be subject to short term capital gains tax in India and are taxed at 20%. Provided Further, any gain realised on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less which are sold on other than on a recognised stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, shall be subject to short term capital gains tax at a relatively higher rate as compared to the transaction where STT has been paid in India.

Taxation of Capital Gains is subject to the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961, as amended from time to time, and changes introduced through successive Finance Acts. Any amendment in the tax regime, including an increase in capital gains tax rates, whether through the Finance Act or other legislative measures, could adversely impact the post-tax returns of investors in our equity shares. Given the evolving fiscal and economic policies, there is a possibility that future amendments may result in higher tax rates or reduced exemptions, thereby affecting the overall attractiveness of equity investments. Investors should consider potential changes in tax laws while making investment decisions.

- 74. *QIBs and Non-Institutional Bidders are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid and Retail Individual Bidders are not permitted to withdraw their Bids after Bid/Offer Closing Date.

Under the SEBI ICDR Regulations, Qualified Institutional Buyers (QIBs) and Non-Institutional Bidders are not permitted to withdraw or reduce their Bids (in terms of the quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) after submitting a Bid. Retail Individual Bidders, however, are allowed to revise their Bids during the Bid/Offer Period and withdraw their Bids until the Bid/Offer Closing Date. Although we are required to complete the Allotment, listing, and commencement of trading of Equity Shares within three (3) Working Days from the Bid/Offer Closing Date, unforeseen events may occur during this period. Such events, including adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political, or economic conditions, or developments in our business, financial condition, results of operations, or cash flows, may affect the Bidders' decision to invest. Notwithstanding these events, we may proceed with the Allotment, listing, and commencement of trading of our Equity Shares. These developments could restrict the Bidders' ability to sell their Equity Shares allotted pursuant to the Offer or result in a decline in the trading price of our Equity Shares upon listing.

Retail Individual Bidders are permitted to revise their Bids during the Bid/Offer Period and withdraw their Bids until the Bid/Offer Closing Date. While our Company is obligated to complete all formalities related to the listing and commencement of trading of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges where such Equity Shares are proposed to be listed, including the Allotment pursuant to the Offer, within three (3) Working Days from the Bid/Offer Closing Date, certain events may arise during this period. These events, including material adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political, or economic conditions, or changes in our business, results of operations, or financial condition, may influence the Bidders' decision to invest in the Equity Shares. Our Company may complete the Allotment of the Equity Shares even if such events occur, and such events limit the Bidders' ability to sell the Equity Shares Allotted pursuant to the Offer or cause the trading price of the Equity Shares to decline on listing.

- 75. *Foreign investors are subject to foreign investment restrictions under Indian laws which limit our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely affect the market price of the Equity Shares.

Under the current foreign exchange regulations in India, transfers of shares between non-residents and residents are generally allowed (subject to certain restrictions), provided they adhere to the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements set by the RBI. If the transfer of Equity Shares does not comply with these guidelines or falls under any exceptions, prior approval from the RBI will be necessary. Furthermore, shareholders wishing to convert the Rupee proceeds from the sale of Equity Shares into foreign currency and repatriate it will need to obtain a no-objection/tax clearance certificate from the income tax authority. We cannot guarantee that the required approvals from the RBI or any other Indian government agency will be obtained on favorable terms, or at all.

- 76. *The Equity Shares have never been publicly traded, and, after the Offer, the Equity Shares may experience price and volume fluctuations, and an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop. Further, the price of the Equity Shares may be volatile, and you may be unable to resell the Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price, or at all.

Prior to the Offer, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and there is no guarantee that an active trading market will develop or be maintained on Stock Exchanges after the Offer. The listing and quotation of the Equity Shares do not ensure the creation of a market, nor do they guarantee liquidity in the market for the shares. The Offer Price will be determined through the book-building process as per SEBI ICDR Regulations and may not reflect the market price at the time trading begins or at any point thereafter. The market price of the Equity Shares could experience significant fluctuations due to various factors, including changes in our operating performance, market conditions specific to our industry, developments in India, volatility in global securities markets, fluctuations in financial indicators, variations in earnings or revenue projections by analysts, and changes in economic, legal, or regulatory conditions.

77. The Offer Price of the Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares after the Offer.

The Offer Price of the Equity Shares will be determined by our Company in consultation with the Book Running Lead Manager (BRLM) through the Book Building Process. This price will be influenced by various factors, as detailed under the "Basis for Offer Price" beginning on page 150, and may not necessarily reflect the market price of the Equity Shares post-offer. The market price of the Equity Shares may fluctuate significantly after the Offer and could fall below the offer Price. We cannot assure you that the investor will be able to resell their Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price.

78. There is no guarantee that our Equity Shares will be listed on the BSE and NSE in a timely manner or at all.

In accordance with Indian law, permission for listing and trading of our Equity Shares will not be granted until after certain actions have been completed in relation to this Offer and until allotment of Equity Shares pursuant to this Offer. In accordance with current regulations and circulars issued by SEBI, our Equity Shares are required to be listed on the BSE and NSE within such time as mandated under UPI Circulars, subject to any change in the prescribed timeline in this regard. However, we cannot assure you that the trading in our Equity Shares will commence in a timely manner or at all.

79. Holders of Equity Shares could be restricted in their ability to exercise pre-emptive rights under Indian law and could thereby suffer future dilution of their ownership position.

Under the Companies Act, 2013 a company incorporated in India must offer holders of its Equity Shares pre-emptive rights to subscribe and pay for a proportionate number of Equity Shares to maintain their existing ownership percentages prior to the issuance of any new Equity Shares, unless the pre-emptive rights have been waived by the adoption of a special resolution by holders of three-fourths of the Equity Shares who have voted on such resolution. However, if the law of the jurisdiction that investors are in does not permit the exercise of such pre-emptive rights without us filing an offering document or registration statement with the applicable authority in such jurisdiction, they will be unable to exercise such pre-emptive rights unless we make such a filing. We may elect not to file a registration statement in relation to pre-emptive rights otherwise available by Indian law to investors. To the extent that investors are unable to exercise pre-emptive rights granted in respect of the Equity Shares, they may suffer future dilution of their ownership position and their proportional interests in us would be reduced.

The GST liability in Uttar Pradesh pertains to the differential GST rate of 12% and 18% on supplies/services pertaining to the period January 2022 to July 2022 rendered to the department (U.P. Jal Nigam). As per the order of the High Court of Judicature at Allahabad against the writ petition filed on August 14, 2025, our Company has been granted liberty to file an application for refund of ₹ 4.00 million deposited on March 03, 2025 towards recovery proceedings. Subsequently, our Company received a show cause notice dated September 30, 2025 on account of short payment of GST on works contract services provided to M/s U.P. Jal Nigam. Further, an order dated December 29, 2025 was issued by the Additional Commissioner Central Goods and Services Tax, Commissionerate Meerut, Mangal Pandey Nagar, Opp CCS University, Meerut confirming the demand and holding that UP Jal Nigam is not a local authority. Our Company has filed a writ petition on March 30, 2026 before the High Court of Allahabad against the said order dated December 29, 2025. The Hon'ble	34.67

Allahabad High Court has issued notice to the department and granted a stay. The matter is currently pending at the pre-proceedings stage.
Our Company has filed an appeal before the appropriate appellate authority against the Order-in-Original dated December 10, 2025, passed by the Assistant Commissioner, CGST Division-VI, Ghaziabad. The said order was issued pursuant to a Show Cause Notice dated June 30, 2025, based on a Directorate General of Analytics and Risk Management (DGARM) report dated July 18, 2022, alleging mismatches in Input Tax Credit (ITC) claimed in GSTR-3B vis-à-vis GSTR-2A, as well as discrepancies in GSTR-9 for the financial years 2018–19 to 2020–21. Our Company has made the required statutory pre-deposit of approximately ₹1.72 million on March 07, 2026 and has filed an appeal on March 09, 2026. The order confirmed a tax demand of ₹17.18 million (towards CGST, SGST, and IGST), along with an equivalent penalty under Section 74 of the CGST Act, 2017, aggregating to a total demand of approximately ₹34.38 million. Our Company contends that the invocation of Section 74 is not justified in the absence of any allegation or evidence of fraud, wilful misstatement, or suppression of facts. Further, based on the representation and confirmation provided by the management, our Company has stated that the proceedings are time-barred and in violation of the principles of natural justice, including denial of adequate opportunity of being heard. Our Company has also sought quashing of the impugned order along with the penalty. Our Company’s appeal in Form GST APL-01, filed on 09 March 2026 after depositing the statutory pre-deposit of approximately ₹1.72 million, is presently pending before the Central Appellate Authority and continues to reflect the status of “Appeal Submitted” on the GST portal. Subsequently, the Office of the Commissioner (Appeals), CGST Meerut, has initiated appellate proceedings and has called for comments from the jurisdictional authority on the grounds of appeal for further consideration of the matter.	34.38
The VAT Department has issued a letter to Punjab National Bank (PNB) alleging that an outstanding demand of ₹0.22 million is payable by our Company for Assessment Year (AY) 2009-2010. The said demand is completely erroneous, illegal, and contrary to the facts and applicable law. Further, the VAT Department had directed PNB for the encashment of the Fixed Deposit Receipt (FDR) of ₹ 0.1 million deposited by our Company as security at the time of its VAT registration. Pursuant thereto, an amount of ₹0.17 million has been recovered from our Company, which action is also wholly illegal, arbitrary, and without any legal basis. Our Company has submitted a representation to the VAT Department stating that the assessment proceedings for AY 2009-2010 had already been completed and, upon completion of the assessment, a refund of ₹ 0.64 million was duly sanctioned and issued to our Company during the relevant period. Therefore, no outstanding demand exists against our Company for the said assessment year or for any period thereafter.	0.22

Accordingly, the demand raised by the VAT Department and the consequent recovery effected through encashment of the FDR are unjustified and liable to be withdrawn forthwith.

Our Company is required to issue a Performance and Security Deposit Bank Guarantee equal to a fixed percentage of the Work Order, which is around 5%-10% of the Work Order value as a Guarantee to the Authority towards performance obligations for the said Work Order. The Performance Bank Guarantee is retained by the customer till Defect Liability Period of the WWTPs or WSSPs, which generally varies from 1-5 years. The Non-fund based limit is secured by our Company against margin of Fixed Deposits and collateral security. This amount of Fixed Deposit is classified under 'Current Assets' and 'Non-Current Assets', as per the maturity of the Fixed Deposit in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information.

The company requires the Working Capital for the execution of the Project, in the form of Fund based limit & Non-Fund based Limit (Bank Guarantee & LC Limit). With the increasing number of projects increased working capital is required for smooth functioning. Majorly, the company requires the Non-fund base limit:

- The Company is required to furnish Bank Guarantees such as Performance BG, Security BG, and Mobilisation BG upon securing the respective awarded project through the bidding process.
- The company requires the LCs as it has to purchase DI pipes and other materials related to respective project from various suppliers. DI pipes may also be supplied by the suppliers as against the LCs.

WC requirement has increased because of increase in the outstanding order book of our Company as below:

Details	Financial Year 2026	Financial Year 2025	Financial Year 2024
Opening balance of Order Book including O&M Orders	7,688.20	7,528.80	3,243.20
Add: New orders awarded during the year including O&M Orders	8,156.60	2,752.00	5,729.10

Closing Order Book including O&M Orders	12,358.97	7,688.20	7,528.80

The working capital requirement of our Company increased to ₹ 1,338.15 million in Fiscal 2026 from ₹ 1,280.66 million in Fiscal 2024, primarily due increase in the order book which stood at ₹ 12,358.97 million and ₹ 7,528.80 million as at March 31, 2026 and March 31, 2024, respectively. Based on Estimated Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2027, the Company working capital requirements stands at ₹ 2,909.29 million against the order book of ₹ 13,207.32 million as on July 15, 2026, apart from this the bid of our Company has also been recently awarded as L1 status by Delhi Jal Board under AMRUT 2.0 valuing ₹ 1,964.68 million. The Working Capital Requirement of our Company increases in line with the expansion of its order book, as it must arrange for higher bank guarantees and lines of credit to meet performance guarantee obligations and facilitate the procurement of DI pipes & other stock required to execute the projects.

Key justifications for holding levels:

Sr. No.	Particulars	Assumptions
Current Assets
1.	Inventories	Our business of designing, construction, operation and maintenance of WWTPs, WSSPs and Roads requires procuring inventories in large quantities to fulfil project needs. Given the increase in our order books and that our projects are mostly located in remote regions, managing multiple logistics poses a consistent challenge. Inventories include raw materials and Work-in-Progress ("WIP"). The historical holding days of inventories (calculated as closing inventory on balance sheet date divided by revenue from operations over 365 days) have been in range 70 to 120 days during the last three financial years. Our Company estimates holding days of inventories to be around 54 days in Fiscal 2027 considering the scale of operations. Further in order to avoid any supply chain disruption the company expects to maintain such inventory levels. The inventories have increased from ₹ 557.45 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 683.26 million in Fiscal 2026 due to increase in the order book which stood at ₹ 7,528.80 million and ₹ 12,358.97 million as at March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2026 respectively, which requires higher levels of inventories for project execution. Based on the Estimated Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2027, the inventories stood at ₹ 882.19 million against the order book of ₹ 13,207.32 million as on July 15, 2026. Depending on the size and capacity of the project it usually takes 3 to 5 years for the company to complete a project. For example, orders won in Fiscal 2025 required inventories to be maintained for its execution during Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2026 and Fiscal 2027.

2.	Trade Receivables	The historical holding days of trade receivables (calculated as closing trade receivables divided by revenue from operations over 365 days) have stood at 125 days, 76 days and 162 days in Fiscal 2026, Fiscal 2025 and Fiscal 2024, respectively. As we currently undertake the development of WWTPs and WSSPs under the Engineering, Procurement, and Construction (EPC) model, the specific terms of our work orders and tenders result in variations in our debtor cycle. As per the current credit terms of the company & prevalent trend in business of the Company, the holding days of trade receivables is anticipated at 100 days of revenue from operations in Fiscal 2027. Our customer base comprises of government authorities where payments of running account bills are approved post inspection of projects and satisfactory verification by the authorities. The Trade Receivables has increased from ₹ 1,001.83 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 1,179.76 million in Fiscal 2026 due to higher levels of project execution. Based on the Estimated Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2027 the trade receivables stood at ₹ 1,643.84 million. Our payment is dependent on allocation of funds available with government authorities.
3.	Other Financial Assets, Other Current Assets and Income tax Asset (Net)	Other Financial Assets, Other Current Assets and Income tax Asset (Net) primarily comprises of contract assets such as Customer Retention, Balance with Banks Held as Deposits, Balances with Statutory/Governmental Authorities, Advance to Suppliers, Prepaid Expenses, Earnest Money Deposits and Advance Income Tax (Net of Provision for Tax). We expect the growth in other financial assets to be in line with the expected growth in business. Other Financial Assets have increased from ₹ 427.74 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 495.18 million in Fiscal 2025 primarily due to increase in value of Customer Retention & Withheld money for project execution which further decreased marginally to ₹ 410.62 million due to the increase in long term customer retention money to ₹ 589.39 million in Fiscal 2026 from ₹ 329.56 million in Fiscal 2025. Based on the Estimated Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2027, our Other Financial Assets stood at ₹ 593.70 million. The primary reason for the increase in the other financial assets was execution for higher number of projects. Further, the Other Current Assets have decreased from ₹ 103.50 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 50.88 million in Fiscal 2025 primarily due to decrease in Balance with Indirect Revenues Authorities which further increased to ₹ 69.80 million in Fiscal 2026 from ₹ 50.88 million in Fiscal 2025 primarily due to increase in Pre IPO-Expenses. Based on the estimated Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2027, our Other Current Assets stood at ₹ 66.30 million. As is evident from explanations provided, the company's turnover has increased between Fiscal 2024 and Fiscal 2026 and accordingly larger amount of funds gets blocked in Other Financial & Other Current Assets. These funds are gradually released as a continuous process upon the completion of the respective projects.
Current Liabilities
4.	Trade Payables	Past trend of trade payable holding days (calculated as closing trade payables as on balance sheet date divided by cost of revenue from operations over 365 days) has been in range 20 to 80 days during the last three financial years. However, our Company intends to reduce trade payable in the range of 5-10 days in Fiscal 2027 to avail cash discount as well as competitive purchase price to increase overall profitability of our Company. Our Company plans to streamline its payable processes to its vendors enabling it to negotiate for better rates and thereby the holding levels are expected to reduce to 7 days in Fiscal 2027. Additionally, prompt payments empower us to negotiate more favorable terms and prices, fostering stronger supplier relations and bolstering our bottom line. Sundry Creditors has decreased from ₹ 210.63 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 125.03 million in Fiscal 2025 and but the trade payables increased from ₹ 125.03 million in Fiscal 2025 to ₹ 565.84 million due to the reasons specified under chapter titled “ Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Conditions and Results of Operations ” on page 486. Further, based on the Estimated Balance Sheet as at Mach 31, 2027, Sundry Creditors stood at ₹ 94.74 million. The decreasing trend of the trade payables in last three Financial Years is attributable to the Company’s efforts to negotiate improved payment terms by making early payments, aimed at enhancing overall operational profitability.

5.	Other Financial Liabilities, Other Current Liabilities, Short Term Provisions and Current Tax Liabilities (Net)	Other Financial and Current Liabilities primarily include Mobilisation Advance, Security Received from Contractors & Others, Statutory Dues Payable, Corporate Social Responsibility Expense Payable, Other Expense Payable and Advances from Customers. Short Term Provisions relate to the provisions for gratuity and Current Tax Liabilities (Net) is with respect to Provision for Income Tax (Net of Advance Tax & TDS). We expect the growth in these liabilities to be in line with the expected growth in business. All the above-mentioned liabilities decreased marginally from ₹ 599.22 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹ 492.11 million in Fiscal 2025 primarily due to decrease in Mobilisation Advance and Statutory Dues Payable. These liabilities further decreased to ₹ 439.44 million as at March 31, 2026. Further, based on the Estimated Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2027 these liabilities stood at ₹ 182.00 million.

Key Justification for the projected Working Capital Requirements:

The working capital requirement of our Company is expected to increase by ₹ 1,571.13 million or by 117.41% from ₹ 1,338.16 million in Fiscal 2026 to ₹ 2,909.29 million in Fiscal 2027 on account of expected increase in revenue as per the current order book of our Company as well as new order book expected to be received during the Fiscal 2027.

The working capital requirements of our Company is estimated at ₹ 2,909.29 million in Fiscal 2027 based on the following assumptions:

Apart from the outstanding work orders in hand of ₹ 13,207.32 million, the company has also been recently awarded L1 status by Delhi Jal Board under AMRUT 2.0 valuing ₹ 1,964.68 million.
- ✓ Margin money for performance guarantees: As part of its business and as is customary, our Company is required to provide financial and performance bank guarantees in favour of its project clients under the respective contracts in relation to the projects. For projects, our Company typically issues bank guarantees to the relevant authority which enter into contractual arrangement with our Company.
- ✓ Future Order Book: Our Company is continuously working to increase its order book and it requires working capital to execute these projects subject to allotment of letter of intent. The availability of working capital also provides strength to our Company for bidding for new projects.
- ✓ Receivables: Our Company is engaged in government contractor business wherein payment channel, is totally secured however realization of payment from the clients may take some time due to operational reasons of the respective government departments.

Macroeconomic assessment

- Global GDP is projected to grow by 3.1% in CY26 and 3.2% in CY27

The April 2026 update to IMF’s World Economic Outlook (WEO) report employs a scenario-based approach to present the forecast for CY26 and CY27. In this approach, the scenario in which the ongoing conflict in the Middle East has limited duration, intensity, and scope so that the disruptions stemming from it dissipate by mid-CY26 is assumed for modelling a ‘reference forecast’ based on which forecasts are drawn for adverse and severe scenarios in which the conflict becomes more protracted, or the resumption of production and transport activities takes longer because of possible scaring from closing of or damage to energy infrastructure. Hence, the impact on global economy which crucially depends on the conflict’s duration, intensity, and scope is projected as shown below:

Scenario-based forecast approach taken by IMF

	Reference forecast	Adverse forecast	Severe forecast
Growth projection for global real GDP	3.1% in 2026 3.2% in 2027	2.5% in 2026 3.0% in 2027	2.0% in 2026 2.2% in 2027
Growth projection for global inflation	4.4% in 2026 3.7% in 2027	5.4% in 2026 3.9% in 2027	5.8% in 2026 6.1% in 2027

Note: At the time of publication, reference scenario was the most likely outcome given the conditions observed at the time, whereas adverse scenario was the less likely outcome based on the assumption that the disruptions caused by the ME conflict would dissipate by mid-2026 which did not happen. Given the latest developments, severe scenario is most likely to play out.

Source: IMF’s World Economic Outlook - April 2026 update, Crisil Intelligence

As per IMF, most of the impact on growth in CY26 comes from higher energy prices, whereas most of the impact on growth in CY27 comes from tightening financial conditions and rise in inflation expectations.

Global real GDP trend and outlook, CY15-27

Note: E: Estimated, P: Projection

Source: IMF, World Economic Outlook Update, April 2026; Crisil Intelligence

The forecast largely reflects the disruptions from the Middle East conflict, partly offset by reduced tariff rates, pre-existing policy support, and stronger-than-expected outturns at the end of CY25 and the first quarter of CY26. However, significant variation is expected across countries, with lower-income net energy-importing economies being hit particularly hard through higher energy prices and foreign exchange depreciation. Impact is greater on emerging economies because of a combination of a larger exposure to higher commodity prices and disruption to energy production, a larger increase in inflation expectations, and a more pronounced tightening in financial conditions.

Risks to the outlook remain tilted on the downside on account of escalation of geopolitical tensions, flaring up of trade-related disputes, re-evaluation of profit expectations regarding AI potentially leading to decline in investments and an abrupt correction in financial markets, and larger fiscal deficits and increasing public debt which could put pressure on long-term interest rates. On the upside, economic activity could be further lifted by AI-related investment and supported by renewed momentum for structural reforms and by a sustained easing in trade tensions.

Among regions, Emerging & Developing Asia is the fastest growing

As per the IMF's WEO report (April,2026) in which 197 economies from all geographies in the world are classified into two broad categories, i.e. Advanced Economies and Emerging Market & Developing Economies, the April 2026 update notes that the Middle East conflict will have varied impact on growth across regions given differential exposure through geographic proximity, financial flows, remittances, and energy dependencies.

Advanced Economies

Advanced Economies represent 43 out of the total 197 economies. Real GDP growth for advanced economies is projected at 1.6% for 2026 and 1.7% for CY27, with a large negative effect expected only in some net energy-importing economies, such as the Euro area and the UK.

Economies considered under Advanced Economies

Advanced Economies
Four major economies				Euro area	Other Advanced Economies
United States	Japan	United Kingdom	Canada	Includes 21 economies: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Portugal, Slovak Republic, Slovenia, Spain	Includes 18 economies: Andorra, Australia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Hong Kong, Iceland, Israel, South Korea, Liechtenstein, Macao, New Zealand, Norway, Puerto Rico, San Marino, Singapore, Sweden, Switzerland, Taiwan

- United States: The US economy is projected to grow by 2.3% in CY26, supported by its net-energy-exporter status, lagged impact of its monetary policy rate cuts, productivity growth, and the associated carryover from a rebound in activity in Q1 of CY26 compared with Q4 of CY25 despite the rise in trade barriers weighing on the level of activity. In CY27, the US economy is expected to grow by 2.1% supported by a near-term fiscal boost from tax incentives, with moderating levels of technology-driven momentum and gradually fading productivity growth.
- Euro area: Real GDP growth is expected at 1.1% in 2026 and 1.2% in CY27 as the impact of the planned increase in defence spending for most countries is likely to materialize in subsequent years because of commitments to reach target levels gradually by CY35. Additionally, given the Middle East conflict, the persistent rise in energy prices that began with Russia's invasion of Ukraine is expected to continue dragging on manufacturing.

Emerging Market and Developing Economies

Emerging Market and Developing Economies represent 154 out of the total 197 economies. GDP growth for Emerging Market and Developing Economies is expected to fall to 3.9% in CY26 but recover to 4.2% in CY27. For several South and Southeast Asian economies, disruptions resulting from the Middle East conflict are expected to shrink tourism and remittance inflows, which in turn, would weaken domestic demand.

- China

China's economy is projected to grow by 4.4% in CY26 due to the lower US effective tariff rates on Chinese goods, and stimulus measures offsetting the negative impact of the Middle East conflict. However, in CY27, growth of China's economy will drop to 4.0% as structural headwinds including those from a grinding slowdown in the housing sector, a declining labour force, decreasing returns on investment, and slower productivity growth—assert themselves.

- India

According to the April update to IMF's WEO, India's economy was projected to expand by 6.5% in CY26 led by positive contributions from the carryover of the strong CY25 outturn and the decline in additional US tariffs on Indian goods from 50 to 10%, which outweigh the adverse impact of the Middle East conflict.

India is among the world's fastest growing major economy

As per the April 2026 update to the IMF's WEO, the world's largest economies by nominal GDP are those of the US, China, Germany, Japan, the UK, India, France, Italy, Russia, and Brazil. Among these, India's economy has been the fastest growing through all the years since 2021, and as per IMF's projections, it is expected to sustain its lead in CY26 and CY27. In terms of size of the economy based on nominal GDP in current US dollars, India held the 5th rank in CY24 but slipped to the 6th rank in CY25 due to the depreciation of its domestic currency against the US dollar.

Crisil: India's GDP to grow by 6.6% in FY27

In February 2026, the Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation (MoSPI) released a new series of national accounts estimates with base year of FY 2022-23 as it represents a recent normal year (after COVID). This base revision was undertaken to capture structural changes that have taken place in India's economy and to leverage the availability of comprehensive data on different sectors of the economy. So, the new series not only improves estimation methods but also incorporates the latest data sources, thereby enhancing both the coverage and the accuracy of national accounts.

Under the new 2022-23 series, India's real GDP grew from Rs 261.2 trillion in FY23 to Rs 323.1 trillion in FY26, logging a CAGR of 7.4% between FY23 and FY26. Further, as per Provisional Estimates (PE) of the National Statistics Office (NSO), India's real GDP grew at 7.7% in FY26. Major drivers of this growth have been the secondary and tertiary sectors as they registered growths of 8.8% and 9.3%, respectively. 'Manufacturing', 'Trade, Repair, Hotels, Transport, Communication & Services related to Broadcasting, Storage' and 'Financial, Real Estate & Professional Services' sectors attained double-digit growth at both constant and current prices in FY26.

Crisil's initial forecast for FY27 considered three scenarios among which the base scenario predicated that India's GDP would grow at 7.1% in FY27. But, since the conflict in West Asia has extended beyond 2 months, the downside risks to India's economy have begun materializing. So, Crisil has laid out the following macroscopic outlook for FY 27.

Crisil's projection for India for FY 2027

Macroeconomic variables	Forecast for FY27
Real GDP growth	6.6%
CPI inflation	5.1%
10-year government security (G-sec) yield (March average)	7.0%
Current account balance (% of GDP)	-2.2%
Exchange rate (March average, Rs/$)	93.5

Private consumption continues to anchor India's economic growth

India's private final consumption expenditure (PFCE) grew by 6.4% between FY23 and FY26, wherein growth between FY25 and FY26 stood at 7.7%. This growth in consumption is supported by the positive impact of GST rate rationalization, stable employment conditions, rising real purchasing power, steady rural consumption resulting from strong agricultural performance, and gradual rise in urban consumption aided by the rationalisation of direct and indirect taxes.

India's GDP is driven by three key forces

Demography	1	India has the potential to reap demographic dividends
Rising urbanisation	2	India's population is turning increasingly urban
Growing per capita income	3	India's per capita income grew by 4.9% in FY14-26

India has the potential to reap demographic dividends

As per World Population Prospects 2024 (WPP 2024), published in July 2024 by the United Nations, India's population grew from 1.1 billion in 2001 to ~1.4 billion in 2023, thereby registering a CAGR of ~1.4% between 2001 and 2023. Going forward, India's population is projected to expand at a CAGR of 0.8% between CY25 and CY30, and is expected to remain the world's largest throughout the century

In addition to the above, the WPP 2024 reports that in 2024, one in every four people lived in a country that has already peaked in size. To elaborate, the following chart illustrates where different groups of countries stand with respect to their population's peak size.

Distribution of countries/ areas based on their peak population size

Source: United Nations, Department of Economic and Social Affairs, Population Division. World Population Prospects 2024

Further, the WPP 2024 notes that there are ~100 countries / areas with youthful populations and declining fertility where the working-age population will grow through CY54, resulting in a time-bound window of opportunity for them to leverage their growing shares of working-age population (i.e. population between ages 20 and 64 years) for accelerated economic growth. In other words, there are about 100 countries / areas in the world that may reap demographic dividends. Notably, India is one of them.

In CY23, India's working-age population stood at 849.9 million commanding a share of 59.1% in its total population. This working-age population is expected to reach its peak when it touches the 967.7 million-mark in CY34 commanding a share of ~69.2% in India's total population. This implies that, India has a multi-decade window of opportunity for embarking on a path of accelerated economic growth.

India's population is turning increasingly urban

India's urban population has been consistently increasing, and the trend is expected to continue as India's economy grows. People from rural areas move to cities for better education, job opportunities, and quality of life. This internal migration may involve the relocation of an entire family or the relocation of a family's earning members or students. In CY2011, India's urban population made up 31.6% of its total population at an estimated 377.1 million. As per WPP 2024, India's urban population is likely to grow to 567.7 million by CY30, making up 37.2% of India's total population. This trend highlights the need to expand infrastructure and provision of basic services in urban areas to accommodate its growing population.

India's per capita income grew by 6.6% in FY23-26

India's per capita income, a broad indicator of living standards, grew at a CAGR of 6.6% between FY23 and FY26, from Rs. 1,59,557 in FY23 to Rs 1,93,480 in FY26. Growth was led by better job opportunities, propped up by overall GDP growth.

India's gross fixed capital formation as % of GDP to be stagnant in fiscal 2026

Gross fixed capital formation (GFCF) measures the level of investment in creating physical assets and infrastructure, which plays a crucial role in fostering economic growth and development. Gross fixed capital formation includes land improvements (fences, ditches, drains, and so on); plant, machinery, and equipment purchases; and the construction of roads, railways, and the like, including schools, offices, hospitals, private residential dwellings, and commercial and industrial buildings.

Construction sector's share in overall GVA estimated to have risen further in fiscal 2026

Construction GVA is a critical indicator of economic activity since it represents the value generated by the construction sector, which includes activities related to building infrastructure, real estate and other construction projects.

In India, construction GVA increased to Rs 26.6 trillion in fiscal 2026-SAE from Rs. 21.0 trillion in fiscal 2023, which was 8.6% CAGR. Several factors contributed to the growth, including economic expansion, the government's commitment to infrastructure development, particularly roads, railways and energy projects, and increase in foreign direct investment, which boosted private sector investment. Furthermore, increasing demand for affordable housing, driven by rising urbanisation and an expanding middle-class population, has also played a significant role in elevating construction GVA.

Overview of FDI in construction segment in India

The construction sector is a vital component of the Indian economy, with a significant multiplier effect on the country's growth. The government's efforts to promote ease of doing business have led to an increase in Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) inflows in the sector. As a result, FDI has played a crucial role in the development of the construction industry in India, with the sector attracting significant investments from foreign investors.

The Indian government's decision to allow 100% FDI in the construction development sector under the automatic route in 2005 has been a key factor in attracting foreign investment. The sector has seen significant FDI inflows, with total FDI in the construction segment reaching a peak of Rs 613.57 billion in FY21. Notably, the total FDI in the construction segment has accounted for around 4-10% of the total FDI inflows into the country, except for FY21.

Overview of National infrastructure pipeline

In fiscal 2019, Government of India has launched the National Infrastructure Pipeline (NIP) for fiscal 2020 – 2025, with an aim to improve India's infrastructure and attract investments across various sectors. To draw up NIP, economic and social infrastructure projects worth more than Rs. 1,000 million per project under construction, proposed greenfield projects, brownfield projects and those in conceptualisation stage were considered. These pipelines of projects are implemented by all the states and union territories of India and 22 infrastructure ministries under Government of India.

With various projects across sectors the NIP aims to create various employment opportunities while enhancing the standard of living. It also aims to increase investments in the projects by improving investors' confidence through better project preparation, reducing aggressive bids/failure in project delivery and ensuring enhanced access to sources of finance. Initially, the NIP started with 6,835 projects. In July 2026, this number of projects has reached to 10,442 projects across 32 different sectors. Out of these, 1,061 projects are currently under development, showing progress in India's infrastructure development efforts. The total investment target under NIP during the period, has been revised from Rs 111 trillion to Rs 147 trillion.

Despite a slowdown in the global economy, emerging economies like India continue to prioritize infrastructure development, with a focus on essential services such as roads, railways, power, water supply, and sanitation, which account for approximately 80% of the NIP. These sectors are less affected by economic fluctuations and are supported by long-term budget allocations, providing a stable source of opportunities for EPC companies. Currently, around 75% of NIP projects are being implemented through the EPC model, presenting significant opportunities for EPC companies operating in these areas

Budgetary capex for infrastructure ministries is Rs 11.9 trillion, up 17.7% from fiscal 2026

Infrastructure capital expenditure (capex) for fiscal 2027 (BE) is 17.7% higher than fiscal 2026 RE—an increase largely driven by investments in logistics, power and affordable housing. Logistics cost in India is around 8% of GDP, according to estimates of the Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade. It is imperative to bring down this cost to make transportation of goods efficient. With this in mind, the budget focuses on transportation sectors and has set aside a significant 53% of the total infrastructure capex for roads, railways, waterways and aviation

The budget allocation for the roads sector is up 8.3% increase over fiscal 2026 RE. Specifically, the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) has received a 10% boost in allocation from the ministry. Additionally, the Gross Infrastructure Allocation (GIA) contribution towards road works has grown 5.2% over fiscal 2026 RE

Assessment of Infrastructure construction segment in India

- Overview of investments in construction sector

The construction sector in India can be broadly classified into Building Construction, Industrial/ Manufacturing construction, and Infrastructure construction.

Industrial/manufacturing construction includes manufacturing plants, factories, power plants, and other highly specialised facilities. Infrastructure construction includes warehouses, bridges, dams, roads, airports, canals, etc. and building construction includes constructing buildings for residential uses such as houses, residential towers, etc. as well as non-commercial buildings like hospitals, educational institutions as well as buildings for commercial use such as offices, retail malls, etc.

The further classification of these verticals into conventional and unconventional construction methods has been discussed in the latter section of the report.

Investments in construction capex is projected to stabilize in a long-term

The construction industry in India is expected to grow steadily at an annual rate of 5-7% between fiscal years 2026 and 2031. This growth will be mainly driven by increased spending on infrastructure projects such as roads and railways, supported by both central and state government investments.

Recent policy measures and targeted government initiatives are expected to accelerate momentum in the construction sector by improving investment visibility and crowding in private participation. These initiatives, particularly focused on infrastructure creation, are likely to provide a sustained impetus to construction activity over the next 5 years.

The share of infrastructure projects is expected to stabilise in the ~68-70% range in the next five years as against ~67% for FY22-26, as Infrastructure investments are seen growing faster than the other two segments due to the Government's focus on Infrastructure under the NIP, NMP and the Gati Shakti initiative. The Central government's focus on roads, urban infrastructure and railways will boost infrastructure investments. Roads, railways, irrigation & Power sectors will continue to drive the bulk of these investments. Building & construction and industrial segments are expected to witness muted growth.

- Overview of investments across building, Infrastructure and Industrial in overall construction segment

Share of infrastructure segment is estimated to increase further

- Infrastructure investments are seen growing faster than the other two sectors due to the government's focus under the National Infrastructure Pipeline (NIP), National Monetization Pipeline (NMP) and the Gati Shakti initiatives. Total construction investments in this sector is expected to attract investments of ~Rs 55-58 trillion between FY27-31P, up from Rs 37-39 trillion between FY22-26.
- Moving forward, the share of infrastructure projects is expected to stabilise in the ~68-70% range in the next five years (FY27-31). Private sector involvement in infrastructure, which has been increasing, is poised to intensify with the government's renewed emphasis on the build-operate-transfer (BOT) model in roads. The power

Building and Construction estimated to record 1.2-1.3x growth in FY27-31

The building and construction sector is largely dominated by investments in the residential real estate space with a share of ~90% as of fiscal 2026. Over long term investment in building & construction is projected to increase at an average annual rate of 3-5% between fiscal years 2027 and 2031, in line with the growth in residential demand.

India's residential real estate sector continues to benefit from regulatory reforms such as RERA, which have improved transparency and strengthened buyer confidence. The market has remained resilient, supported by urbanisation, infrastructure development, and steady end-user demand. Developers are actively launching new projects, with a growing preference for premium and mid-income housing segments. However, affordability remains a challenge due to rising land and construction costs, prompting industry calls for policy support to boost affordable housing supply and homeownership. Overall, the sector is expected to witness stable long-term growth driven by stronger market fundamentals and improved consumer confidence.

A key factor driving growth in the building & construction segment is the central government's focus on affordable housing. In September 2024, the government launched PMAY-U 2.0 under the "Housing for All" initiative. To support this initiative, so far, the Government has committed Rs. 2.08 trillion, has released Rs. 1.79 trillion and spent Rs. 1.14 trillion as of June 2026.

Investments in Oil & Gas segment to drive the industrial construction sector

Industrial construction capex is expected to be primarily driven by the oil and gas sector, led by investments in the refining and marketing segment, followed by contributions from the metals, automobiles, and cement sectors.

Industrial construction capex peaked in FY25, driven by a sharp increase in investments in the automobile sector, alongside sustained momentum in the oil & gas and metals segments. However, capex is expected to normalize in FY26 and FY27 as investment activity reverts to more sustainable levels following the elevated spending witnessed in FY25.

Based on an analysis of eight key sectors, Crisil intelligence estimates construction investment in the industrial segment at Rs -5 – 5.6 trillion between fiscals 2027 and 2031, rising ~1.3 – 1.4x times over spends seen in fiscals 2022 to 2026. Investment growth is expected to be led by the metals sector, where upcoming capital expenditure will largely focus on brownfield expansions aimed at enhancing existing production capacities and improving operational efficiencies. Furthermore, the growth is driven by capacity addition in refineries. In FY 2026, India's refining capacity stands at 258 MMTpa and refineries are undertaking capital expenditure to expand their capacities. Over FY 2026 to 2030, 30-50 MMTpa (Million metric tonne per annum) of refining capacities are expected to be commissioned bringing the overall refining capacity to 290-310 MMTpa by FY 2030.

The rise in investments is projected due to inclusion of PLI scheme in the capex investments of industrial sector. While the PLI scheme entails 13 sectors, we have only considered 3 capex intensive sectors viz. Auto and auto components, Textiles and Specialty steel for inclusion in our estimates.

Road construction continues to account for the largest share among infrastructure segments, contributing ~50% of the overall segment mix.

Roads and Highways:

Investment in the road sector grew at an average annual rate of 10% between fiscal years 2021 and 2024, driven by a high number of national highway projects being approved and built. National highway awarding reached 12,376 kms in fiscal 2023 and declined by ~60% to 7,538 kms in fiscal 2025. For fiscal 2026, awarding is estimated to be in the range of 5,000-6,000 kms with 2,257 kms already awarded until December 2025. Further, with the current pipeline of projects, awarding for fiscal 2027 is projected to be in the range of 7,000-8,000 kms and for fiscal 2028 it is projected at 7,500-8,500 km. Since road construction usually happens around 18 months after approval, the slowdown in new project awarding will likely affect actual highway construction in fiscal year 2027 & 2028.

However, capex is expected to grow moderately at a CAGR of 8–10% between FY26 and FY28, driven by the government's continued focus on expanding wider, high-capacity highways and developing 20,000 km of High-Speed Corridors (HSCs) over the next five to six years.

Furthermore, with the introduction of a new concession agreement and increased government focus on revitalizing the BOT model, the share of BOT projects and private sector participation is likely to increase. Additionally, the government is using asset monetization, which involves leasing or selling completed road projects to private companies. This has already shown some success and is expected to help manage debt while ensuring steady investment in road development. The Ministry of Road Transport and Highways has set an asset monetisation target of Rs. 300–350 billion for FY27, up from Rs. 283.07 billion in FY26, with the National Highways Authority of India identifying 17 national highway assets spanning 1,692.5 km for monetisation through the TOT and InvIT routes.

Urban Infrastructure:

Urban infrastructure includes construction-intensive water supply and sanitation (WSS) projects, mass rapid transit system (MRTS), bus rapid transit system (BRTS), smart cities, and related infrastructure development. Investments increase in urban infrastructure recorded a ~25% CAGR between fiscal 2022-fiscal 2024 led by investments in water supply and sanitation under schemes such as Swachh Bharat Mission, Jal Jeevan mission, AMRUT and investments in metro projects a bulk of which were under implementation. Investments declined in fiscal 25 and further contracted in fiscal 26, primarily due to a reduction in the Centre's allocations under the Jal Jeevan Mission (JJM), amid concerns over implementation irregularities and lower-than-expected financial contributions from state governments. Furthermore, the Smart Cities Mission concluded in FY25. However, it is projected to recover growing at CAGR of 10-11% over the fiscal 2027 and fiscal 2028 due to central government allocation and state government support. The water supply and sanitation (WSS) segment is expected to remain the dominant contributor, accounting for approximately ~66% of the total investments.

Railway

The Indian railway sector, which is primarily funded by the central government, received the same budget allocation in fiscal year 2026 as in fiscal year 2025, however funding remains strong at Rs. 2.7 trillion. The allocation in fiscal year 2027 is expected to increase by 11% reaching Rs 2.9 trillion, as the government continues to focus on modernization and improving safety standards, as well as governments plans for development of new rail DFC network and development of high-speed rail corridors between key growth cities. The government is also focusing on railway safety and station redevelopment. The KAVACH safety system is being installed to reduce accidents, while the Amrit Bharat Station Scheme aims to modernize and upgrade railway stations, creating an additional ₹0.75 lakh crore investment opportunity. These initiatives highlight the government's commitment to transforming the railway sector, making it safer, more efficient, and better connected

Irrigation

Irrigation investments grew at a robust CAGR of 19.5% between FY21 and FY24. Following the strong growth recorded in FY24, spending growth moderated during FY24–FY26 to approximately 9.5% CAGR. Going forward, investment growth is expected to remain stable at around 7–9% CAGR over FY27–FY31P, supported by the continued focus of key states on completing ongoing irrigation projects. Many states still have less irrigation coverage than the national average, showing there is a lot of room for improvement. The top seven states (Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Karnataka, Maharashtra, Gujarat, Odisha, and Madhya Pradesh) account for 65-70% of total irrigation investment, as they either have high agricultural output or ongoing irrigation projects. These states have played a major role in the sector's growth, and their continued investments will be important for expanding irrigation coverage

Power

According to Crisil Intelligence, construction spending in the power sector is estimated to have surged by approximately 38% in FY26E, driven by a significant ramp-up in renewable energy capacity additions. The renewable energy sector is projected to record a robust CAGR of around 27% between FY25 and FY28, taking installed capacity to nearly 319 GW. This growth underscores India's accelerating transition towards cleaner energy sources, supported by favourable policy initiatives and continued investments in renewable infrastructure. Going forward, construction spending is expected to moderate to a CAGR of approximately 10–11% during FY27–FY31, as investment intensity is likely to normalize following substantial capacity additions

Telecommunications

The Indian telecom tower industry witnessed a significant expansion in capital expenditure during FY16–FY21, driven by the nationwide rollout of 4G networks, rapid growth in mobile data consumption, and extensive network densification initiatives. Capex momentum accelerated further during FY21–FY26, supported by the large-scale rollout of 5G services by telecom operators. The transition to 5G necessitated substantial investments in tower infrastructure, deployment of new radio equipment, network densification through small cells, fiber backhaul expansion, and upgrades to power and transmission systems. Going forward, capital expenditure in the telecom infrastructure sector is expected to moderate and normalize during FY27–FY31. With the bulk of 5G radio access network (RAN) deployment and associated infrastructure investments are largely completed. While the industry is expected to initiate preparatory activities for 6G technologies toward the latter part of the decade, the initial phase is likely to be driven primarily by software-defined network upgrades, virtualization, cloud-native architectures, and spectrum efficiency enhancements. Consequently, 6G-related investments are not expected to be as infrastructure-intensive as the initial phases of 4G or 5G rollouts, resulting in a more measured capex trajectory for the telecom tower industry over the medium term.

Water treatment, wastewater treatment and supply market in India

• Overview of construction spend on Water treatment, wastewater treatment and supply market

Government's increased focus on water supply and sanitation to drive investments

Investments in urban infrastructure recorded a 22% CAGR between fiscal 2022-fiscal 2026 led by investments in Water supply and sanitation under schemes such as Swachh Bharat Mission, Jal Jeevan mission, AMRUT and deferred investments in Metro projects a bulk of which were under implementation and have achieved financial closure. Urban infrastructure includes construction-intensive mass rapid transit system (MRTS), bus rapid transit system (BRTS), water supply and sanitation (WSS) projects, smart cities, and related infrastructure development.

Crisil Intelligence projects ~Rs 7,400-7,800 spends on water treatment, supply and wastewater treatment between fiscals 2027 and 2031, which is ~ 1.55x-1.65x higher than the amount invested in the previous five years. Water treatment, wastewater treatment and supply projects are expected to account for more than half of the total urban infrastructure investments over the next five years, driven primarily by state governments and through centrally sponsored programmes such as Jal Jeevan mission, AMRUT and Swachh Bharat mission.

Indian water treatment market has grown remarkably over the past five years, fuelled by the government's initiatives to enhance water supply and sanitation infrastructure. The Har Ghar Jal scheme for rural areas under the Jal Jeevan Mission and the 24x7 water supply plan for 500 cities under the AMRUT programme have been instrumental in driving this growth, with additional support from other schemes such as the SBM-R, SBM-U, etc.

Rapid growth in water treatment and supply market can be attributed to significant investments in water infrastructure, including the augmentation of water treatment plant (WTP) capacity, renovation of existing WTPs and expansion of pipeline infrastructure. The integration of cutting-edge technologies, such as SCADA and leakage detection systems, has played a crucial role in modernising the sector. With continued urbanisation and industrialisation, the country's demand for clean water is on the rise, creating a pressing need for efficient water treatment solutions.

The Jal Jeevan Mission has already led to substantial investment in rural water infrastructure, with rural household tap water connections increasing from 16.1% in 2019 to 80% just five years later, the next phase of growth is expected to be driven by urban development. The government's plans to provide 24x7 water supply and reduce non-revenue water (NRW) in urban areas are anticipated to be major growth drivers.

- Overview of Wastewater treatment landscape in India

In India, the wastewater sector is facing significant challenges, with a large portion of the population lacking access to proper sanitation and wastewater treatment facilities. The National Commission for Integrated Water Resources Development (NCIWRD) projects the country's water requirements to reach approximately 1,180 billion cubic metres by 2050, with around 70% allocated for agriculture, 9% for drinking water, 7% for industrial purposes, 6% for energy generation and the rest for other uses.

Research conducted by the Ministry of Jal Shakti shows the quality of rivers has shown some improvement, with 46% of rivers examined in 2022 designated as contaminated, compared with 70% in 2015. The Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB) has identified the release of industrial waste and untreated or partially treated municipal wastewater into water bodies, and inadequate solid waste management as some of the primary causes of water pollution.

A 2021 assessment by NITI Aayog indicates that India is one of the most water-stressed regions globally, with approximately 600 million Indians facing high water stress. By 2030, the demand for the water is expected to be twice the available supply, potentially leading to water scarcity for millions of people and impacting the country's GDP. Effective management of water resources, and reusing and recycling them, is essential for a sustainable future.

Wastewater generation and treatment capacity in India

The expected sewage generated has increased steadily over the years, from 70,517 MLD in fiscal 2020 to 82,300 MLD by fiscal 2026, based on population growth and rapid urbanisation. Sewage treatment capacity has also increased from 29,738 MLD to 45,853 MLD during this period, based on monthly reports submitted by state pollution control boards to the National Green Tribunal (NGT). This is a positive step towards addressing the country's wastewater management challenges.

The actual sewage treated has also shown an increasing trend, from 19,919 MLD to 32,842 MLD, indicating a growth of ~30% during the period. While there is still a significant gap between installed capacity and actual treatment, it has narrowed over the years, indicating improved utilisation of existing infrastructure. This suggests that while there is still a significant gap in treatment capacity, the country is making progress in treating a larger proportion of sewage generated.

Another significant reason for low utilisation is the lack of proper sewage supply infrastructure in many areas. In some cases, the sewage collection network is incomplete, or the pipes are old and leaky, leading to significant losses of sewage during transmission. This results in a lower volume of sewage reaching the STP, which in turn affects the utilisation rate. The structural challenges in achieving optimal STP utilisation are multifaceted, involving not only the physical infrastructure but also the coordination and interface between various stakeholders, including Public Health Engineering Departments (PHED) and Urban Local Bodies (ULBs). Companies operating in this space are attempting to mitigate these challenges through phased implementation of STP projects, prioritising areas with existing sewage infrastructure and ensuring that new capacities are created in tandem with the development of supporting infrastructure. Furthermore, they are working closely with PHED and ULBs to enhance interface coordination, streamline sewage collection and transmission, and ultimately increase the utilisation rates of STPs.

The state-wise distribution of STPs reveals that the top six states, namely Gujarat, Haryana, Karnataka, Punjab, Uttar Pradesh, and Maharashtra account for approximately 55% of the total STPs in fiscal 2026. Maharashtra leads the pack with 268 STPs, followed closely by Karnataka with 235 STPs.

Certain states, including Maharashtra, Gujarat, Haryana, Karnataka, and Uttar Pradesh, have not only established a large number of Sewage Treatment Plants (STPs) but have also demonstrated remarkable growth in their numbers between 2015 and 2026, with some even achieving triple-digit growth. This surge suggests that these states are prioritizing the development of smaller, ULB-based STPs, which has contributed to the significant increase in their overall numbers.

The states with the highest treatment capacity are Maharashtra, Gujarat, Uttar Pradesh, Delhi and Karnataka, accounting for more than 50% of the country's total treatment capacity. Maharashtra has the largest share at around 23%, followed by Gujarat with 15%, Uttar Pradesh with 12%, and Delhi and Karnataka with each around 8%. These are among the most populous and industrialised states and their high treatment capacities reflect the significant efforts being made to manage their wastewater.

Overall, the data indicates that the top 10 states are making significant progress in managing their wastewater. This progress can be attributed to state-level initiatives, such as the New Liquid Waste Management Rules in Gujarat and Maharashtra's upgraded water policy of 2019, which added mandates on reuse and sanitation. These initiatives highlight the importance of tailored approaches to address the unique challenges and opportunities in each state.

Wastewater treatment technologies

The wastewater industry employs various technologies and treatment plants to remove contaminants and pollutants from water. Here is a qualitative overview of some key technologies and types of treatment plants:

Activated sludge process (ASP): It is a biological treatment method that uses microorganisms to break down organic matter in wastewater. It involves aerating the wastewater to promote microbial growth, followed by settling and removal of the sludge.

Membrane bio reactor (MBR): It is a hybrid treatment process that combines biological treatment with membrane filtration. It uses microorganisms to break down organic matter and then uses membranes to separate the treated water from the sludge.

Moving bed bio reactor (MBBR): It is a biological treatment process that uses moving beds of biomass carriers to support microbial growth. It is a compact and efficient treatment process that can handle high organic loads.

Sequencing batch reactor (SBR): It is a biological treatment process that uses a single tank to perform all treatment steps, including filling, reacting, settling and decanting. It is a flexible and efficient treatment process that can handle variable flows and loads.

Others: Other key technologies and types of treatment plants include trickling filter, rotating biological contactor (RBC), upflow anaerobic sludge blanket (UASB) reactor, constructed wetlands, and advanced oxidation processes (AOPs), which use various methods such as fixed bed media, rotating disks, sludge blankets, plants, and 192 customize agents to break down organic matter and remove contaminants from water.

- Different tendering models in water and wastewater treatment

The Indian water and wastewater sector has witnessed a significant trend in project implementation, with projects across water supply, wastewater and desalination segments being implemented mainly under three models EPC, PPP, PPP – HAM models. However, PPP-HAM is emerging as a popular alternative, with increasing interest from private players even though the majority of the project in WSS segment is happening through EPC mode.

Overview of EPC mode

Over the years, the infrastructure business has seen various contracting methods evolve. Traditional contracting models have been replaced by new approaches as projects have grown more complex. Gradually, the responsibility for project management has moved from the owner or developer to the contractor.

This shift is evident in the move from owner-managed projects to Engineering, Procurement, and Construction (EPC) contracts. In EPC contracts, the contractor assumes the risks of time and cost overruns, along with the responsibilities for design, material procurement, and construction. These contracts also shield the owner/developer from currency and interest rate fluctuations.

Unlike other contracts where procurement and design are separate processes, EPC contracts integrate them, reducing the overall project duration. Contract which requires heavy financial and technically requirement generally divided into smaller EPC projects. A typical EPC project covers design, civil works, equipment purchase and installation, and commissioning. Most of the EPC players provide integrated and 193 customized solutions as per the client requirements through a consultative approach.

Key factors influencing EPC player selection

Further in India, in general, a single stage two-part system (referred to as the “Bidding Process”) is used for selection of the EPC contractor in order to award the project. It includes technical evaluation and financial evaluation.

Technical qualification: In this the eligibility and qualification criteria are evaluated based on years of experience and expertise of the contractor in the said industry in which EPC project is being executed, domicile of the executing contractor, availability of resources with the contractor and capabilities of such resources among others

Financial qualification: In this the average annual turnover of the EPC contractor over the past 3 financial years is considered which needs to be above the said criteria mentioned along with this the EPC contractor should have a minimum net worth (set forth in bid document) as per his financials. Further, in some cases a minimum amount of working capital as per its latest financials is also considered. In addition, the contractor is also asked to furnish financial statements for the necessary financial years.

After thorough evaluation of all bid documents, the L1 bidder with the lowest bid value is identified, but the selection process doesn’t end there – multiple iterations of checks and evaluations are conducted to ensure the most competitive bidder is selected. For example, MoRTH follows a structured approach for selecting the final bidder, which includes multiple stages of evaluation and iteration to determine the best-suited contractor for the project.

Step 1: Identification of L1 Bidder

- Among all responsive bidders, the lowest bidder will be termed as L1.

- If L1 is a 'Class-1 Local Supplier', the contract will be awarded to L1 directly.

Step 2: Preference to Class-1 Local Suppliers

- If L1 is not a 'Class-1 Local Supplier', the lowest bidder among the 'Class-1 Local Suppliers' will be invited to match the L1 price.
- This is subject to the Class-1 Local Supplier's quoted price falling within the margin of purchase preference.
- The contract will be awarded to the Class-1 Local Supplier who matches the L1 price.

Step 3: Iterative Process for Class-1 Local Suppliers

- In case the lowest eligible Class-1 Local Supplier fails to match the L1 price, the next higher bidder among the Class-1 Local Suppliers within the margin of purchase preference will be invited to match the L1 price.
- This process will continue until a Class-1 Local Supplier matches the L1 price or none of the Class-1 Local Suppliers within the margin of purchase preference are willing to match the L1 price.

Step 4: Award of Contract

- If a Class-1 Local Supplier matches the L1 price, the contract will be awarded to that supplier.
- If none of the Class-1 Local Suppliers within the margin of purchase preference match the L1 price, the contract will be awarded to the L1 bidder.

Margin of Purchase Preference

- The margin of purchase preference is the maximum extent to which the price quoted by a Class-1 Local Supplier may be above the L1 for the purpose of purchase preference.
- The margin of purchase preference is set at 20%.
- This means that a Class-1 Local Supplier's quoted price can be up to 20% higher than the L1 price and still be considered for the contract.

Overview of entry barriers for EPC industry in India

The Engineering, Procurement, and Construction (EPC) industry in India is a vital part of the country's infrastructure development, encompassing sectors like infrastructure, and industrial projects. However, there are multiple challenges faced in EPC modes:

- High Capital Requirements: The EPC industry demands substantial initial investments for equipment, technology, and skilled manpower. Smaller firms may find it challenging to secure the necessary funding to compete with established players.
- Regulatory and Compliance Issues: The industry is heavily regulated, requiring companies to comply with various environmental, safety, and labour regulations. Navigating these regulations can be complex and costly affair, posing a significant barrier for new entrants.
- Technical Expertise: Some of the EPC projects often require specialized technical knowledge and expertise of the industry. Companies must possess a skilled workforce capable of handling complex engineering tasks and innovative construction techniques. Building such a team is a considerable challenge for newcomers.
- Project Management Skills: Managing large-scale EPC projects requires robust project management skills to ensure timely and cost-effective completion. New entrants might lack the experience and processes needed to manage such projects efficiently.

- Financial Risks and Creditworthiness: EPC projects often involve significant financial risks, including cost overruns and delays. New entrants must demonstrate strong financial stability and creditworthiness to secure contracts and financing, which can be challenging without a proven track record.
- Competitive Landscape: The EPC industry in India is highly competitive, with established players having strong market presence and relationships with key stakeholders. Breaking into this competitive landscape requires significant marketing efforts and the ability to differentiate from existing competitors.

Overview of PPP model

Under PPP, there are several models that have gained popularity but HAM (Hybrid annuity model) has gained the popularity in the water and wastewater treatment industry. Below are the few different tendering models which is taken under PPP modes

- Design-build-operate-transfer (DBOT): A model where the private sector partner designs, builds, and operates the project for a specified period, after which it is transferred to the government
- Design-build-operate (DBO): A model where the private sector partner designs, builds, and operates the project, but the ownership remains with the government
- Build-own-operate-transfer (BOOT): A model where the private sector partner builds, owns, and operates the project for a specified period, after which it is transferred to the government
- Design-build-finance-operate-transfer (DBFOT): A model where the private sector partner designs, builds, finances, and operates the project for a specified period, after which it is transferred to the government
- Build-operate-transfer (BOT): A model where the private sector partner builds and operates the project for a specified period, after which it is transferred to the government
- Hybrid annuity model (HAM): A model where the government provides 40% of the project capital cost as construction support, and the remaining 60% is paid as annuity payments throughout the operations phase, plus interest.

EPC projects among the overall infra investments for water supply and sanitation to remain at 75-85%

We have assessed water supply, water sanitation, wastewater management, and water treatment plant projects, to evaluate investments through the EPC (Engineering, Procurement, and Construction) route.

Purely for water supply projects, more than 95% of project investments happen via the EPC route. Considering wastewater treatment and water supply projects together, it is estimated that 80-90% of investments in the sector happen via the EPC route, while the rest happen via public private partnership (PPP).

The lake had dried up due to absence of rainfall in Bengaluru - It further plans to recharge five more lakes and has issued a public disclaimer advising against using the water for potable purposes
Treated wastewater from fish processing plants proposed to be reused by steel rolling mills in Goa	- Treated wastewater discharged by fish processing plants is expected to be utilised for water requirements of steel rolling mills at the Cuncolim Industrial Estate in Goa. This water conservation solution has been suggested by the Goa State Pollution Control Board (GSPCB) - As per a study by GSPCB, seven fish processing plants and exporters together consume about 567 kld (thousand litres per day) and generate approximately 494 kld of wastewater - The steel mills need 749 kld of water every day for cooling, slag crushing, the furnace tank, and other processes
Pune Municipal Corporation (PMC)	- As part of the ongoing JICA-funded Mula-Mutha river rejuvenation project, PMC is laying nearly 50 km of trunk sewer lines across 19 locations to enhance wastewater collection and conveyance to treatment facilities. 18 km completed so far (as of April 2026 update). This directly boosts collection efficiency, reduces untreated sewage flowing into the river, and supports overall pollution control.

Digital and technological initiatives

Digital initiatives	Details
Automatic drain cleaning machines by Bhubaneswar Municipal Corporation	- The Bhubaneswar Municipal Corporation is using automatic drain cleaning machines instead of excavators - They will be utilised owing to advantages such as automatic drain cover removal, silt extraction and a complete shift to mechanical cleaning of drains
Online monitoring stations by Delhi Pollution Control Committee	- The Government of Delhi has started constructing an online monitoring station along Yamuna River and different locations of drains flowing into it - It is being installed by the Delhi Pollution Control Committee. It will help access real-time data on pollutants discharged in the river.
Fully automated vacuum sewer network in Goa	- India's first fully automated vacuum sewer network system was inaugurated in Goa, under AMRUT. It is expected to aid sewage management for more than 200 households in areas with a high-water table, such as Mala and St Inez Creek in Panaji - The project is expected to overcome the geographical constraints of traditional gravity-based sewer systems, such as a high-water table and narrow lanes. It offers advantages such as minimal excavation requirements, fully sealed solution and prevention of groundwater infiltration
Desiltation machinery and monitoring systems	- The Municipal Corporation of Delhi has undertaken a desiltation drive in two phases in 2026, with an overall target of removing 2.3 lakh MT of silt. Of this, 1.4 lakh MT was completed before the monsoon, while the remaining 92,129 MT under Phase 2 is expected to be completed by December. - A dedicated dashboard has been established to monitor the initiative on a daily basis. It enables data uploading of details such as cleaned pipeline lengths and manhole counts, along with photographs as evidence. Also, Google Maps using CAN (Communication area network) numbers with GPS integration is being deployed to record complaints relating to sewage overflow, contaminated water and road silt

- Key growth drivers and challenges of the water treatment, supply and wastewater treatment market of India

Key growth drivers:

Growth drivers	Description
Supporting financial models for industries	- Improved risk allocation through innovative financing models, such as the hybrid annuity model (HAM), which is attracting private sector participation - Diversified funding sources, including international organisations (e.g., the World Bank, the Asian Development Bank and Japan International Cooperation Agency) and government grants and subsidies - Increased private sector participation, driven by the provision of additional funding sources and improved risk allocation

Growth drivers	Description
Unlocking revenue potential through reuse	- Implementing regulatory measures to enforce or incentivise the mandatory reuse of treated wastewater in industries - Creating a market for compost from digested sludge, which can provide an additional revenue stream
Integrated water management	- Sharing resources across projects, to increase the scale of operations and reduce costs - Implementing city-wide sanitation and wastewater treatment programmes, to achieve integrated water management and improve overall efficiency - Adoption of energy-efficient technologies, such as variable frequency drive (VFD)-based pumps, which can reduce energy consumption and costs
Focus on water security	- The government has intensified its focus on water security, with central and state authorities working towards implementing effective and equitable water management systems - The Union government has proposed offsetting up an Integrated Water Resources Management Authority (IWRMA) in each state as part of its vision for a developed India by 2047. A draft model Bill has been circulated to all states for consideration. - The IWRMA is expected to play a crucial role in developing comprehensive water security plans for various administrative tiers, including villages, cities, districts and states. Its responsibilities will also encompass groundwater and floodplain management, and river conservation, all of which are critical components of a robust water management framework National river interlinking plan: The concept of interlinking rivers in India, initiated in the 1980s under the National Perspective Plan (NPP), aims to enhance water security, a critical growth driver for India's economic development. The National Water Development Agency (NWDA), set up in 1982, and the proposed National Interlinking of Rivers Authority (NIRA) in 2021, will play a key role in optimizing water resources, reducing regional disparities, and ensuring a reliable water supply, thereby unlocking sustainable growth and development opportunities.
24x7 water supply	- The Environmental Hygiene Committee has outlined recommendations to facilitate this change, aiming to provide 24x7 water supply to all citizens - Currently, only a handful of cities, including Puri, Malkapur and certain parts of Bengaluru and Delhi, have achieved this milestone, while others like Coimbatore are actively working towards it - The government of Assam laid the foundation stone for the Jorhat 24x7 Water Supply Scheme on December 14, 2024
Deploying technological innovations and energy efficient measures	- Operational efficiency of WTPs/ STPs is being improved through application of energy-saving systems such as VFD-based and other energy efficient pumps - New technologies such as sewer cleaning machines, programmable logic controller (PLC)-based SCADA systems, and sensor-based predictive maintenance are also being deployed

Growing private sector participation	- There is a growing trend of private sector participation in the water management sector, with companies increasingly bidding for government projects under various models such as one city, one operator (under the hybrid annuity model), performance-based contracting and payments - This increased engagement of private players is expected to bring in expertise, efficiency and investment, ultimately enhancing the country's water infrastructure and services
Reduction of NRW	- The government is taking steps to reduce NRW levels by metering the supply lines; AMRUT 2.0 targets to reduce NRW in cities to 20% - Thane Municipal Corporation and Thane Smart City Ltd have installed 105,000 smart water meters in October 2024 across Thane under its Smart Water Meter project

Source: Crisil Intelligence

Key market challenges:

Market challenges	Details
Institutional challenges	- ULBs are primarily responsible for the provision and maintenance of wastewater and water treatment facilities in their administrative area. However, in many cases, they lack the capacity to plan and implement such projects - Performance audit by CPCB in the 'human power availability in SPCBs' report (CPCB, 2020) based on category states that the shortage of staff is 37.6%, 39% and 52.3% in the Group A, B and C categories, respectively in the ULBs because of which managing the plant becomes difficult for them - Labs are not well equipped due to a shortage of manpower and procurement delays in instruments, equipment and consumables
Water network and coverage	- Indian cities face significant challenges in providing adequate water supply and sewerage services, with notable deficiencies in network coverage and service quality - Despite their size, even million-plus cities have substantial backlogs, with gaps greater than 20% in network coverage, highlighting the need for infrastructure expansion and upgrading to meet the growing demands of urban populations.
Technical inadequacies of ULBs	- Most ULBs does not have a water meter installed. As a result, they continue with a fixed rate billing system and the meters are unread - As per the CWC, only 20-30% of current water supply is metered, which is leading to losses

Regulatory challenges	- No standards have been set for the ambient water quality for a surface waterbody which is probably on the receiving end of treated or untreated domestic sewage and, thus, misses the goals that need to be set (water quality criteria by CPCB are set based on the uses) - As per the CPCB notified “General Discharge Standards”, a surface waterbody is regulated by 35 parameters, while wastewater for land application (or irrigation) is regulated by 10 parameters, not including heavy metals
Economic challenges	- Cost of STPs increases substantially with more advanced treatments that ensure reduced pollution. Hence, the direct economic benefits from the STP derived from the use of treated water in agriculture or fisheries are considerably low - Higher capital and O&M (Operations and Maintenance) costs and cost of utilities are rarely covered by revenue from STPs (may include dried sludge and treated water) due to high uncertainty in demand. Thus, smaller towns find it difficult to install STPs of adequate capacity, and the gap increases in cities and towns with lower revenue
Technological challenges	Conventional centralised wastewater treatment plants are designed only to remove biological oxygen demand (BOD), nitrogen (N) and phosphorous. With rapid urbanisation, the nature and type of contaminants are changing, along with the emergence of new challenges. Hence, new technologies that are more efficient in treating water for reuse are required

- Government policies and regulatory framework in India

Evolution of water policies and regulations over the years

The government has various policies and frameworks that supported the growth of the water management sector in the country.

In India, water management is primarily the responsibility of state governments, with the central government providing technical and financial support. Recognising the importance of water conservation, the government has made it a top priority.

The National Water Mission continues to guide the policy, prioritising water conservation, rainwater harvesting and improving efficiency to ensure long-term sustainability in water resource management. These guidelines aim to build resilient systems that ensure safe drinking water, addressing long-standing issues of competence and capacity in small water systems.

RE: Revised Estimates, BE: Budgetary Estimates

Launched on August 15, 2019, the Jal Jeevan Mission (JJM) is a flagship programme of the central government, with the objective of providing functional household tap connections (FHTCs) to all rural households. It aims to improve the lives of rural communities by providing them safe and adequate drinking water and promoting sustainable water management practices.

Jal Jeevan Mission

JJM uses a multi-stakeholder approach, involving the central government, state governments and local communities. It promotes community participation in water management, with a focus on sustainable and equitable use of water resources. It also emphasises on the importance of technological innovations, such as solar-powered water supply systems, to reduce cost and improve efficiency.

The mission has made significant progress with over 74 million FHTCs provided to rural households so far. Community participation in water management is being promoted, with a focus on sustainable and equitable use of water resources. A comprehensive plan has been developed to achieve the mission's objectives, build resilient water supply systems and promote community-led initiatives. It also recognises the importance of community education and awareness about water management to ensure long-term sustainability of water resources.

The mission is being implemented in a phased manner by developing in-village piped water supply infrastructure. Local communities are given help in capacity building and training to ensure their active participation in water management. Community-led total sanitation (CLTS) will help improve the overall quality of life in rural areas. A comprehensive plan has been developed to achieve the mission's objectives. The mission will continue to work towards achieving its objectives, with a focus on community participation, education and technological innovations.

In short, the highlights of the mission are:

- Providing FHTCs to all rural households
- Promoting community participation in water management
- Ensuring sustainable and equitable use of water resources
- Developing a comprehensive plan to achieve the mission's objectives
- Providing community education and creating awareness about water management
- Promoting technological innovations, such as solar-powered water supply systems, to reduce cost and improve efficiency

The substantial budget allocation for JJM, though with some fluctuation over the years, also reflects the government's commitment to providing adequate funding to support the mission's objectives. The funds allocated to are utilised to provide tap water supply to households and to maintain and upgrade existing water supply infrastructure. The steady increase in household connections provided under the mission suggests it is on track to achieve its targets. Overall, the data suggests that JJM is making progress towards its objectives and the government is committed to supporting the mission through adequate funding.

AMRUT 2.0

The AMRUT 2.0 scheme was launched on October 01, 2021, by the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs (MoHUA) with the aim of making cities self-reliant and water secure. The scheme is a continuation of the previous AMRUT scheme, which was launched in 2015. It is designed to provide basic services such as water supply, sewerage and urban transport to households and build amenities in cities to improve the quality of life for all citizens, especially the poor and disadvantaged.

The main objectives of AMRUT 2.0 are:

- Universal piped water supply: Giving water tap connections to all households to ensure every household has access to clean and safe drinking water.
- Universal coverage of sewerage and septage management: To provide universal coverage of sewerage and septage management in 500 AMRUT cities, ensuring that every household has access to proper sanitation facilities.
- Promoting circular economy of water: Recycling and reusing treated sewage, reducing the burden on freshwater resources and minimising the environmental impact of wastewater disposal.
- Rejuvenation of water bodies: To augment water availability, enhance amenity value and develop green spaces, which will, in turn, improve the overall aesthetic and environmental quality of urban areas.
- Making cities atmanirbhar and water secure: By ensuring they have necessary infrastructure and resources to manage their water needs sustainably.

The AMRUT 2.0 scheme has several key components, including:

- Water supply: The scheme aims to provide universal piped water supply with household water tap connections, ensuring that every household has access to clean and safe drinking water.
- Sewerage and septage management: It aims to provide sewerage and septage management in 500 AMRUT cities, ensuring every household has access to proper sanitation facilities.
- Rejuvenation of water bodies: It seeks to rejuvenate water bodies to augment water and enhance amenity value and develop green spaces, improving the overall aesthetic and environmental quality of urban areas.
- Technology sub-mission: It will leverage latest technologies in the field of water to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of water supply and sewerage systems.
- Public-private partnerships (PPPs): The scheme encourages PPP projects in million-plus cities, with a minimum of 10% of total fund allocation at the city level committed to such project.

The AMRUT 2.0 scheme has a multi-level governance structure as follows:

- State high powered steering committees (SHPSCs): Headed by the state chief secretaries, SHPSCs monitor and supervise the implementation of the scheme at the state/UT level
- State level technical committee (SLTC): Headed by the state secretary of Urban Development and Housing Department, the SLTC provides technical support to the SHPSC in monitoring and supervising the scheme at the State level

- Apex committee: The apex committee reviews and monitors the mission periodically
- Independent review and monitoring agencies (IRMAs): IRMAs assess and monitor the work done under AMRUT in states/UTs. Funds are released to States/UTs basis compliance reports by these monitoring agencies

Funds distribution ratio:

States/UTs	Central share (%)
Union Territories	100%
Northeastern states and Himalayan states	90%
Cities of states with less than one lakh population	50%
Cities of states with population one lakh to 10 lakh (both included)	On-third of the project cost
Cities of states with population more than 10 lakh	25% of the project funds by the Centre (except for projects taken up under PPP mode) *

Note: PPP projects amounting to at least 10% of total project allocation for all cities with population above 10 lakh in a state will be mandatorily taken up under this scheme

The total indicative outlay for AMRUT 2.0 is Rs 2,990 billion, including the total Central assistance of Rs. 767.6 billion, for five years (FY22 to FY26). As on January, 2026, so far, 583 sewerage projects worth Rs. 66,117.69 crore have been approved by Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs (MoHUA). Approved projects cover 6,649 MLD sewage treatment capacity (new/augmentation), 65 lakh household sewer connections and laying of 34,548 km of sewer lines. As informed by the cities in City Water Balance Plan on AMRUT 2.0 platform, around 6,535 MLD of treated water is reused by the States in industries, horticulture, agriculture, etc. Another, 1,931 MLD capacity for recycle/reuse is approved under AMRUT 2.0

Jal Hi Amrit Scheme: In October 2024, the Jal Hi Amrit (JHA) scheme was launched as an extension of AMRUT 2.0, with the aim of transforming STPs into resource recovery facilities. The JHA programme aims to incentivise states and UTs to ensure the optimal functioning of Used-water Treatment Plants (UWTPs). These plants must consistently meet environmental standards while producing recyclable treated water. As part of this initiative, UWTPs will be awarded clean water credits through a star rating system. Incentives will be provided to urban local bodies (ULBs)/ parastatal agencies based on a comprehensive evaluation process detailed in the following section. Additionally, the JHA programme focuses on enhancing the skills of UWTP operators/ULB officials. Through customised capacity-building programmes, the initiative aims to equip these personnel with the knowledge and expertise needed to manage the facilities efficiently and consistently meet discharge standards.

The AMRUT 2.0 scheme is expected to have several benefits, including:

- Improved water supply: The scheme will ensure that every household has access to clean and safe drinking water, improving the overall health and well-being of citizens
- Better sanitation: The scheme will ensure that every household has access to proper sanitation facilities, reducing the risk of water-borne diseases and improving the overall environmental quality of urban areas
- Increased water security: The scheme will promote the circular economy of water, reducing the burden on freshwater resources and minimising the environmental impact of wastewater disposal
- Higher aesthetic and environmental quality: The scheme will rejuvenate water bodies and develop green spaces, improving the overall aesthetic and environmental quality of urban areas
- Increased economic opportunities: The scheme will create new economic opportunities in the water sector, including the development of new technologies and industries related to water management

AMRUT 2.0 is a comprehensive scheme aimed at making cities self-reliant and water secure by providing universal piped water supply, sewerage and septage management, and promoting the circular economy of water. The scheme has made significant progress since its launch and it is expected to have a positive impact on the urban life. However, the scheme faces several challenges, including financial, technical, institutional and environmental, which need to be addressed to ensure the successful implementation of the scheme.

Namami Gange Programme

The Namami Gange Programme (NGP), also known as National Mission for Clean Ganga, is an integrated conservation programme launched in June 2014 with the aim to achieve the twin goals of conservation and restoration of the water quality of the Ganga, along with effective pollution abatement.

The initiative has been implemented, taking into account the significant economic, environmental and cultural value associated with the river.

The programme was initially set to run until March 2021, but was subsequently extended to March 2026. The 100% centrally funded programme adopts a hybrid annuity-based PPP model.

The Ganga flows more than 2,500 km through the plains of north and eastern India, with the Ganga basin comprising 26% of India's landmass, making it a key source of livelihood and water for many citizens.

The NPG covers eight states, 47 towns and 12 rivers, comprising the main river and its tributaries.

The second phase of the programme, which runs from fiscal 2021 to 2026, aims to build on the success of the first phase.

The key features of the NGP 2 are:

- Empanelment of agencies to support the preparation of Detailed project reports (DPR)
- Standardisation of the DPRs and instituting trainings ahead of its preparation
- Mapping and monthly monitoring of the drains by the SPCBs
- Characterisation of sludge and its monetisation
- Monthly reports and review of activities to improve monitoring
- Institutional strengthening of the SPMGs by filling up of vacancies
- Stringent monitoring of the DPRs and procurement process
- Strengthening of the DGCs (District ganga committees) through capacity building
- Fixed day, mandated monthly DGCs meetings along with minutes
- Increase participation in Namami Gange programmes – Arth Ganga, etc

To be sure, the programme has made significant progress in achieving its objectives.

The first phase of the programme, which ended in 2021, saw the completion of several key projects, including the creation of sewerage infrastructure, control of industrial pollution and improvement with regard to rural sanitation.

For instance, all 4,465 villages along the bank of the Ganga have been declared open defecation-free and significant reduction in pollution from industries has been achieved. Paper and pulp facilities have installed advanced process technologies, resulting in lower freshwater consumption and wastewater discharge, and zero black liquor discharge. In fact, the industrial sector has been a key focus area, with CETPs provided to tanneries located along the riverbank to transition to cleaner processes and reduce water consumption.

In addition to these efforts, the government has also promoted sustainable agricultural practices, such as organic farming, to reduce pollution and improve the overall health of the Ganga basin. The introduction of new technologies, such as the use of GIS and remote sensing, has helped monitor the health of the river as well. Public awareness and community participation have been crucial components, with initiatives such as Ganga Utsav, which aims to promote awareness and education about the river among the general public, successful in engaging the community. Ganga Amantran, a 34-day river rafting expedition, has also been instrumental in promoting community participation and public awareness.

The programme has also seen significant investment in infrastructure development, including the creation of sewerage, industrial pollution control and rural sanitation infrastructure, which has improved the overall quality of life for people living in proximity to the Ganga basin. Furthermore, initiatives such as Arth Ganga aim to promote sustainable agriculture and reduce pollution in the basin area – this has seen significant success, with the adoption of sustainable agricultural practices by farmers in the Ganga basin, and the reduction of pollution from industrial and agricultural sources.

As the programme moves forward, there are plans to restore the ‘wholesomeness’ of the river, defined in terms of ensuring continuous flow, unpolluted flow, geologic and ecological integrity, and climatic and spatial understanding. Towards this, the programme will continue to focus on creation of sewerage, industrial pollution control and rural sanitation infrastructure, and will introduce advanced technologies to monitor and further improve the health of the river.

As of July, 2026, a total of 524 projects has been sanctioned at a cost of Rs. 43,030 crores, out of which 363 projects have been completed.

Still, despite the variations, data suggests that NGP is making progress, in terms of project completion, and with continued efforts, it is likely to achieve the overall objective.

Smart Cities Mission

The Smart Cities Mission is an initiative of the government to promote core infrastructure and quality of life for citizens in cities by ensuring a clean and sustainable environment and the application of 'smart' solutions. The focus is on sustainable and inclusive development, which can be replicated within as well as outside the 'smart city', catalysing the creation of similar smart cities in various regions and parts of the country.

The core infrastructure elements in a smart city include adequate water supply, assured electricity supply, sanitation, efficient urban mobility and public transport, affordable housing, robust IT connectivity and digitalisation, good governance, sustainable environment, safety and security of citizens, and health and education.

The mission involves the strategic components of area-based development, which includes city improvement, city renewal and city extension, as well as a pan city initiative that applies smart solutions to larger parts of the city.

Government funds and matching contribution by the states/ULBs meet only part of the project cost, with the balance funding to be mobilised from various sources, including own resources of the states/ULBs, and via innovative finance mechanisms and private sector participation through PPPs.

The distribution of funds under the scheme is:

- 93% project funds
- 5% administrative and office expenses (A&OE) funds for states/ULBs (towards preparation of Smart city proposals and for Project management consultants, pilot studies connected to area-based developments, and deployment and generation of smart solutions and capacity building)
- 2% A&OE funds for the Mission Directorate and connected activities/structures, research, pilot studies, capacity building, and concurrent evaluation

The Smart Cities Mission also involves convergence with other schemes, such as AMRUT, Swachh Bharat Mission, National Heritage City Development and Augmentation Yojana, Digital India, and other programmes connected to social infrastructure.

By integrating these schemes, comprehensive development can occur, achieving urban transformation and improving the quality of life for citizens. As of May 9, 2025, a total of 7,555 projects 94% of the total 8,067 projects have been completed, amounting to Rs 1,51,361 crore. Additionally, 512 projects worth Rs 13,043 crore are in the advanced stages of implementation. This amounts to overall 8,067 multi-sectoral projects valued at Rs 1.64 lakh crore.

The Mission received multiple requests from several State and City Government representatives seeking additional time to complete the remaining 10% of projects. These ongoing projects were in advanced stages of implementation but had been delayed due to various on-ground challenges. In the interest of the public, it was important that these projects were completed and contributed to improving the ease of living in urban areas.

Taking cognizance of these requests, the Government of India extended the Mission period up to 31 March 2025 to facilitate the completion of the remaining projects. The extension was communicated to the cities with the stipulation that it would not involve any additional cost beyond the financial allocation already approved under the Mission.

Roads and Highways

- Overview of spend on road construction

Road construction investments projected to grow moderately in fiscal 2027 & 2031

Investment in the road sector grew at an average annual rate of 9% between fiscal years 2021 and 2024, driven by a high number of national highway projects being approved and built. However, in fiscal year 2024, highway awarding dropped by 31%, bringing the total to 8,581 km, thus impacting construction in fiscal year 2025. The drop in awarding continued in FY25 and is expected to continue in FY26 as well. Since road construction usually happens around 18 months after approval, the slowdown in new project awarding will likely affect actual highway construction in fiscal year 2027 & 2028.

However, capex is expected to grow moderately at a CAGR of 8–10% between FY26 and FY28, driven by the government's continued focus on expanding wider, high-capacity highways and developing 20,000 km of High-Speed Corridors (HSCs) over the next five to six years.

Furthermore, with the introduction of a new concession agreement and increased government focus on revitalizing the BOT model, the share of BOT projects and private sector participation is likely to increase.

Additionally, the government is using asset monetization, which involves leasing or selling completed road projects to private companies. This has already shown some success and is expected to help manage debt while ensuring steady investment in road development. The Ministry of Road Transport and Highways has set an asset monetisation target of Rs.300–350 billion for FY27, up from Rs. 283.07 billion in FY26, with the National Highways Authority of India identifying 17 national highway assets spanning 1,692.5 km for monetisation through the TOT and InvIT routes.

Spend on road construction

Note: A: Actual; P: Projected

Source: Crisil Intelligence

- Road construction spends across Rural, State and National highways

According to CRISIL Intelligence, state road capital expenditure is expected to contribute nearly 50% of the sector's total capital outlay in FY26. After remaining largely stagnant in fiscals 2021 and 2022 due to constrained state finances, capital expenditure on roads and bridges by states witnessed strong growth in FY25 and is estimated to have increased by a further 5–7% in FY26. While state budgets for FY26 indicate an overall rise in capital outlay, allocations towards roads and bridges have remained broadly unchanged, suggesting that spending on this key infrastructure segment may be approaching a plateau.

State roads which include state highways, major district roads, and rural roads outside the ambit of the Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana (PMGSY)—account for over 20% of India's road network and carry approximately 40% of the country's road traffic. These roads play a critical role in supporting the economic development of semi-urban and rural regions, while also facilitating industrial activity through the efficient movement of raw materials and finished goods between production centres and hinterland markets.

% Spend split in road construction

- Overview of NHAI awarding and construction pace

NHAI awarding revives in fiscal 2025 with the revamped BOT model likely to account for a sizeable share

National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) awarding had witnessed a rise from merely 2,222 km in fiscal 2019 to 4,080 km in fiscal 2025. However, in fiscal 2024, awarding momentum was marred by various roadblocks. NHAI's flagship Bharatmala Pariyojana Programme (BMP) Phase-1 witnessed significant cost overrun on account of costlier land acquisition and high inflation. The estimated cost of the BMP phase-1 increased almost twice than the initial estimate and the ministry sought cabinet approval for a revamped programme and additional funds in order to undertake rapid awarding of projects in the pipeline. NHAI awarding was ~ 3,339 kms in fiscal 2024 and in fiscal 25 it has reached ~4,080 kms primarily driven by a surge in Q4FY25 after initial delays

National highways - Year-wise total length awarded (km) by NHAI

Note: E - Estimated; P - Projected

Source: Crisil Intelligence

Share of BOT in NHAI awarding to be around 4-6% in fiscal 2025 on the back of amendments in the BOT MCA

Indian road and highway sector has also undergone significant changes in the mode of project execution over the years. Between 2007 and 2014, build-operate-transfer (BOT) projects accounted for ~50% of total project awards, indicating their popularity during that period. However, post-2014, the popularity of BOT projects declined due to various challenges such as aggressive bidding, unrealistic traffic projections, land acquisition delays and disputes, which led to project failures and non-performing assets (NPAs) for banks. In response to these challenges, the government introduced the hybrid annuity model (HAM) in 2016, which subsequently became a popular mode of execution. HAM allowed for a more balanced risk-sharing mechanism between the government and private developers, making it a more attractive option for investors.

However, in fiscal 2025, the share of BOT projects ticked upwards, driven by favourable changes made in the model concession agreement (MCA) for developers. The MCA amendments have made BOT projects more attractive to developers, and the share of BOT projects is forecast to rise to 8-10% in the near future. This is also driven by a strong pipeline of projects and further amendments in the MCA, which are expected to make BOT projects more viable and attractive to investors.

The resurgence of BOT projects is a positive development for the sector since it indicates a renewed interest in private sector participation and investment in road and highway development. The government's efforts to revamp the MCA and make it more favourable for developers has paid off, and the sector is expected to benefit from increased private sector investment and participation.

NHAI execution is also rising steadily with focus on swifter execution

Even though overall national highways construction at the MoRTH level had remained flattish in fiscals 2022 and 2023, NHAI execution witnessed strong momentum. NHAI execution sequentially rose from 4,175 km in fiscal 2021 to 5,614 km in fiscal 2025. Acceleration in project awards, sharper focus on resolving land acquisition issues, and the 'Atmanirbhar Bharat' initiatives to ease liquidity (monthly milestone payments, release of retention money, reduction in performance security & extension of 3-6 months in milestones & SCODs) for EPC road players augured well for the pace of execution of NHAI projects.

Higher awarding of the previous years (FY21-23) and many of those projects receiving appointed dates in a timely manner have further boosted NHAI execution in fiscal 2024. As a result, 6,644 km of NHAI projects were executed during the year. In other words, the construction per day stood at around 18 km. Given the healthy orderbooks of the developers, the momentum in the pace of execution is likely to continue in fiscal 2026 as well. NHAI constructed 5,614 km of National Highways against the target of 5,150 km for the year. Over the medium term, the pace of construction is expected to rise steadily to reach ~19 km per day by fiscal 2028.

- Review of budgetary allocation for the road industry

Bharatmala Pariyojana

Launched in 2017, the Bharatmala Pariyojana envisages development of about 26,000 km length of Economic Corridors, which along with Golden Quadrilateral (GQ) and North-South and East-West (NS-EW) Corridors are expected to carry majority of the freight traffic on roads. It also envisages development of ring roads / bypasses and elevated corridors to decongest the traffic passing through cities and enhance logistic efficiency. As on Feb 2025 projects covering a total length of 26,425 km have been awarded and out of this, 19,826 km have already been constructed. Further network of 35 Multimodal Logistics Parks is planned to be developed as part of Bharatmala Pariyojana, with a total investment of about Rs 460 billion, which once operational, shall be able to handle around 700 million metric tons of cargo.

There are six key features of the program:

- Economic Corridors: Integrating the economic corridors facilitates larger connectedness between economically important production and consumption centers.
- Inter-corridor and Feeder routes: Inter-corridor connectivity would ensure first mile and last mile connectivity.
- National Corridor Efficiency Improvement: Through this, the greater actionable goal is to undertake lane expansion and decongestion of existing National Corridors.
- Border and International connectivity Roads: Better border road infrastructure would ensure greater manoeuvrability, while also boosting trade with neighbouring countries.

- Coastal and Port connectivity roads: Port led economic development is further boosted through connectivity to coastal areas, encouraging both, tourism and industrial development
- Green-field Expressways: Expressways with higher traffic congestion and choke points would benefit from green field expressways.

The objective of the Bharatmala Pariyojana program is to optimize the efficiency of freight and passenger movement across the country by bridging critical infrastructure gaps through development of Economic Corridors, Inter Corridors and Feeder Routes, National Corridor Efficiency Improvement, Border and International connectivity roads, Coastal and Port connectivity roads and Green-field expressways. Identification of the project stretches under the components of the proposed program is based on detailed Origin-Destination (O-D) study, freight flow projections and verification of the identified infrastructure gaps through geo-mapping.

Bharatmala Phase-I:

Construction of a total length of about 24,800 kms is being taken up under Phase-I of Bharatmala Pariyojana. In addition, Phase-I would also include 9 Bharatmala- optimizing the efficiency of movement about 10,000 kms of residual works of National Highway Development Project (NHDP).

The Public Investment Board (PIB) recommended the proposal during its meeting held on 16 June 2017. Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs (CCEA) approved the Bharatmala Phase-I in October 2017. Total aggregate length of 26,425 km with a total capital cost of ` Rs 8,536.56 billion has been approved and awarded till date under Bharatmala Pariyojana (including 6,758 km length of residual NHDP). No further projects are now being taken up under Bharatmala Pariyojana.

Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana (PMGSY)

The Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana (PMGSY) is a flagship program aimed at providing rural connectivity by constructing all-weather roads to unconnected habitations with a population of 500 persons and above in plain areas, as per the 2001 Census. The program has undergone several phases, with PMGSY-II and PMGSY-III launched in 2013 and 2019, respectively, to upgrade existing rural roads based on their economic potential and role in facilitating rural market centers and hubs. PMGSY-II focused on consolidating 50,000 km of existing rural road networks, while PMGSY-III targeted the construction of 125,000 km of roads.

The Government has recently approved Phase IV of PMGSY, which aims to provide all-weather road connectivity to 25,000 unconnected habitations with a population of 500+ in plain areas, 250+ in North-East and Hill States/UTs, and special category areas, as well as 100+ in Left Wing Extremism (LWE) affected areas. This phase proposes to construct 62,500 km of road length at a cost of Rs 701.25 billion between 2024-25 and 2028-29. 21,815 km have been added during FY25 and 12,708 km in FY26 till January under different PMGSY interventions. As of July, 2026, a total of 8,56,346 km of road length has been sanctioned under various PMGSY interventions, with 7,96,753 km already completed and upgraded.

As of July 2026, progress of each phase is notable, with PMGSY-I achieving a completion rate of 99%, having sanctioned 644,738 km and completed 625,506 km. PMGSY-II has also shown significant progress, with 49,778 km sanctioned and 49,130 km completed. PMGSY-III has completed 122,056 km out of the sanctioned 108,650 km. Overall, the PMGSY has made significant strides in providing rural connectivity, with a substantial portion of the targeted road length already completed and upgraded.

Special Accelerated Road Development Programme for North East (SARDP-NE)

The Special Accelerated Road Development Programme for the North Eastern region (SARDP-NE) is a government initiative launched in 2005 to expedite road construction in the region. The program has three primary objectives: to develop interstate connectivity, to establish access and connectivity to international borders, and to create connectivity to district headquarters from the nearest national highways.

Furthermore, SARDP-NE aims to upgrade national highways connecting state capitals to 2/4 lanes, provide connectivity to district headquarters in the North Eastern Region (NER) with at least 2-lane roads, and improve road connectivity to backward and remote areas to boost socio-economic development. The program also focuses on improving roads of strategic importance in border areas and enhancing connectivity to neighbouring countries.

Under SARDP-NE, a total of 5,468 km of road works have been sanctioned in the Arunachal Package of the North Eastern Region (NER), with a total cost of Rs 635.42 billion. The central government has proposed an allocation of Rs 194.99 billion in the Union Budget 2025-26 for road development in the North Eastern region under the Special Accelerated Road Development Program. The amount of Rs 110.00 billion is earmarked for the Special Accelerated Road Development Program (SARDP) for North-Eastern Areas financed from the National Investment Fund, and Rs 84.99 billion is proposed under SARDP for NER.

The NIF was created in 2005 and receives proceeds from disinvestments of public sector enterprises. The fund is also used to finance the Special Accelerated Road Development Programme in North East (SARDP-NE). In 2026-27, Rs. 183.61 billion is budgeted to be transferred from the NIF. This is 84% higher than the revised estimates for 2025-26. The entire amount will be spent on SARDP-NE

The status of works taken up under SARDP-NE as on November 30, 2025 is as under:

- Key growth drivers and challenges for the road construction sector

Key growth drivers:

Growth driver	Description and reasoning
Road Network Expansion	The Bharatmala Initiative is a crucial part of this effort, which involves executing projects across various categories, including Economic Corridors Development, Inter-corridor and Feeder Routes Development, National Corridors Efficiency Improvement, Border and International Connectivity Roads, Coastal and Port Connectivity Roads, and Expressways. A total of 64,987 km of road length has been identified for execution under this initiative, which will be developed across these categories to enhance the country's road network As per MoSPI – PAIMANA, Number of projects under construction in Roads and Highways are 1,120 as of March 2026 with an estimated cost of INR 10.7 trillion
Road Connectivity expansion in North-East Region	The Central Government has undertaken numerous road and transport infrastructure development projects in the North Eastern Region (NER) through its concerned Ministries and Departments. The region-wise details of National Highway (NH) projects in the Northeastern states, including Assam, Arunachal Pradesh, Nagaland, Manipur, and Tripura, as well as the Bodoland area The length of National Highways (NH) in NER has increased from 10,905 Km in 2014 to 16,207 Km as on March 25 Also in the last 10 years, under Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana (PMGSY), 46,296 Km Rural Roads has been constructed in NER with an expenditure of INR 472.8 billion. The Ministry of Development of North Eastern Region (DoNER) has also sanctioned various projects under the Prime Minister's Development Initiative for North East Region (PM-DevINE), North East Special Infrastructure Development Scheme (NESIDS) – Roads, As of Feb 2026, in NESIDS – Roads a total of 127 projects have been taken and out of which 71 has been completed and 56 is still ongoing.
PM Gati Shakti	PM Gati Shakti is essentially a digital platform to bring 16 Ministries including Railways and Roadways together for integrated planning and coordinated implementation of infrastructure connectivity projects. The multi-modal connectivity will provide integrated and seamless connectivity for movement of people, goods and services from one mode of transport to another. It will facilitate the last mile connectivity of infrastructure and also reduce travel time for people. PM Gati Shakti will incorporate the infrastructure schemes of various Ministries and State Governments like Bharatmala, Sagarmala, inland waterways, dry/land ports, UDAN etc. Economic Zones like textile clusters, pharmaceutical clusters, defence corridors, electronic parks, industrial corridors, fishing clusters, Agri zones will be covered to improve connectivity & make Indian businesses more competitive.
Focus on Rural Road Connectivity	The Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana (PMGSY) has significantly enhanced rural road connectivity. Under this scheme, 819,391 km of road length was sanctioned, out of which 7,87,520 km (95%) has been constructed. As of December 2025, the total expenditure on this initiative stands at Rs. 3,452.88 billions. Further, the launch of Phase IV of PMGSY to provide all-weather connectivity to 25,000 rural habitations, which have become eligible due to population increase. This next phase will continue the momentum of rural infrastructure development, ensuring that more remote areas gain vital road access, thereby fostering economic growth and improving the quality of life for rural populations.

Increased focus on Road and Bridge Maintenance and Safety	The Ministry of Road Transport and Highways allocates Central Road Infrastructure Fund (CRIF) to State Governments and Union Territories for the development and maintenance of State Roads. Currently, 1,209 State Road projects, spanning approximately 14,369 Km and totalling Rs. 370.98 billion, are underway, with completion expected in phases by 2027. To ensure the structural integrity of National Highways and their bridges, the further mandates both visual and equipment-based periodical inspections, evaluations, and monitoring. Structural health monitoring is conducted in real time for critical bridges, and the Indian Bridge Management System (IBMS) has been sanctioned for comprehensive oversight and maintenance of bridges across the entire National Highway network.
National Infrastructure Pipeline (NIP)	NIP outlined in fiscal 2019 by the Government of India had an initial investment target of Rs. 111 trillion over fiscals 2020-25. Subsequently, the target has been revised and it currently stands at Rs. 147 trillion. NIP is expected to drive infrastructure investments as nearly 50% of projects are currently under construction. Engineering, procurement and construction (EPC) dominates mode of implementation of projects as ~72% of the outlined spends come under this mode. Even though capital spending of Rs 147 trillion might not be completed by 2025, Crisil Intelligence expects 70-75% achievement of these outlined spends, which is expected to give a huge boost to the infrastructure of the country.

Key market challenges:

The construction industry occupies a pivotal position in the nation's development plans. As of fiscal 2026, construction sector occupies a share of 9% in the overall GVA. Below are the key risks and threats impacting the industry:

Market challenges	Description
Time contingency	In construction projects, cost savings and timely performance are crucial concerns for all stakeholders, including owners, contractors, and subcontractors. However, projects can be delayed or stalled due to various reasons, such as land unavailability, funding issues, and incomplete clearances. The allocation of risk determines which party, the owner or the contractor, bears the burden of increased costs in the event of project disruptions.
Risks involved in dealing with governmental agencies	In the construction industry, particularly in infrastructure development, many projects involve government authorities as counterparties. These authorities may be central or state governments, or special purpose vehicles established by governments to address specific needs. As a result, companies operating in sectors, where central or state governments, or special purpose vehicles are the primary payers, often face prolonged working capital cycles due to delayed payments.
Climate Change and Extreme Weather Events	Climate change is leading to more frequent and intense natural disasters, which can cause significant damage to construction projects, disrupt supply chains, and impact worker safety. Additionally, changing weather patterns and rising temperatures can also affect the durability and performance of building materials, requiring companies to adapt their designs and materials to mitigate these risks

Labour Shortages	The construction industry is facing a severe shortage of skilled labourers, which can lead to project delays, increased costs, and compromised quality. This shortage is exacerbated by an aging workforce, lack of vocational training, and a decline in interest in construction careers among younger generations
Increase in competition	The construction industry is highly fragmented as low fixed capital requirement for construction contracts. Capital expenditure is only required for procuring necessary equipment, unlike a manufacturing business, which requires plants and machinery for production. This makes the industry less capital-intensive as compared with other industries, encouraging many contractors to enter the sector.
Possibility of payment delays heightens working capital intensity	EPC contracts which are for longer than one year usually come with cost escalation clauses thereby protecting the contractor from rise in raw material costs. However, interest costs from high working capital will continue to impact profitability. The working capital requirement of construction companies is expected to remain high owing to delayed payments in sectors such as irrigation, power and urban infrastructure projects and disputes with clients. This is expected to lead to increased borrowings and thus higher interest cost and liquidity constraints.
Labour and land acquisition	Land is a critical input for infrastructure projects. In the past several projects have been delayed to inability to acquire required land and clearances. Further, construction work involves skilled and unskilled labour. Construction players struggle with wage increases, which can be attributed to labour shortages and rising inflation. Local job opportunities from government welfare schemes, growth in the overall rural economy and migration of labourers to Gulf countries for better prospects are some reasons that have led to a shortage of construction labourers. To solve the labour issue, construction companies are increasing mechanisation, particularly in the highway projects.
Fluctuations in raw material prices	The construction industry is raw material intensive. Any change in prices of raw materials like steel, cement, bitumen, etc impact the cost of the project. However, the impact is limited to the extent of the proportion of fixed price contracts in a company's order book. Some construction companies also own quarries to ensure constant raw material supply. In the recent times, in fiscal 2024, despite drop in prices for steel , prices for cement and bitumen have been fluctuating and had reached its all-time high. Hence, prices of all three raw materials remain a key monitorable for the sector.

Assessment of Power sector in India

- Overview of construction spends in Indian power sector
- Power construction capex to grow 13-15% in FY26 led by push from renewables and T&D

According to Crisil Intelligence, construction spending in the power sector is estimated to have surged by approximately 38% in FY26E, driven by a significant ramp-up in renewable energy capacity additions. The renewable energy sector is projected to record a robust CAGR of around 27% between FY25 and FY28, taking installed capacity to nearly 319 GW. This growth underscores India's accelerating transition towards cleaner energy sources, supported by favourable policy initiatives and continued investments in renewable infrastructure. Going forward, construction spending is expected to moderate to a CAGR of approximately 10–11% during FY27–FY28, as investment intensity is likely to normalize following substantial capacity additions in FY26.

However, it's important to note that the construction intensity in the renewable energy sector is lower compared to that in the conventional energy sector. Renewable energy projects, such as solar and wind farms, typically require less intensive construction efforts and shorter project timelines compared to conventional energy projects, such as coal-fired power plants, which involve more complex and extensive construction processes.

In contrast, the conventional energy sector, particularly in the coal segment, has seen slower capacity additions in recent years. This trend is shifting as the government has recently focused more attention on expanding coal capacity. These new additions are expected to be primarily government-led initiatives aimed at meeting base load requirements, ensuring a stable and reliable energy supply as the country continues to develop. This renewed focus on coal capacity highlights the balancing act between advancing renewable energy and maintaining sufficient conventional energy capacity to support the nation's energy needs.

Note(s): A: Actual, P: Projected

- Investments in Indian power sector

Share of green investments set to rise to ~60% between fiscal 2026-2030 from ~40% between fiscal 2021-2025

Crisil Intelligence projects investments of Rs 37-41 trillion in the power sector between fiscal 2027-2031. Investments in power generation are expected to increase ~2.5 times from Rs 11 - 13 trillion between fiscals 2022-2026 to Rs 29-31 trillion between fiscals 2027-2031. Investments in renewable energy (excluding hydro, pumped storage and BESS) generation capacity are expected to account for 54% of these investments over the same period as India seeks to achieve its 500 GW of non-fossil energy capacity announced in COP26.

To achieve the RE generation target, strong transmission infrastructure is needed so as to integrate large scale RE capacity into the grid. This is expected to lead to transmission investments of Rs. 4-5 trillion between fiscals 2027-2031 from ~Rs. 2-3 trillion between fiscals 2022-2026 led by upcoming ISTS and InSTS projects.

Additionally, we expect Rs. 4-5 trillion worth of investments in the distribution segment between fiscal 2027-2031 driven by upgradation of distribution infrastructure along with installation of smart meters as India focuses on reduction of its carbon emission.

Investments in generation to be driven by renewable capacity additions between fiscal 2027-2031

Over the next five years, investments in generation will be led by renewable energy (excluding hydro and storage) capacity additions, followed by investments in conventional generation, indicating a shift in investment flow towards enhancing clean energy supply. Capacity addition from RE sources is expected to be 260-270 GW over fiscals 2027 to 2031, and 35-40 GW from coal-based plants sources over the same period. Investments in RE capacity (excluding hydro and storage), will constitute 52-57% of overall generation investments. Total generation investments are expected to grow ~2.5x over fiscals 2027 to 2031 compared with fiscals 2022 to 2026.

With the introduction of tariff-based competitive bidding (TBCB) in 2006 and anticipated healthy return profile, large private conglomerates invested heavily in generation projects. Capacity additions in the private sector were led by players such as Tata Power, Adani Power, Sterlite Energy, KSK Mahanadi and Lanco Infratech. Lack of adequate long-term power purchase agreements and stretched financials of private developers led to a slowdown in capacity additions and restricted private investments in the generation space until fiscal 2024. However, due to growing importance of coal for servicing baseload power demand along with government support, there has been renewed interest from private players to add coal capacity. As a result, private players are expected to add ~65% of the 35-40 GW of coal additions between fiscal 2027-2031 resulting in higher investment from the sector followed by central and state sector.

Renewable energy evacuation, ISTS network expansion and upgradation to boost investment in transmission

To service a large generation installed base, the estimated investment in the transmission sector is expected to cumulatively reach Rs. 4-5 trillion over fiscals 2027-2031. Investments in the sector are expected to be driven by the need for a robust and reliable transmission system to support continued generation additions and the strong push to the renewable energy sector as well as rural electrification.

State transmission companies such as GETCO have allocated ~ 85% of its planned capital expenditure for new projects such as installation of EHV S/s & associated lines with downstream and 66 kV S/s with associated lines. The remaining 15% is allocated for repair and maintenance (R&M) and augmentation activities. State transmission companies and the state electricity commission look at several factors such as additional transmission system requirement from seasonal/quarterly load and generation variations that the state will face in the future to estimate investment required in the future.

Delays in transmission projects are resulting in significant cost overruns, with capital expenditures exceeding initial forecasts. A case in point is Karnataka Power Transmission Company Limited (KPTCL), which saw a 34% increase in actual capital expenditure in fiscal 2024 compared to the estimated amount. The main contributors to this increase were Right of Way (RoW) issues and higher land acquisition costs, as well as rising material and labor costs due to revised IEEMA rates and CPI inflation.

Distribution investments to be aided by Revamped Distribution Sector Scheme (RDSS) spending

Between fiscal 2027-2031, Crisil Intelligence estimates investment by state power distribution companies to be stable at 4-5 trillion. This comes on the back of higher focus on improvement of financial condition of the discoms by reducing technical & commercial losses. Facilitating renewable energy integration through modern distribution infrastructure and improved infrastructure resulting in reduced carbon emissions through optimized and efficient energy use are also expected to contribute to India's Net Zero goal by 2070.

For example, the four state distribution companies operating in Gujarat are expected to see a 74% increase in capital expenditure allocated for normal development for the period between fiscal 2026-2030 vis a vis fiscal 2021-2025. This includes work related to new connections, shifting of network and extension/modification of existing connections. Additionally, the state is also expected to see ~192% increase in capital expenditure for system improvement schemes for the period between fiscal 2026-2030 vis a vis fiscal 2021-2025. This includes various activities such as bifurcation of feeders, overhead to underground cable conversion, new link line work, H.T. Aerial bunch conductor, replacement of deteriorated conductor, L.T. Aerial bunch conductor and distribution transformer review.

Overview of power generation capacity in India

Renewable energy to account for ~50% of India's installed capacity by fiscal 2030

Total power generation capacity (in GW) in India

Note: A: Actual P: Projected

Source: NEP, CEA, Crisil Intelligence

India's installed power generation capacity reached a total of 543 GW as of June 2026. Within this overall capacity, coal-based power plants accounted for ~252 GW, of the national capacity mix. Renewable energy sources, including solar, wind, and other non-fossil options, contributed 283 GW.

India's installed generation capacity, which stood at 382 GW at the end of fiscal 2021 reached 475 GW in fiscal 2025 on the back of healthy renewable capacity additions (including solar, wind, hybrid, and other renewable sources) even as additions in coal and other fuels have moderated compared to previous years. As per NEP, Renewable installed base is expected to reach 596 GW by fiscal 2032 on the back of strong renewable capacity additions over fiscals 2027-31. By fiscal 2032, RE capacity is expected to account for 66% of the installed base of 900 GW. As the country shifts its focus away from fossil generation, coal's share in installed base is estimated to decline to ~35% by fiscal 2032. Other fossil fuels (including lignite, gas, and diesel) are expected to remain stagnant due to negligible capacity addition. Crisil Intelligence estimates India will achieve its Panchamrit target of to reach 500GW non-fossil energy capacity by 2030 as the estimated installed non fossil capacity will reach 530-540 GW by fiscal 2030. Growing need for energy storage systems is expected to further drive capacity additions of PSP and BESS over the next 5 years. Storage installed capacity, which includes PSP and BESS is expected to reach 50-55 GW by fiscal 2031.

- Overview of power demand in India

Power demand to maintain healthy momentum slated to grow at 5-7% CAGR over fiscals 2027-2031

Power demand is estimated to rise by 5.5-6.5% on year in fiscal 2027 to 1,815-1,825 BU. This is expected to come on the back of higher temperatures and lower rainfall due to the expected arrival of El-Nino, July 2026 onwards resulting in rise in cooling demand.

Additionally, power demand is closely linked to GDP growth where historically power consumption largely follows economic cycles. In fiscal 2027, GDP is estimated to increase by 6.7% with support from healthy consumption, a supportive monetary policy, the US-India trade deal, and mild pick-up in private investment. The revised tax slabs as well as the increased tax rebate limit have been maintained in fiscal 2027 budget, continuing to support consumption.

In fiscal 2026, Crisil Intelligence estimates power demand to increase by 1-1.5% on year to 1,705-1,715 BU. Steady economic performance, increasing disposable income are expected to be key drivers, while weather vagaries limited power demand growth in the fiscal.

Power demand across years

Source: CEA, Crisil Intelligence

Note: P: Projected,

The demand for electricity in India is expected to be driven by various sectors, including industrial, commercial, and domestic. The industrial and commercial sectors are expected to be the primary drivers of power demand, with significant investments in manufacturing, infrastructure development, and policies like the Production-Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme. The government's Aatmanirbhar Bharat relief package, spending on infrastructure through the National Infrastructure Pipeline, and commissioning of dedicated freight corridors are also expected to foster power demand. Additionally, the expansion of the services industry, rapid urbanization, and increased farm income from agriculture-related reforms will contribute to the growth in power demand.

The domestic sector is also expected to see a rise in electricity consumption due to improving living standards, increased air conditioning requirements, and government schemes like the Pradhan Mantri Sahaj Bijli Har Ghar Yojana, which has achieved universal household electrification. The scheme has helped electrify 28.6 million households, driving electricity demand and aiming to ensure 24x7 power supply to separate agriculture and non-agriculture feeders. Further, railway electrification, rapid transition to electric vehicles, increased urbanization, and industrialization, smart city projects, and upcoming metro projects are expected to provide impetus to power demand.

Long term growth to come from industrial push and temperature vagaries

Industrial and commercial consumers are the largest consumers of electricity in absolute terms. Going forward, India's economy is expected to continue to expand beyond fiscal 2022, with industrial activity gradually picking up over the medium term. Trickle-down effect of Aatmanirbhar Bharat relief package, government spending on infrastructure through the National Infrastructure Pipeline, commissioning of the dedicated freight corridors, expansion of the services industry, rapid urbanization, and increased farm income from agriculture-related reforms are key macroeconomic factors fostering the power demand. Significant policy initiatives such as PLI schemes and low corporate tax rates, among others have aided large scale manufacturing in India which will further boost power demand in the country. In fact, several sectors including automobiles, mobile handsets and tablets, solar, lithium-ion batteries, food & beverages and defence are expected to witness fresh investments including foreign direct investments from global majors.

Further, railway electrification, rapid transition to EVs, increased urbanisation and Industrialisation, smart city projects, upcoming metro projects primary tailwinds providing impetus to power demand. A confluence of these factors is expected to drive energy sales to the industrial and commercial consumer segment.

India's power demand is expected to rise on the back of population growth, rapid urbanization, more electricity connections, and 24x7 supply initiatives, alongside higher cooling needs from intensifying heatwaves that will lift peak demand. On the industrial side, PLI-led manufacturing expansion - including electricity-intensive segments such as semiconductors and batteries- new FTAs, and a growing data-center footprint are likely to accelerate consumption, while new offices and real estate investments should support demand in highly commercialized states such as Tamil Nadu and Karnataka and broader industrial activity in states like Haryana, Punjab, Gujarat, and Tamil Nadu. Additionally, state subsidies/free power for households and agriculture (e.g., free power for farmers in Maharashtra) and infrastructure electrification (railways and metro projects) are expected to further add to demand.

Industrial and commercial

Industrial power demand is estimated to grow by 2-3% on year in fiscal 2026 on the back of sustained growth in real GDP of 6.7% on year. This outlook is supported by healthy consumption, a supportive monetary policy, the US-India trade deal, a mild increase in private investment, and low crude oil prices.

As per government estimates, India is set to become the world's third-largest economy with a projected GDP of $7.3 trillion, consequently, aiding power demand from industrial sector.

Domestic

In fiscal 2026, domestic power demand is projected to grow by 0–1% on year, as above-normal rainfall in the first half of the year likely reduced the need for cooling. Crisil Intelligence estimates temperature fluctuations will remain a key factor for this segment, with recent cold waves in north India increasing heating requirements and, consequently, power consumption.

Climate change led to warmer temperature having led to surge in cooling demand with Crisil Intelligence estimating sales of air conditioning (residential) to surge by 9-11% CAGR between fiscal 2025-2030 and penetration increasing to 17-19% from the current penetration level of ~13% as of fiscal 2025.

The Draft National Electricity Policy aims to increase per capita consumption from 1,500 units to 2,000 units by 2030. Additionally, state initiatives like the Gruha Jyoti Yojana by the Karnataka Government, which offers free electricity up to 200 units to domestic consumers is estimated to boost power demand in the future.

Agriculture

Power demand from the agriculture sector is expected to witness 1.5-2.5% growth on-year in fiscal 2026 driven by lower irrigation requirement on account of above normal monsoon in H1 fiscal 2026.

In fiscal 2025, demand from the sector is estimated to have increased by 4.7% on year driven by higher than normal temperatures leading to higher irrigation requirement. On the other hand, above normal south west monsoon is estimated to have been a headwind for irrigation usage. For example, the agriculture-dominated states of Madhya Pradesh in western India and Rajasthan in North India led the dip in demand with on-year declines of ~13% and ~25%, respectively in August 2024. These states had witnessed excess rainfall in August 2024 (~14% and ~44% above average in Madhya Pradesh and Rajasthan, respectively), which most likely drove down power demand for irrigation. Another key agriculture state, Bihar, bucked the trend as it saw demand increase ~2% on-year in August. This could be attributed to district-level rainfall and irrigation needs. For example, Rohtas, a key paddy growing district, experienced ~30% deficit in rainfall on an average in August, which would have likely increased demand for irrigation.

In the medium term, reduced power cuts are expected to drive demand however the segregation of agricultural and non-agricultural feeders and solarization of distribution feeders (installation of small-sized grid connected solar power plants in rural areas to compliment grid power and extend supply hours to agricultural consumers) are expected to limit agricultural power demand. Further, agricultural feeder segregation and network strengthening in rural areas is expected to lower AT&C losses, which currently plagues the agriculture segment.

- Key budgetary allocation for the power sector

Policies and initiatives of Indian government to boost power sector in India

The Government of India implemented multiple initiatives aimed at ensuring uninterrupted power supply to every household since 2014. Under the Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Gram Jyoti Yojana (DDUGJY), Integrated Power Development Scheme (IPDS) introduced in 2014, and the Pradhan Mantri Sahaj Bijli Har Ghar Yojana (SAUBHAGYA), introduced in 2017, about Rs 1850 billion has been invested to boost distribution infrastructure across various states. Consequently, 18,374 villages have been electrified under DDUGJY, and 29 million households have gained access to electricity through SAUBHAGYA

Revamped Distribution Sector Scheme (RDSS)

Budgetary allocation towards RLDS increased 15% to Rs 180.00 billion vis-a-vis ~Rs 156.7 billion as per the revised estimates for this fiscal. This scheme targets improving operational efficiency through infrastructural upgrades for electrical equipment and rolling out smart metering across consumer categories. However, implementation has been slow given its large scale, which has led to the sunset date being extended from March 2026 to March 2028; hence, the high allocations in fiscal 2027. As of December 2025, total central grant released under the scheme was ~Rs 370.00 billion, accounting for ~38% of the total sanctioned gross budgetary support. The RDSS is a result-linked evaluation scheme, where DISCOMs must meet the pre-qualifying criteria every year to be eligible for funds under the scheme. Upon the launch of RDSS scheme in 2021, the ongoing projects under IPDS and DDUGY have been subsumed under RDSS.

The primary objective of this scheme is to significantly enhance the quality, reliability, and affordability of power supply to consumers by fostering a financially sustainable and operationally efficient distribution sector.

The RDSS has two major components

- Part A: Financial support for prepaid smart metering and system metering, and upgradation of distribution infrastructure.
- Part B: Training and capacity building, and other enabling and supporting activities

Features under RDSS:

The RDSS allows discoms to access funds under the scheme for prepaid smart metering, system metering, and distribution infrastructure works aimed at loss reduction and modernisation. Financial assistance for distribution infrastructure works is subject to pre-qualifying criteria and minimum benchmarks set for discoms, evaluated based on action plans designed to incentivise fiscally prudent behaviour.

The scheme provides for an annual appraisal of discom performance against predefined and agreed-upon performance trajectories, including AT&C losses, ACS-ARR gaps, infrastructure upgrades, consumer services, hours of supply, and corporate governance. Discoms must score at least 60% and meet minimum thresholds for key parameters to remain eligible for funding under the scheme in any given year.

The implementation of the scheme aims to empower consumers through prepaid smart metering, which will be executed in a public-private partnership (PPP) mode, leveraging artificial intelligence to analyse data generated through IT/OT devices. The plan includes system meters and prepaid smart meters to generate system-based energy accounting reports each month, enabling discoms to make informed decisions on loss reduction, demand forecasting, time-of-day (ToD) tariffs, RE integration, and other predictive analyses.

Another key focus area of the RDSS is improving electricity supply for farmers by separating agricultural feeders and ensuring daytime electricity supply through convergence with the Pradhan Mantri Kisan Urja Suraksha evam Utthan Mahabhiyan (PM-KUSUM) scheme for the solarisation of agricultural feeders.

Achievements under RDSS scheme:

Under RDSS, smart metering works have been sanctioned for 45 distribution utilities in 28 States/ UTs. This covers smart metering of 197.9 million consumers, 5.3 million Distribution Transformers and 0.21 million feeders. As on July 2026, 128.6 million smart meters have been installed under the scheme, with awarded cost of INR 1,320.7 billion. In addition, smart meters have been installed by States under their State plans/ other schemes.

Integrated Power Development Scheme (IPDS)

It aims to enhance the transmission and distribution networks throughout India. The scheme focuses on reducing AT&C losses, implementing IT-enabled energy accounting and auditing systems, improving billed energy based on metered consumption, and enhancing collection efficiency. The scheme primarily focuses on urban areas, including the strengthening of sub-transmission and distribution networks, provision of solar panels on government buildings, metering of feeders, distribution transformers, and consumers, as well as IT enablement of the distribution sector. IPDS projects after this has been included under RDSS scheme.

Battery energy storage systems (BESS):

The Viability Gap Funding (VGF) scheme was introduced by the Ministry of Power to further promote cost-effective, long-duration energy storage and renewable energy integration during peak grid hours. The first tranche, approved in March 2024, carried a total outlay of Rs 94.0 billion, including Rs 37.60 billion of budgetary support to enable the installation of 13,220 MWh of BESS capacity, with central assistance capped at up to 30% of capital cost or Rs. 2.7 million per MWh, whichever was lower. The second tranche was launched in June 2025 to support an additional 30 GWh of BESS capacity with Rs 54.0 billion of financial support, which is expected to accelerate BESS deployment particularly for stationary storage and reinforce the trend of new power tenders being designed with storage components. As per March 2026 the total Battery Energy Storage Systems in India (>1 MWh capacity) are 798 with Bihar having more than 282 storage systems.

North Eastern Region Power System Improvement Project (NERPSIP)

In December 2014, the Government of India launched the NERPSIP to strengthen the intra-state transmission and distribution systems in six states: Assam, Manipur, Meghalaya, Mizoram, Tripura, and Nagaland. It was initiated to address the region's power infrastructure challenges, which had hindered economic growth and development. The project aimed to enhance the reliability, efficiency, and sustainability of the power supply in the region, ultimately improving the quality of life for its inhabitants.

A number of Hydro Electric Projects with a total installed capacity of 5,796 MW have been taken up in NER. The major projects include Subansiri Lower (2000MW), Dibang Multi-Purpose project (2880 MW), Teesta Stage VI (500 MW) etc. Under the NER Power System Improvement Project for six States (Assam, Manipur, Meghalaya, Mizoram, Tripura and Nagaland) for strengthening of the Intra-State Transmission and Distribution Systems (33kV and above) at an estimated cost of INR 67 billion.

Scheme for strengthening of Transmission & Distribution in Arunachal Pradesh and Sikkim

In October 2014, the Government of India approved a comprehensive scheme to strengthen the transmission and distribution systems in Arunachal Pradesh and Sikkim. The initial estimated cost of the project was Rs 47.54 billion, with a completion timeline of December 2018. However, the project's cost has been revised to Rs 91.29 billion as of March 2026, with a revised completion timeline for the awarded scope of work (204 elements) and additional timeline for the unawarded packages (88 elements).

Green Energy Corridor:

The Green Energy Corridor (GEC) is a transmission infrastructure project aimed at evacuating and transmitting power from large-scale solar and wind power plants in India. The project was initiated in 2012 by the Power Grid Corporation of India Limited (PGCIL), which conducted a study to identify the need for dedicated transmission infrastructure for renewable energy (RE) sources. The study found that the power evacuation and transmission infrastructure in the vicinity of potential RE sites was inadequate, leading to the planning of dedicated transmission infrastructure for large-scale solar and wind power plants. The objective of the GEC project is to ensure the smooth integration of RE into the national grid by providing accurate forecasting, real-time monitoring, and efficient scheduling of RE.

Key Characteristics

The GEC project comprises of both Inter-State Transmission System (ISTS) and Intra-State Transmission System (InSTS), along with the establishment of Renewable Energy Management Centres (REMCs) and other control supporting infrastructure such as reactive power compensation and energy storage systems. The REMCs are installed at various locations, including the Southern Region, which includes states such as Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh, and Karnataka, the Western Region, which includes states such as Gujarat, Maharashtra, and Madhya Pradesh, and the North Region, which includes states such as Rajasthan and Delhi. These REMCs provide accurate forecasting, real-time monitoring, and efficient scheduling of RE to ensure the smooth integration of RE into the national grid. The key features of the GEC project include the evacuation of approximately 24 GW of RE power, the setting up of transmission lines and substations, and the establishment of REMCs.

The government reaffirmed its commitment to facilitating renewable energy integration by allocating Rs. 6.0 billion in the budgetary estimates for the GEC in the next fiscal. The funding has been earmarked for the development of cumulative 6,000 km of intra-state transmission infrastructure. The proposed expansion is expected to strengthen grid capacity and improve evacuation of renewable power.

Phase 1: Intra-State Transmission System Green Energy Corridor Phase-I and Inter-State Transmission System

The first phase of the GEC project includes the Intra-State Transmission System Green Energy Corridor Phase-I, which was approved by the Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs (CCEA) in 2015. The project has a total target of 9700 ckm of intra-state transmission lines and 22600 MVA sub-stations and is being implemented by State Transmission Utilities (STUs) in 8 RE-rich states, including Andhra Pradesh, Gujarat, Himachal Pradesh, Karnataka, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Rajasthan, and Tamil Nadu. The project cost is approximately Rs. 101.42 billion, with funding from the Ministry of New and Renewable Energy (MNRE), KfW, and the STUs.

GEC Phase-I has been completed in State of Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan, Tamil Nadu and Karnataka. Completion date for GEC Phase-I for States of Andhra Pradesh, Himachal Pradesh, Maharashtra is December 2024 and for State of Gujarat is March 2025. The projects have been delayed mainly due to delay in land acquisition, Right of Way (RoW) issues and forest clearances.

The Inter-State Transmission System (ISTS) GEC project, which was commissioned in March 2020, has a total of 3200 ckm of inter-state transmission lines and 17000 MVA substations, and was implemented by PGCIL at a cost of Rs. 113.69 billion. Some of the key points of this phase include:

Phase 2: Intra-State Transmission System Green Energy Corridor Phase-II and Inter-State Green Energy Corridor Phase-II

The InSTS GEC-II scheme with total target of 10,750 ckm intra-state transmission lines and 27,500 MVA sub-stations was approved by the CCEA in January 2022.

The project cost is Rs. 120.31 billion with central financial assistance from MNRE of Rs. 39.70 billion (i.e. 33% of project cost). The balance 67% of the project cost is available as loan from KfW/REC/PFC. The transmission schemes would be implemented by the State Transmission Utilities (STUs) of seven states, i.e. Gujarat, Himachal Pradesh, Karnataka, Kerala, Rajasthan, Tamil Nadu and Uttar Pradesh for evacuation of approx. 20 GW of RE power in the seven States. Currently, the STUs are inviting tenders for implementing the projects. The scheduled commissioning timeline for the projects under this scheme is March 2026. Subsequently, some states had requested for revision of projects under the GEC-II Scheme and the same has been approved by MNRE.

Key growth drivers and challenges in the power sector

Key growth drivers:

Growth drivers	Description
Government push towards reducing coal imports	At present, India depends on coal imports along with its domestic production to meet the power demand in the country. In order to reduce the dependence on imports, the government is planning to increase the domestic coal production aiming to increase availability and reduce dependence on imported coal. This would lead to infrastructure growth, in turn boosting the EPC segment
Increase focus on renewable energy	- To achieve its ambitious target of 500 GW of renewable energy capacity by 2030, the Indian government has introduced the Green Energy Corridor (GEC) scheme, which aims to integrate electricity generated from renewable sources like wind and solar into the conventional power grid - Under GEC Phase 1, 24 GW of renewable energy has been integrated into the grid by 2023, with an additional 19.43 GW planned in GEC phase 2 at a cost of Rs. 120.3 billion

		As of Feb 2026, India's national power transmission network has achieved a significant milestone, crossing over 5 lakh circuit kilometres (ckm) of transmission lines (220 kV and above) along with 1,407 GVA of transformation capacity (220 kV and above).
Development of T&D infrastructure		In December 2023, CEA notified the draft National Electricity Plan (Volume II). The tentative transmission line and capacity addition as per the draft NEP is estimated to increase by ~1.2 times to 580,293 ckm by fiscal 2027 from 485,544 ckm in fiscal 2024. Similarly, transmission line capacity is expected to increase to 685,293 ckm by fiscal 2032 while the substation capacity is expected to rise by ~1.3 times. This will aid the growth of projects in EPC segment of transmission and distribution.
Rising power demand		Power demand is directly linked to GDP. With rising India's GDP coupled with other factors such as urbanisation, rise in population, rise in industrial output the power demand is expected to see a growth of peak demand of 6-8% between fiscal 2026 and 2031. In order to meet the rising demand, the power sector is expected to see a capacity addition from 543 GW in fiscal 2026 to ~900 GW by fiscal 2022. This addition of capacities will further aid the construction under power of EPC industry.
Technological advancements		- The National Electricity Plan (2022-2032) recommends the adoption of cutting-edge technologies in substations, transmission lines, and communication systems, as well as the use of advanced surveying tools and robust cybersecurity measures. - The integration of these modern technologies is expected to enhance the efficiency and reliability of the transmission network, while also attracting new investments in the sector, supporting both new projects and the upgrade of existing infrastructure
Increase in cross border power transfer		- India's central location in South Asia has sparked regional energy cooperation, with the Ministry of Power introducing guidelines for cross-border electricity trade in 2018 to facilitate imports and exports with neighboring countries. - Multiple transmission projects are planned or underway, including lines connecting India to Nepal, Myanmar, and others, while the "One Sun One World One Grid" (OSOWOG) initiative is under discussion to create a global renewable energy grid, potentially interconnecting with countries like Maldives, Singapore, UAE, and Saudi Arabia. - Once completed, these initiatives will further boost India's transmission infrastructure, attracting new investments and driving growth in the sector.

Key market challenges:

Market challenges		Description
InSTS infrastructure lag in investment		- While there has been good progress in developing Inter-State Transmission Systems (ISTS) in recent years, Intra-State Transmission Systems (InSTS) remain a concern. - The lack of adequate transmission infrastructure within states can lead to congestion, power shortages, and reduced grid reliability, ultimately affecting the overall efficiency of the power system
Right of Way (RoW) Issues		The acquisition of land and securing RoW for transmission lines has become a significant challenge, resulting in delayed project timelines and increased costs.

	According to the CEA monthly progress report for February 2025, over 50% of ISTS projects awarded under the TBCB route have cited right-of-way issues as the primary reason for project delays
Additional time taken in environmental clearances	- The process of obtaining environmental clearance for transmission lines that traverse forest areas is also causing delays in project timelines, ultimately leading to increased costs. - As per the CEA monthly progress report, over 30% of the projects are facing challenges related to forest and wildlife clearance, highlighting the significance of this issue in hindering project progress
Synchronous Commissioning (SCOD) Issues	- The synchronized commissioning of multiple projects is essential to ensure that the transmission infrastructure is ready to evacuate power from generating stations in a timely and efficient manner. - Delays in one project can trigger a ripple effect, impacting connected projects and leading to a cascade of delays and inefficiencies, ultimately hindering the overall progress of the transmission infrastructure development.

OVERVIEW

We are a multidisciplinary public infrastructure development company engaged in the execution of turnkey Engineering, Procurement and Construction (“EPC”) contracts. We operate across various infrastructure segments, including Water & Wastewater Infrastructure such as Water Supply Scheme Projects (“WSSPs”), Sewerage Networks, Sewerage Treatment Plants (“STPs”), Wastewater Treatment Plants (“WWTPs”), Transmission mains, Reservoirs, Trenchless & Micro tunnelling Works, Roads and Highways work, Electrical Transmission work, Urban Infrastructure which includes sector-level planning and execution of residential building projects and Operation and Maintenance (“O&M”) of public utilities. We execute projects primarily for state governments and government agencies across Northern & Central India, including Uttar Pradesh, Uttarakhand, Rajasthan and the National Capital Territory of Delhi. Recently, we have expanded our footprint in the State of Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and Odisha.

Our project execution model is predominantly tender-based, with contracts awarded by state agencies, public works departments, urban local bodies, and other government bodies. We operate across multiple project locations and operate through dedicated site teams aligned with the nature and geography of individual contracts.

Incorporated in the year 1998, our Company commenced its operations in Uttar Pradesh with residential and road construction projects, including the development of planned housing colonies, sector-level layouts, and execution of road construction, widening and strengthening works under Public Works Departments (“PWD”) and National Highways programs. These early projects laid the foundation for our subsequent diversification into wastewater management and other public utility infrastructure.

We have executed projects under key central and state-sponsored schemes including the Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation (“AMRUT”), Jawaharlal Nehru National Urban Renewal Mission (“JNNURM”), Urban Infrastructure Development Scheme in Satellite Towns (“UIDSSST”), Namami Gange Programme (“Namami Gange”), Jal Jeevan Mission (“JJM”), and Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana (“PMGSY”). We also have experience in implementing infrastructure project funded by Asian Development Bank (“ADB”), which require compliance with rigorous technical and environmental standards.

Our integrated in-house capabilities span civil project designing, construction, mechanical and electrical integration, and commissioning. These enable us to offer comprehensive infrastructure solutions from concept to delivery. Additionally, we support long-term asset sustainability through our operations and maintenance (“O&M”) services across WWTP, STP and road projects, reinforcing our lifecycle approach to public infrastructure.

Our growth and strategic direction has significantly benefited from the leadership of our Managing Director, Mr. Sanjay Tyagi, who joined our Company in April 2007. His professional journey began at the Ghaziabad Development Authority, where he served as an Engineer from January 1990 to March 2007. His expertise in civil engineering and infrastructure development, combined with his extensive experience in government contract procurement and execution, has been crucial to our Company's success. He is responsible for our Company's operations including, procurement, strategic planning, project execution oversight, quality control, and project delivery, ensuring successful project execution and that the company maintains its high standards of performance. Under his guidance, we diversified into specialized EPC segments, notably entering wastewater treatment infrastructure through our strategic partnership in M/s Ultratech Engineers, a multi-party partnership firm instituted pursuant to a deed executed in March 2009 (with effect from January 25, 2009), which was subsequently acquired by our Company pursuant to a business transfer agreement dated June 02, 2016. This partnership was instrumental in enhancing our technical capabilities and allowed us to qualify for larger and complex infrastructure tenders.

Key Milestones in the growth and evolution of our Company since its incorporation

Our Company has followed a growth trajectory since its incorporation, marked by diversification across core infrastructure sectors. In the early 2000s, we established a presence in the road construction segment by securing projects from various government bodies such as the National Highway Division – PWD Uttar Pradesh (“PWD UP”), Noida Authority, and Ghaziabad Development Authority.

In the year 2007, we achieved a key operational benchmark by crossing an annual turnover of ₹450 million.

In the year 2008, we entered into a partnership with M/s Krishna Contractors pursuant to a deed dated August 01, 2008, under the trade name and style of “M/s Krishna-TCPL (JV)” to undertake the assignments related to EPC; this partnership was subsequently dissolved with effect from December 31, 2024.

In the year 2009, we further expanded our capabilities by entering the wastewater treatment segment through the formation of M/s Ultratech Engineers, a strategic multi-party partnership that enabled us to participate in government contracts in the wastewater infrastructure space.

In the year 2012, we diversified into the Electrical Transmission work with contracts awarded by Paschimanchal Vidyut Vitaran Nigam Limited (“PVVNL”) and Dakshinanchal Vidyut Vitaran Nigam Limited (“DVVNL”), collectively valued at approximately ₹891.4 million. The following year, i.e. financial year 2013, we achieved an annual turnover exceeding ₹1,000 million and secured contracts for the construction of 33/11 kV substations from PVVNL.

In the year 2016, we acquired the ongoing business of M/s Ultratech Engineers pursuant to a business transfer agreement dated June 02, 2016, including all assets, liabilities, work orders, and contractual rights of the partnership firm, which had been engaged in executing government infrastructure contracts. This acquisition strengthened our technical capabilities in the wastewater treatment segment and enhanced our eligibility for larger-scale public infrastructure projects.

Our geographic footprint expanded in the year 2017 with securing an Asian Development Bank-funded sewerage network project in Udaipur, Rajasthan, having a contract value of approximately ₹828.10 million (as per the Letter of Acceptance) which also included a 10 year O&M component. This project marked our entry into the execution of infrastructure projects funded by multilateral agencies.

In the year 2022, we entered into a joint venture arrangement under the trade name ‘TESPL-LRS-TCPL JV’ pursuant to an agreement dated June 10, 2022, with Trenchless Engineering Services Private Limited and L.R. Sharma & Co., for the purpose of bidding for a Delhi Jal Board project involving the replacement of transmission mains by micro-tunnelling across the Shahdara, Greater Kailash, and Jal Vihar zones. The joint venture was subsequently constituted as a partnership firm pursuant to a partnership deed executed on May 25, 2023, for execution of the awarded project.

In the year 2023, we achieved an annual turnover exceeding ₹1,750 million and secured two AMRUT 2.0 projects in Kota and Bikaner, having an aggregate contract value of approximately ₹4,734.40 million, awarded by Rajasthan Urban Drinking Water Sewerage & Infrastructure Corporation (“RUDSICO”) which also included an O&M component. Our Company was also awarded a wastewater infrastructure project in Kotputli, Rajasthan, valued at approximately ₹1,558.64 million.

In the year 2024, we achieved an annual turnover exceeding ₹2,250 million, reflecting our continued expansion and execution capabilities in the infrastructure sector.

In the year 2025, we achieved an annual turnover exceeding ₹2,700 million, demonstrating continued growth in our operations. We were also awarded a road widening and strengthening project under the Public Works Department, Uttar Pradesh (“PWD UP”), valued approximately ₹665 million in the same year.

In the year 2026, we achieved an annual turnover exceeding ₹3,400 million and the Company has expanded its footprint in the State of Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and Odisha.

SEGMENTS OF OUR BUSINESS OPERATIONS

1. Water & Wastewater Infrastructure:

- Wastewater Treatment and Sewerage Network Projects (WWTs)

Our Company functions as a turnkey executor for sewerage network and wastewater treatment infrastructure, offering end-to-end solutions that support sustainable urban water management. Our operations in this segment begin with the design and implementation of comprehensive sewerage networks, where we lay pipelines of various materials, including High-Density Polyethylene (HDPE), Reinforced Cement Concrete (RCC), Mild Steel (MS), Asbestos Cement Mazza (AC Mazza), Double Wall Corrugated (DWC), and Unplasticized Polyvinyl Chloride (UPVC). These pipelines, with diameters ranging from 120 mm to 1600 mm, are engineered to ensure efficient wastewater conveyance while minimizing the risk of blockage through the achievement of self-cleaning velocities.

The process of laying sewer pipelines involves systematic excavation, precise installation of pipelines, construction of house connection chambers, and complete restoration of affected roads. Once installed, the network connects urban households to centralized sewer systems, supporting the effective transportation of sewage to treatment facilities.

As part of our service offering, we also undertake the design and construction of STPs, utilizing technologies such as Sequential Batch Reactor (SBR) and Upflow Anaerobic Sludge Blanket (UASB). These treatment systems are built in accordance with effluent quality norms prescribed by the National Green Tribunal and the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change. The treated effluent is suitable for non-potable applications such as horticulture, vehicle washing, and industrial cooling.

Following the completion of construction activities, our Company is also responsible for the long-term operation and maintenance of the developed assets, including STPs and SPSs. These O&M responsibilities are typically mandated for a period of up to 5-15 years and include monitoring of system performance, regular maintenance of pipelines and machinery, and ensuring uninterrupted operation in line with performance and discharge standards. This integrated approach enhances asset longevity and reliability of service delivery to the end-users.

- Water Supply Scheme Projects (WSSPs), Microtunneling and Trenchless Methods

Our Company has developed strong expertise in the execution of water supply projects, delivering critical water transmission infrastructure that ensures reliable and continuous access to treated water, particularly in urban environments. Our capabilities encompass the installation of water transmission mains and associated infrastructure using advanced trenchless construction technologies that minimize disruption to existing roadways, utilities, buildings, and public spaces.

A key strength of our Company is the use of microtunneling technology for the installation of large-diameter underground pipelines in densely populated and environmentally sensitive areas where conventional open-cut excavation is impractical as it minimizes environmental impact and public inconvenience while ensuring efficient project execution. The microtunneling process begins with comprehensive geotechnical investigations and utility mapping, followed by use of tunnel boring machines that facilitate accurate installation of pipelines below ground, that enables precise installation of reinforced concrete pipelines while maintaining strict alignment and depth specifications, even under complex geotechnical conditions.

Where project conditions or pipeline specifications make microtunneling unsuitable, our Company deploys Horizontal Directional Drilling (HDD) for the trenchless installation of smaller-diameter pipelines. This alternative method also minimizes environmental impact and public inconvenience while ensuring efficient project execution.

Following pipeline installation, we conduct comprehensive testing, including pressure testing and flow assessments, to verify the integrity, safety, and operational performance of the installed networks. We also construct associated infrastructure such as manholes, access chambers, and junction boxes to facilitate future inspection, operation, and maintenance.

Our expertise in trenchless construction enables us to successfully execute complex infrastructure projects in high-density urban areas, heritage zones, and locations with extensive existing utility networks, where conventional excavation methods would be impractical or highly disruptive. A notable example is our ongoing project for the Delhi Jal Board involving the laying of water transmission mains from the Bhagirathi Water Treatment Plant (WTP), demonstrating our capability to deliver high-impact urban utility infrastructure using advanced microtunneling technology while maintaining minimal surface disruption.

2. Electrical Transmission

Our operations in the electrical infrastructure domain include the development of power transmission and distribution networks, along with the construction of electrical substations. We have implemented several projects under schemes such as the Rajiv Gandhi Grameen Vidyutikaran Yojana (RGGVY) and the Restructured Accelerated Power Development and Reforms Programme (RAPDRP) for Uttar Pradesh state utilities like PVVNL and DVVNL. Our scope of work spans the complete lifecycle of these electrical infrastructure projects, from survey and design to commissioning.

Transmission infrastructure developed under these projects includes the construction of 33 kV and 11 kV lines using both overhead and underground systems. These installations involve the use of ACSR conductors, XLPE cables, and integration of railway crossing works where applicable. The distribution component covers new installations and the upgradation of legacy systems, including the implementation of Aerial Bunched Cables (ABC) and armored LT cables for single-phase and three-phase distribution. We also construct and commission substations of various capacities, including 33/11 kV substations, power transformers ranging from 25 kVA to 10 MVA, and mobile trolley-mounted substations. In addition to core power infrastructure, we deliver power quality and automation solutions such as capacitor banks with Automatic Power Factor Control (APFC) panels, metering systems for distribution transformers, consumer service connections, and street lighting automation systems. All work is executed in alignment with the standards set by the respective state electricity boards and central power sector policies.

3. Roads and Highways

Our Company has an established presence in the road and highway construction sector, with good execution record under state and national road development programs. We have successfully completed multiple projects involving new road construction, as well as the widening and strengthening of existing roads across Uttar Pradesh under the PWD and National Highway development authorities. These projects involve end-to-end execution, starting with design, procurement, and civil works, through to final commissioning. A recently awarded contract involves the widening and strengthening of the Daulatpur–Nanouta–Mangalore Road (State Road No. 167) from chainage 29.793 to 72.793, extending to the Uttarakhand border, with a total project length of 40.42 kilometers in Saharanpur district.

The scope of work in these road projects typically begins with the preparation and compaction of the subgrade, followed by the laying of the Granular Sub Base (GSB) to provide a stable foundation. This is succeeded by the construction of the Wet Mix Macadam (WMM) layer, which serves as a granular base for the bituminous layers. Bituminous works involve the application of a prime coat over WMM and a tack coat between subsequent bituminous layers to ensure proper bonding. The Dense Bituminous Macadam (DBM) is laid as the primary structural layer, possibly followed by an intermediate layer of Bituminous Macadam (BM), depending on design requirements, and finally topped with a Semi-Dense Bituminous Concrete (SDBC) or Bituminous Concrete (BC) layer as the wearing course. The projects also include the installation of road furniture such as signage, pavement markings, and safety barriers, along with the development of roadside amenities like bus bays and rest shelters, in accordance with government specifications and safety standards.

4. Urban Infrastructure

Our Company undertakes the EPC of residential building projects as part of its urban infrastructure business. We execute civil construction developments for our clients.

We execute projects in accordance with the prescribed technical specifications, quality standards, safety requirements and project timelines.

Our experience in residential construction enables us to deliver durable, functional and high-quality housing infrastructure while effectively managing project planning, resource deployment, procurement and construction activities. Through our urban infrastructure business, we contribute to the development of residential communities by delivering infrastructure solutions that meet the requirements of our clients and end users.

5. Operation & Maintenance (O&M)

In addition to other services provided by our Company, certain contracts awarded to us also require us to undertake Operation and Maintenance ("O&M") services for WWTPs, STPs, sewerage networks and road and highway projects, ensuring that these assets operate efficiently. Our O&M services include plant operation, preventive and corrective maintenance, equipment monitoring, process optimization, sludge management and routine inspections to maintain consistent operational performance throughout the asset lifecycle.

The O&M segment complements our EPC business by enabling us to provide end-to-end solutions through long-term asset management. Our experience in operating and maintaining infrastructure assets allows us to optimize plant performance, enhance equipment reliability, reduce operational downtime and improve resource efficiency, thereby extending the useful life of critical infrastructure.

The O&M business also provides several strategic benefits to our Company as it generates recurring revenue through long-term service contracts, enhances earnings visibility, strengthens relationships with clients and creates opportunities for repeat business. Our continued involvement in the operation of completed assets also enables us to leverage operational insights to improve the design and execution of future EPC projects, thereby enhancing project quality and operational efficiency.

In addition to O&M works done by us for projects of designing and constructing of WWTPs, STPs and Sewer networks, we undertake standalone contracts for O&M of WWTPs, STPs Sewer networks and road projects. Through standalone O&M, we generated a revenue of ₹57.71 million during the financial year ended on March 31, 2026. Additionally, our pipeline of standalone O&M contracts under execution stood at ₹152.87 million, as on July 15, 2026.

TYPICAL TERMS OF OUR CONTRACTS

Our contracts, primarily awarded by government agencies and public sector undertakings, generally follow standardized terms and conditions aligned with prevailing public procurement guidelines. The key provisions typically incorporated in such contracts include the following:

1. Payment Milestones

Contracts generally provide for monthly billing cycles, wherein the contractor is required to submit monthly progress bills based on actual work executed. These bills are verified and certified by the client or its appointed engineer. Upon certification, payments are released as per the agreed schedule, subject to applicable deductions and withholdings such as retention money and statutory taxes.

2. Liquidated Damages for Delay

All contracts contain provisions for liquidated damages (LD) in case of delay in achieving contractual milestones or completion. However, if delays are attributable to circumstances beyond the contractor's control such as force majeure events, delays in drawings approval, site handover, or approvals the contractor is entitled to an Extension of Time (EOT) and is not held liable for LD or compensation.

3. Variation and Extra Items

Contracts allow for variation in quantities and the inclusion of additional items essential for the completion of the project scope. Any such variations or execution of extra items must be undertaken only after obtaining written approval from the competent authority. The terms of compensation and rates for such items are governed either by the Schedule of Rates (SOR), mutually agreed rates, or by rate analysis as per contractual guidelines.

4. Dispute Resolution Mechanism

Most contracts include a tiered dispute resolution framework. In the event of any dispute or disagreement arising out of the contract, the matter is first referred to a Dispute Resolution Board (DRB) or Dispute Adjudication Board (DAB), if constituted. If unresolved, the dispute is subject to binding arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (as amended), with the seat and venue typically being in the jurisdiction of the project location or the capital city of the awarding authority.

5. Other Commercial Clauses

Contracts may also include provisions relating to performance guarantees, retention money, mobilization and material advances (subject to applicable securities), defect liability periods, price escalation (where applicable), and termination rights. These terms are generally defined in accordance with the guidelines of the respective funding agency or government authority.

OUR BUSINESS PROCESS

We set out below the flow chart explaining various steps involved in the process of our business operation:

1. Pre-Bidding Stage

Our business operations commence with a structured pre-bidding process focused on identifying and evaluating potential project opportunities. We primarily secure contracts through competitive bidding conducted by government bodies and public sector undertakings. A dedicated team actively monitors e-procurement portals, departmental websites, and newspapers to identify relevant tenders across our core infrastructure sectors.

Upon identification of a potential project, the tendering team conducts an initial feasibility review based on criteria such as geographic location, scope complexity, internal resource availability, pre-qualification thresholds, and expected commercial viability. Based on this preliminary assessment, internal approvals are sought from senior management to proceed with bid preparation.

In cases where standalone eligibility criteria are not met, we may form project-specific joint ventures with technically or financially qualified partners. This collaborative approach enhances bid strength while allowing access to larger and more complex tenders.

Following internal approval, the tendering and design teams initiate a comprehensive pre-bid diligence exercise, which includes detailed study of tender documents, site visits to assess ground conditions, preparation of preliminary designs and layouts, cost estimation, and obtaining quotations from suppliers. These inputs form the basis of both the technical and financial components of the bid submission.

Where applicable, our Company participates in pre-bid meetings to seek clarifications and understand client expectations. Technical eligibility and bid responsiveness are evaluated during the pre-qualification stage, which determines eligibility for participation in the financial bidding round. Final bid submission is made after ensuring alignment with both internal commercial expectations and client requirements.

Price competitiveness remains a critical determinant in award of contracts, and our approach emphasizes accurate cost benchmarking and risk-adjusted pricing to enhance bid success rates while maintaining financial discipline.

2. Post-Award Stage

Following the award of a contract, we initiate the mobilisation of manpower and key resources to the project site. Site infrastructure is established, including site offices, storage facilities, and deployment of resources required to support execution activities.

Our engineering and design teams prepare and submit work drawings and structural calculations for client approval. Upon approval, construction is undertaken in phases in accordance with the approved work plans.

At the site level, technical teams prepare detailed material estimates which are communicated to our central procurement division to ensure timely procurement and delivery. Execution progress is closely monitored, and billing is carried out through periodic joint measurements and certifications.

Interim and final invoices are raised in line with contractual milestones and payment terms. Senior management maintains active oversight throughout the project lifecycle to ensure timely completion and compliance with quality and safety standards.

3. Completion

The completion stage involves conducting equipment trials, stabilisation of systems, and performance guarantee testing. For example, in wastewater treatment projects, this includes the development of bacterial cultures necessary to initiate biological treatment processes.

Upon successful completion of the prescribed performance criteria, the project is considered commissioned and a Commercial Operation Date (COD) is issued. Thereafter, where applicable, Operations and Maintenance (O&M) responsibilities commence and may extend for a period of up to five, ten, or fifteen years, depending on the terms of the relevant contract.

The balance of retention money or release of performance security is effected upon the expiry of the Defect Liability Period, subject to satisfactory performance and fulfilment of all contractual obligations.

PROCUREMENT

We have instituted a centralized procurement framework designed to ensure timely availability of raw materials and equipment while optimizing costs and maintaining operational efficiency across all project sites. Our procurement operations are coordinated from our Corporate Office in Noida and are led by a dedicated Procurement Manager, supported by Senior Account Officers, Unit Accountants, and Storekeepers deployed across our project locations.

Procurement planning is undertaken on a weekly, bi-weekly, and monthly basis, in coordination with project units and engineering teams. Material requirements are consolidated and reviewed through a structured approval hierarchy, with rate finalizations and procurement schedules. Supplier selection is carried out through a competitive quotation process, and price comparison charts are prepared to ensure transparency and cost optimization.

We maintain a balanced mix of owned and rented machinery based on project-specific requirements. While certain critical equipment is owned for long-term deployment, a significant portion of project-based machinery is hired or leased to maintain operational flexibility and cost-effectiveness.

Inventory levels are monitored daily at project sites, and consumption is tracked and reconciled to monitor inventory utilization and ensure accountability. Financial planning is closely aligned with procurement activities, with funding requirements assessed periodically in line with project schedules and cash flow projections.

Supplier relationships are managed through regular coordination and performance monitoring to ensure compliance with delivery timelines and quality benchmarks. Our procurement cycle is further supported by quality assurance protocols, including timely approval of Quality Assurance Plans and third-party inspections, to safeguard the quality of sourced materials.

This integrated procurement model enables us to ensure uninterrupted supply of materials and equipment across multiple projects, while upholding governance standards, financial discipline, and execution reliability.

UTILITIES & INFRASTRUCTURE FACILITIES

Water

Water required for construction and related activities is procured locally at each project site through water tankers as required. As our projects particularly those involving the laying of sewer lines, establishment of STPs, and related infrastructure are executed in open urban environments rather than in enclosed campuses, there are no centralized or permanent water arrangements at these sites. Temporary residential and operational infrastructure is established as per project needs, and rental arrangements are made for site offices and accommodation in proximity to the project area.

Power

Given the widespread and mobile nature of our project execution, electricity requirements at project sites are primarily met through diesel generator (DG) sets, which may either be hired or owned depending on the site-specific requirement. For semi-permanent installations such as Pumping Stations or STPs, we apply for temporary electricity connections from local utilities in accordance with applicable regulatory guidelines. Electricity expenses for offices, stores, and guesthouses are borne directly by our Company and settled through utility bill payments. The flexibility of our site power strategy enables us to maintain continuity of operations across diverse and geographically dispersed project locations.

These technologies have been utilized in various projects across locations including projects in Delhi (Bhagirathi WTP), Shahjahanpur, Jaunpur, Kotputli, Kota, Bikaner, Agra, Ghaziabad, Etah, Pilakhuwa and Udaipur.

In addition, we leverage digital tools and engineering software such as Auto CAD for monitoring site execution levels, managing project records, and optimizing resource allocation across construction sites. These capabilities enhance execution precision, improve efficiency, and support timely delivery of technically complex projects.

4. Consistent Revenue Growth and Strengthening Profitability

Our Company has demonstrated a consistent upward growth in both revenue and profitability over the past three financial years, reflecting strong execution capabilities and financial discipline. Revenue from operations grew from ₹ 2,261.02 million in FY 2024 to ₹ 3,449.96 million in FY 2026, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of approximately 23.52%. This growth was primarily driven by timely project execution and an expanding portfolio under government-led infrastructure schemes.

Profitability has also improved significantly, with Profit After Tax (PAT) increasing from ₹ 190.54 million in FY 2024 to ₹ 433.15 million in FY 2026. Correspondingly, PAT margins improved from 8.43% in FY 2024 to 12.56% in FY 2026, underscoring our Company's ability to scale operations efficiently while maintaining healthy bottom-line performance.

OUR STRATEGIES

1. Strategic Expansion of Project Scale and Capacity to Enhance Market Position

We have built a brand in the infrastructure sector over the past 20 years, anchored in our consistent execution of technically complex, public sector infrastructure projects. Our reputation as a reliable EPC contractor, particularly in the northern region of India, is reinforced by our ability to deliver high-quality outcomes under stringent public procurement norms. This has enabled us to scale operations across geographies and expand our presence through a pan-India pipeline of opportunities.

In line with our growth vision, we intend to expand the scale of our infrastructure projects, with a strategic focus on high-capacity water and wastewater treatment plants. We have demonstrated execution capability across capacities ranging from 3 MLD to 56 MLD for STPs, showcasing our expertise in managing both small and large-scale infrastructure works.

Further, we are focusing on scaling our operations into higher-capacity projects. This includes entering the Common Effluent Treatment Plant (“CETP”) sector with a target of reaching 50 MLD for CETPs and 200 MLD for STPs in the coming years. Expanding into larger projects offers substantial benefits, such as reduced competition, higher profit margins, and the economies of scale that come with managing larger systems. These larger projects allow us to streamline operations, integrate advanced technologies, and optimize cost management.

Targeting high-capacity projects also directly contributes to enhancing our pre-qualification status, which is crucial for bidding on more complex and high-value projects. It positions us to secure larger contracts, further solidifying our standing as one of the leading infrastructure players.

This strategy aligns seamlessly with the Government of India’s increasing investment in infrastructure development, particularly through initiatives such as the Jal Jeevan Mission, which has been allocated approximately ₹676,700 million in the Union Budget for Fiscal 2026-27 (Source: available at https://www.indiabudget.gov.in/doc/Budget_at_Glance/bag7.pdf). This initiative presents significant opportunities in water infrastructure development, where we are well-equipped to contribute at scale. Furthermore, the AMRUT 2.0 program, with its allocation of ₹80,000 million for water security and sewerage management, opens extensive opportunities in the water and wastewater sectors, directly aligning with our growth objectives (Source: available at <https://www.pib.gov.in/PressReleasePage.aspx?PRID=2078409>).

Additionally, expanding our project size enhances our ability to bid for EPC and Hybrid Annuity Model (“HAM”) projects, which are increasingly being favored by the government. As a result, our Company is poised to not only capitalize on the growing demand for large-scale infrastructure projects but also to strengthen our position in the highly competitive infrastructure sector.

By scaling project size, we seek to enhance margins, reduce competitive intensity, and build a differentiated position in core water and wastewater infrastructure segments. This approach is expected to improve project standardization, resource utilization, and client servicing across our national footprint.

2. Expanding our Presence in other States and Leveraging the Infrastructure Demand

We intend to expand our geographic footprint beyond our established presence in Uttar Pradesh, Rajasthan, Uttarakhand and National Capital Territory of Delhi, where we have delivered large-scale projects for clients including Delhi Jal Board, Uttar Pradesh Jal Nigam, RUIDP, RUDSICO, and UP PWD. Further, recently we have expanded our geographic footprint in Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and Odisha. Our next phase of growth targets high-potential states such as West Bengal, Chhattisgarh, Jharkhand and Maharashtra, driven by increasing urbanization and infrastructure demand under schemes like AMRUT 2.0, Jal Jeevan Mission, and Namami Gange.

These states present scalable opportunities in water supply, STPs, WWTPs, and sewerage systems. For instance, the Jal Jeevan Mission and AMRUT 2.0 together allocate over ₹ 36,66,700 million towards water and wastewater infrastructure, enabling a robust project pipeline across underserved areas. We also aim to align with national initiatives such as the PM GatiShakti National Master Plan, the National River Interlinking Project, and the Revamped Distribution Sector Scheme, which complement our core strengths in water, wastewater, and electrical EPC.

Further, India's urbanization is accelerating due to economic reforms and population growth, with the population currently standing at 1.38 billion, of which 65% live in rural areas and 35% in urban centers. As the urban population continues to grow, particularly in metropolitan cities, the demand for advanced wastewater treatment and sewage infrastructure is becoming increasingly urgent. According to the Central Pollution Control Board, 72,368 MLD of wastewater was generated in urban areas in 2020-21, which is double the wastewater generated in rural areas (39,604 MLD) (Source: Page 31, available at https://www.niti.gov.in/sites/default/files/2022-09/Waste-Water-A4_20092022.pdf). This demographic shift places immense pressure on water resources and increases the need for infrastructure solutions that can manage both wastewater and water supply systems efficiently.

We aim to play a critical role in addressing the increasing demand for advanced wastewater treatment and sewage infrastructure, the pressure on water resources caused by rapid urbanization, and the growing need for efficient water supply and wastewater management by contributing to national efforts to enhance water conservation, efficient wastewater management, and sustainable urban planning. Our expertise in STPs and Sewerage Pumping Stations ("SPS") projects, as demonstrated in the execution of large-scale projects such as the 56 MLD STP in Ghaziabad and the 40 MLD STP in Shahjahanpur, positions us well to tackle these emerging needs and contribute to the success of these programs.

The evolving regulatory landscape, with enhanced environmental and technical requirements, also plays to our advantage. As an established player with extensive experience in meeting these stringent requirements, we are well-equipped to participate in these government-backed initiatives. Our expertise in electricity distribution networks, for instance, allows us to participate in programs like the Revamped Distribution Sector Scheme and Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Gram Jyoti Yojana for rural electrification, further diversifying our portfolio.

Through our geographic expansion and alignment with key government initiatives, we aim to mitigate regional risks, strengthen our revenue base, and build a more resilient business model. This geographic diversification strategy will enable us to capture opportunities in rapidly urbanizing regions, ensuring that we stay ahead of market demand in the infrastructure development sector.

3. On-site Renewable Energy Generation to support Project Execution and reduce Costs

As a part of our long-term strategy to enhance environmental sustainability and operational efficiency, we are undertaking the integration of renewable energy solutions, particularly solar power systems, within our infrastructure projects. This initiative is focused on generating power on project sites to support execution activities, reduce dependence on external power grids, and achieve cost savings over the project lifecycle.

We are in the process of implementing solar panel installations at several of our STPs located in Kota, Bikaner, and Kotputli under the AMRUT 2.0 scheme. These solar installations will supply power to our sewerage treatment plants (STPs) and realise cost savings over the project lifecycle.

In addition to the cost optimization, these installations contribute to our sustainability goals by ensuring that our infrastructure assets align with India's clean energy mandates. This initiative supports the objectives of the National Action Plan on Climate Change ("NAPCC") and India's commitment to scaling renewable energy capacity across sectors.

Further, as a part of our future growth plans, we aim to expand the deployment of solar power solutions across our entire wastewater treatment portfolio. This includes installing additional solar plants at future STP projects across India, tapping into government incentives that support renewable energy in the infrastructure sector.

Furthermore, we aim to leverage the PM-KUSUM Yojana, which promotes solar energy adoption in the agricultural sector through the installation of grid-connected solar power plants and solarized irrigation systems. By aligning with this scheme, we plan to expand our capabilities in solar power generation and further enhance our position in the renewable energy sector.

These initiatives will position us as a responsible infrastructure developer committed to delivering environmentally sustainable and energy-efficient solutions, aligned with India's broader green energy and climate mitigation goals.

4. Capitalize on Government policy initiatives.

India is the world's second most populous country with 1.38 billion people. Out of this, 65% of the population lives in rural area and 35% are connected to the urban centers according to United Nation (2019) (Source: Page 31, available at https://www.niti.gov.in/sites/default/files/2022-09/Waste-Water-A4_20092022.pdf). The metropolitan cities of the country are seeing major expansion as a result of economic expansions and reforms. This expansion in urban population is unsustainable without efficient planning of cities and provision of utility services especially sewerage, clean and affordable water. Water allocation in cities is usually done from common pool with multiple sectoral demand. It is expected that by 2050, about 1,180 billion cubic metres of water will be required out of which approx. 70% will be used in agriculture, ~9% for drinking water, ~7% in industries, ~6% for energy generation. (Source: CRISIL Report).

Government Initiatives:

- Jawaharlal Nehru National Urban Renewal Mission
- Namami Gange programme
- Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation (AMRUT)
- Swachh Bharat Mission (Urban)
- Jal Jeevan Mission (JJM)

Currently our Company is executing 6 projects under Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation (AMRUT). The details regarding the above projects have been disclosed under the heading titled "Our Business - Our Order Book" on page 254.

5. Strategic diversification into High-Growth Sectors aligned with National Infrastructure Goals

We intend to leverage the national infrastructure priorities of the government by expanding our portfolio into other infrastructure segments that complement our core EPC capabilities. This includes diversification into renewable energy integration, solid waste management, satellite city development, and water resource optimization.

We are actively exploring opportunities in solar energy deployment and waste-to-energy systems to contribute to India's 500 GW renewable energy goal by 2030. (Source: <https://www.pib.gov.in/PressReleasePage.aspx?PRID=1913789>). This initiative is part of our broader strategy to contribute to India's energy transition goals and reduce dependency on non-renewable power sources. Our ongoing solar installations at sewage treatment plants in Kota, Bikaner, and Kotputli under AMRUT 2.0 reflect this commitment. These solar power plants not only help reduce energy consumption costs but also contribute in enhancing our green energy portfolio. As government incentives continue to promote the use of renewable energy, we plan to further expand solar installations across our future projects, leveraging the PM-KUSUM Yojana and government schemes focusing on solar energy to generate green power in agricultural and water management sectors.

In response to urban expansion and the need for decentralized growth, we aim to participate in the development of satellite cities through integrated infrastructure delivery covering roads, power, water supply, and sanitation. These satellite cities are critical for alleviating congestion in major cities while supporting sustainable living standards. Our strategic focus on satellite city development will allow us to venture into new infrastructure opportunities, making us well-positioned for future growth in this space.

Further, recognizing the importance of solid waste management, we plan to enter this growing sector, which is essential for urban sustainability. As cities face challenges in managing municipal solid waste, our expertise in infrastructure projects makes us a suitable player to lead the way in waste collection, processing, and waste-to-energy solutions. The Smart Cities Mission and AMRUT 2.0 programs, which focus on urban renewal and improving city infrastructures, provide significant opportunities in this area. By addressing the issue of waste in a sustainable manner, we aim to contribute to cleaner cities and environmental sustainability.

Another critical area for growth is India's River Interlinking Project, an ambitious national initiative aimed at optimizing water resources across the country. This project involves interlinking India's major rivers to address water scarcity and improve irrigation and drinking water supply. Our past experience in water transmission infrastructure positions us in contributing to this ambitious program. The river interlinking initiative will significantly enhance India's water management systems, and we are strategically positioning ourselves to be a key player in this initiative.

By diversifying into high-growth infrastructure segments such as renewable energy, satellite city development, municipal solid waste management, and water resource optimization, we aim to strengthen our sectoral presence and reduce geographic and project-specific risk. We intend to leverage our established execution capabilities and institutional experience with government-led infrastructure programs to expand our service offerings and pursue integrated project opportunities. We intend to diversify our long-term growth potential and align our business with the evolving infrastructure needs of a rapidly urbanizing India.

6. Continue to enhance our core strengths by attracting, retaining and training qualified personnel.

Our ability to effectively execute and manage projects is crucial to our continued success. We understand that maintaining quality, minimizing costs and ensuring timely completion of our projects depends largely on the skill and workmanship of our employees. As competition for qualified personnel increases among engineering and construction companies in India, we seek to improve competitiveness by increasing our focus on training our staff. We offer our engineering and technical personnel a wide range of work experience and learning opportunities by providing them with continuous training in latest systems, techniques and knowledge upgradation.

CAPACITY UTILIZATION

As we are engaged in the infrastructure development business, our operations are project-based and not driven by fixed manufacturing capacities. Accordingly, traditional capacity utilization metrics are not applicable to our business model. Our operational output is directly linked to the scale and timelines of ongoing project execution activities.

PROJECT MONITORING

Project execution is monitored through reporting and oversight mechanism designed to ensure timely delivery, adherence to quality benchmarks, and alignment with contractual milestones. Each project is assigned a dedicated Project Manager who is responsible for day-to-day supervision, progress tracking, and coordination with site-level teams. Project Managers submit periodically progress updates to the senior management, facilitating proactive decision-making and timely resolution of execution challenges.

Project-specific requirements, including material needs and scheduling adjustments, are communicated by site teams to the central office to ensure alignment across all locations. A central procurement team supports execution by coordinating the supply of raw materials and engineering equipment as required.

Our project teams possess long-standing experience, with several members having been associated with the Company for many years. This institutional knowledge contributes to operational continuity, familiarity with internal systems, and effective execution of complex infrastructure mandates.

In addition to regular site-level monitoring, our promoters actively oversee project performance through periodic site visits and review meetings. These meetings facilitate direct engagement with Project Managers and help ensure that execution remains on schedule and in line with technical specifications and contractual obligations.

QUALITY MANAGEMENT

We have established a quality management framework to ensure that all infrastructure projects adhere to prescribed technical and regulatory standards. A dedicated team of engineers and quality control personnel oversees project execution including material procurement, commissioning, with regular monitoring and testing of raw materials to ensure consistency and compliance. This quality oversight is embedded in our day-to-day operations and aligned with the specific requirements of each project. The material supplied at each project site is also subject to third party inspections by reputed agencies such as SGS India Private Limited and Rail India Technical and Economic Service (RITES). The quality of executed works at project sites is also subject to third party inspection by Water and Power Consultancy Services (India) Limited (WAPCOS) in Uttar Pradesh.

Our quality systems are certified under ISO 9001:2015 for Quality Management Systems, which certifies our quality management system to consistently deliver services that meet both customer expectations and statutory requirements. We have also obtained ISO 14001:2015 certification for Environmental Management Systems, underscoring our commitment to minimizing the environmental impact of our activities through sustainable practices. These certifications guide our operational processes and support accountability at each stage of project delivery. In addition, we are certified under ISO 45001:2018 for Occupational Health and Safety Management Systems, which supports the implementation of safe working conditions at all project locations. These international standards not only ensure operational discipline but also reinforce our focus on safety, efficiency, and environmental stewardship.

HEALTH, SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT

We are committed to maintain a safe, healthy, and environmentally responsible work culture across all our project sites. Our health and safety protocols are aligned with applicable central and state regulations, client requirements, and industry standards, including those prescribed in the Central Public Health and Environmental Engineering Organisation (CPHEEO) Manual. The team based at our Noida office oversees project-specific safety functions, supported by Safety Engineers at each active site. Daily inspections, toolbox talks, and safety audits form part of our routine practices to ensure compliance and reduce operational risk.

We place significant emphasis on the continuous training and awareness of our workforce to promote a strong safety culture across all project sites. In addition to mandatory induction programmes, labourers receive periodic refresher training and practical demonstrations on the safe operation of construction equipment, proper use of personal protective equipment ("PPE"), hazard identification, safe material handling, working at heights, excavation safety, electrical safety, and emergency response procedures. Safety briefings and toolbox talks are conducted regularly to reinforce safe work practices, communicate site-specific risks, and ensure that all personnel remain aware of evolving project conditions. These initiatives are aimed at reducing workplace incidents, improving operational discipline, and fostering a proactive approach to health and safety throughout the construction lifecycle.

All project personnel, including subcontractors, undergo safety training, covering induction, emergency preparedness, and job-specific protocols. High-risk operations, such as confined space work in sewerage networks, are conducted under strict supervision with required PPE, atmospheric monitoring, and ventilation protocols. Our site safety measures also include public protection steps, such as barricading, visible signage, and end-of-day clean-up to maintain secure and orderly work zones. Fire hazards are proactively managed, and open trenches and pipelines are securely covered after each shift.

We also focus on promoting worker wellbeing and environmental sustainability. Our commitment to environmental protection is reflected in afforestation drives at select project sites such as Shahjahanpur, Kota, Bikaner and Kotputli. These efforts are part of a broader strategy to align infrastructure development with long-term sustainability and compliance. A Health, Safety and Environment (HSE) framework remains central to our project execution, helping us ensure worker safety, safeguard public spaces, and protect natural resources.

SWOT ANALYSIS

Strengths

For details about strengths, kindly refer “Our Business-Our Strengths” beginning on page 289.

Weaknesses

1. Geographical Concentration Risk

Our operations are currently concentrated in select states in northern India, exposing us to regional political, environmental, and administrative risks that could affect project execution.

2. High Dependence on Government Contracts

100% of our revenue is dependent on government and public sector undertakings, exposing us to risks related to delays in project awards, payment cycles, and changes in government policies.

3. Working Capital Intensity

Execution of large-scale EPC projects and long project cycles require significant working capital investments, which could strain liquidity, particularly in the event of delays in certification or payments from contracting authorities.

4. Exposure to Raw Material and Subcontractor Risks

Our operations are exposed to fluctuations in raw material costs, especially steel, cement, and mechanical-electrical components, and potential delays by subcontractors, which could impact margins and timely project execution.

5. Limited Brand Recognition Outside Government Sector

While we have strong recognition among government entities, our brand recall among private sector clients is relatively limited, which may constrain future diversification efforts.

Opportunities

1. Increased Government Spending on Urban and Rural Infrastructure

Government initiatives such as AMRUT 2.0, Namami Gange, Jal Jeevan Mission, and Smart Cities are driving significant investment in urban infrastructure, creating demand for integrated solutions in water, sanitation, and renewable energy.

2. Growing Demand for Digitally Enabled Infrastructure

There is increasing policy emphasis on the use of SCADA, GIS mapping, and automation in utility services. Our early adoption of smart manhole monitoring, robotic sewer cleaning, and remote energy monitoring systems positions us to capitalize on this shift.

3. Expansion into New Geographies and Sectors

We have the opportunity to expand our footprint across more Indian states as well as explore new verticals such as industrial water management and private sector EPC.

4. Public-Private Partnership (PPP) Models

The growing acceptance of PPP models in infrastructure presents opportunities for long-term contracts with assured returns, enabling us to diversify funding sources and revenue streams.

5. Renewable Energy Integration and Circular Economy

Policies supporting solar infrastructure under Pradhan Mantri Kisan Urja Suraksha evam Utthan Mahabhiyan (PM-KUSUM) and circular economy solutions in wastewater (such as treated water reuse and biogas recovery) align with our technical competencies and sustainability focus.

Threats

1. Policy and Regulatory Uncertainty

Changes in government regulations, contract frameworks, or environmental norms could delay or alter project scopes, affecting revenue projections and execution timelines.

2. Intensifying Competition

The infrastructure sector is witnessing increased competition from both large conglomerates and niche technology players, which could result in pricing pressure and reduced margins.

3. Climate-related and Environmental Risks

Unpredictable weather events, water scarcity, or stricter environmental regulations could impact project execution, particularly for outdoor civil works and water-related infrastructure.

4. Execution and Manpower Challenges

Shortages of skilled personnel, delays in material supply chains, and safety-related incidents in high-risk construction zones can cause project slowdowns or cost overruns.

5. Technological Obsolescence Risk

As infrastructure becomes more digitized, the rapid pace of technology change possess a risk of obsolescence if continuous investment in innovation and upskilling is not maintained.

HUMAN RESOURCES

The Human Resources (HR) division at our Company plays a pivotal role in managing the personnel ecosystem across project sites and administrative offices. It is responsible for workforce planning, recruitment, training, performance evaluation, employee welfare, and ensuring compliance with labour laws and project-specific regulations. The HR division directly supports our Company's multidisciplinary execution across verticals such as Water & Wastewater Infrastructure, Roads and Highways work, Electrical Transmission work, Urban Infrastructure and Operation and Maintenance ("O&M") of public utilities.

Our Company conducts periodic training programmes for employees across various functions, including engineering, procurement, quality management, project execution, finance, compliance, and administration. These programmes are designed to familiarise employees with applicable technical standards, regulatory developments, project execution practices, quality control procedures, and the use of relevant tools and technologies. INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Our Company integrates advanced information technology across various stages of project execution to enhance efficiency, and operational safety. The use of digital software such as AutoCAD and Microsoft 365 Suite is particularly important in projects involving sewerage networks, trenchless pipeline construction, and renewable energy installations.

In microtunneling, we utilize laser-guided navigation systems to maintain line and grade control. These systems help ensure accuracy in the placement of underground pipelines, particularly in urban environments where minimal surface disruption is required. The use of such precision tools supports structural integrity and alignment with engineering standards, while also reducing the environmental and social impact during construction.

At our STPs, we implement Programmable Logic Controller (PLC) and SCADA systems to automate and monitor various treatment processes. These automation tools enhance operational transparency, reliability, and environmental accountability. As per the requirement of the project, our scope of work includes instrumentation and automation for sewer manholes with pumping arrangements (MWP), integrated with SCADA to enable real-time monitoring of operational parameters and remote management.

In our efforts to mechanize hazardous operations and eliminate manual scavenging, we have deployed robotic systems for manhole cleaning. The sewer cleaning robots designed for use in sewer manholes are equipped with an IP68-rated underwater camera, robotic arms with multiple degrees of freedom for shovelling and picking, and a real-time monitoring interface. The system includes a gas detection unit for harmful gases such as methane, carbon monoxide, and hydrogen sulphide, with alerts displayed on a touchscreen user interface. This technology significantly enhances worker safety, operational visibility, and cleaning efficiency, while aligning with national goals for dignity of labour and sanitation modernization.

We are also implementing Smart Manhole Monitoring Systems in our upcoming projects in urban sewer networks. These involve the installation of battery-powered devices equipped with Light Dependent Resistors (LDRs) and cable float switch-based water level sensors. Capable of transmitting data over GSM/GPRS networks, these devices provide continuous monitoring of sewer water levels, enabling timely alerts and proactive intervention through centralized management systems.

To further advance operational intelligence, the Company proposes to deploy Artificial Intelligence-based online monitoring systems at STP in Kota. These systems include analysers at both inlet and outlet points, dissolved oxygen (DO) analysers, hydrostatic level sensors, data logging transmitters (DLTs), and associated instrumentation such as flow meters and pressure gauges. The system enables end-to-end automation and intelligent plant management as per project specifications and the direction of the Engineer-in-Charge.

As part of our commitment to digital urban infrastructure, we also undertake Geographic Information System (GIS)-based consumer mapping services. This includes mapping of individual water and sewer connections, database development, and asset plotting on GIS maps, using satellite imagery provided by the relevant government department. These initiatives support data-driven decision-making and improve transparency in utility management.

We also employ automated safety monitoring equipment in confined work environments. This includes oxygen level detectors and alarm systems linked to gas masks, enhancing worker safety during underground and enclosed-space operations. These safety systems form part of our broader commitment to adopting digital tools that support compliance with health, safety, and environmental norms.

As we continue to expand our operations, particularly in projects that involve digitally managed sewerage systems and solar-powered infrastructure and, we intend to strengthen our information technology infrastructure.

INVENTORY AND ASSET MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS

Our Company manages its inventory and project assets through site-level tracking systems developed using internally standardized formats in Microsoft Excel, supplemented by Tally for financial and stock register maintenance. Inventory management is executed by a dedicated team comprising unit accountants, storekeepers, and a senior accounts officer appointed for each project site. This approach enables effective tracking of construction equipment, pipeline materials, consumables, and other project-critical assets across multi-phase project timelines. Stock levels, inward/outward movement, and asset utilization are recorded and reviewed periodically to ensure transparency, accountability, and operational continuity.

MARKETING

As on the date of this Prospectus, our Company does not engage in any formal marketing activities, as our operations are primarily project-based and contracts are awarded through competitive bidding and tendering processes in the public infrastructure sector.

COMPETITION

Our Company operates in a competitive infrastructure development sector, particularly in the execution of wastewater treatment plants, water supply schemes, and other public infrastructure projects. The sector is largely influenced by government spending, policy mandates, and tender-based procurement mechanisms. According to the CRISIL Report, the Indian water and wastewater infrastructure sector has witnessed a significant trend in project implementation, with projects across water supply, wastewater and desalination segments being implemented mainly under three models EPC, PPP, PPP – HAM models. However, PPP-HAM is emerging as a popular alternative, with increasing interest from private players even though the majority of the project in WSS segment is happening through EPC mode.

Our business model is primarily reliant on securing contracts through competitive bidding, which introduces inherent uncertainty in terms of order book visibility and pricing power. Success in these tenders depends on several critical factors, including pricing strategy, pre-qualification credentials, past project experience, financial strength, and execution capacity. We regularly compete with industry players such as Denta Water, VA Tech Wabag Limited, EMS Limited, and Enviro Infra Engineers Limited, all of whom target similar segments under national programs. These entities often possess long-standing government relationships, regional presence, or access to capital, which intensifies the bidding environment.

While price remains a key determinant in the award of government infrastructure tenders, we differentiate ourselves through our demonstrated track record of executing technically complex projects, in-house engineering capabilities, and long-term O&M experience, which together enhance our pre-qualification eligibility. Our ability to comply with environmental standards and deliver on time further strengthens our competitive position.

However, the market dynamics also possess specific risks. Competitive pricing pressures can compress margins, particularly in fixed-price contracts, and frequent regulatory or policy shifts may alter eligibility or scope mid-execution. Additionally, revenue volatility can arise due to seasonal variations in project awards, delays in government approvals, or budgetary reallocations. To address these risks, we have adopted a multi-pronged strategy: diversifying across infrastructure verticals (such as water, wastewater, electrical, and roads); expanding geographically to reduce dependence on specific states or programs; and investing in equipment, technology, and talent to build scalable and cost-efficient execution platforms.

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Our Company has constituted a Corporate Social Responsibility (“CSR”) Committee in compliance with the provisions of Section 135 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with the Companies (Corporate Social Responsibility Policy) Rules, 2014 and any amendments thereto. In line with these statutory requirements, we have formulated a CSR Policy that governs the planning, implementation, and monitoring of our CSR initiatives.

The CSR initiatives of our Company are directed towards contributing to inclusive and sustainable development. These initiatives are aligned with the activities prescribed in Schedule VII of the Companies Act, 2013. Our CSR initiatives have been undertaken in areas surrounding our key project sites and operational regions. These are intended to benefit communities through various targeted interventions.

In terms of Section 135 of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Companies (Corporate Social Responsibility Policy) Rules, 2014, companies meeting specified thresholds are required to incur prescribed minimum CSR expenditure and report the same in the Board's report. For the last three Fiscal i.e. 2026, 2025 and 2024, our Company fell within the applicability criteria for CSR obligations, and for the financial year ended on March 31, 2026, our company has spent ₹ 3.34 million towards CSR. However, our Company is yet to utilise the CSR amount for stated period towards CSR activities.

For further details, kindly refer “Risk Factor No. 3: Certain unspent Corporate Social Responsibility (“CSR”) amounts pertaining to the Financial Years ended March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 remain to be utilised in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. Any delay in complying with the applicable CSR requirements may expose us to regulatory action, penalties and reputational risks.” beginning on page 36.

2.3 USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of the Restated Consolidated financial information is in conformity with Ind AS requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions. These estimates, judgments and assumptions affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the financial years. Accounting estimates could change from period to period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as management becomes aware of changes in circumstances surrounding the estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on going concern basis.

Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised, if the revision affects only that period. If the revision affects both current and future financial years, the same is recognised accordingly.

Key source of estimation of uncertainty at the date of financial statements, which may cause material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, is in respect of impairment, useful lives of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets, valuation of deferred tax assets, provisions and contingent liabilities, fair value measurements of financial instruments and retirement benefit obligations as disclosed below:

Impairment

The Company estimates the value in use of the cash generating unit (CGU) based on future cash flows after considering current economic conditions and trends, estimated future operating results and growth rates and anticipated future economic and regulatory conditions. The estimated cash flows are developed using internal forecasts. The cash flows are discounted using a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value.

Useful lives of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets

The Company reviews the useful life of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets at the end of each reporting period. This reassessment may result in change in depreciation and amortisation expense in future periods.

Valuation of deferred tax assets The Company reviews the carrying amount of deferred tax assets at the end of each reporting period.
Allowances for expected credit loss The Company makes provision for expected credit losses through appropriate estimations of irrecoverable amount. The identification of expected credit loss requires use of judgment and estimates. The Company evaluates trade receivables ageing and makes a provision for those debts as per the provisioning policy. Where the expectation is different from the original estimate, such difference will impact the carrying value of the trade and other receivables and doubtful debts expenses in the period in which such estimate has been changed.
Retirement benefit obligations The Company's retirement benefit obligations are subject to number of assumptions including discount rates, inflation and salary growth. Significant assumptions are required when setting these criteria and a change in these assumptions would have a significant impact on the amount recorded in the Company's balance sheet and the statement of profit and loss. The Company sets these assumptions based on previous experience and third party actuarial advice.
Classification of Leases The Company enters into leasing arrangements for Leasehold Land. The classification of the leasing arrangement as a finance lease or operating lease is based on an assessment of several factors, including, but not limited to, transfer of ownership of leased asset at end of lease term, lessee's option to purchase and estimated certainty of exercise of such option, proportion of lease term to the asset's economic life, proportion of present value of minimum lease payments to fair value of leased asset and extent of specialized nature of the leased asset.
2.4 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES
The material accounting policies applied by the Company in the preparation of the Restated Consolidated Financial Information are listed below. Such accounting policies have been applied consistently to all the financial years presented in this Restated Consolidated Financial Information, unless otherwise indicated.
i) CURRENT V/S NON-CURRENT CLASSIFICATION
The Company presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current/ non-current classification. An asset is classified as current when it is:
• Expected to be realised or intended to sold or consumed in normal operating cycle
• Held primarily for the purpose of trading.
• Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period, or
• Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.
All other assets are classified as non-current.
A liability is current when:
• It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle.
• It is held primarily for the purpose of trading.
• It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or
• There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.
The Company classifies all other liabilities as non-current. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities
The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents. Based on the nature of service and the time between rendering of services and their realization in cash and cash equivalents, 12 months has been considered by the company for the purpose of current / non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

ii) FUNCTIONAL AND PRESENTATION CURRENCY

iii) PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT (PPE):

PPE is recognised when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. PPE is stated at original cost net of tax/duty credits availed, if any less accumulated depreciation and cumulative impairment, if any. All directly attributable costs related to the acquisition of PPE and, borrowing costs case of qualifying assets are capitalised in accordance with the Company's accounting policy.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

PPE not ready for the intended use on the date of the Balance Sheet are disclosed as "capital work-in-progress"

DEPRECIATION METHODS, ESTIMATED USEFUL LIFE

Depreciation is recognised using written down value method so as to write off the cost of the assets (other than freehold land and capital work-in-progress) less their residual values over their useful lives specified in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013, or in the case of assets where the useful life was determined by technical evaluation, over the useful life so determined.

Depreciation on additions to deductions from, owned assets is calculated on pro rata basis according to the period of use.

PPE is de-recognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on de-recognition is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the same period.

The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at each financial year end and the effect of any change is accounted for on prospective basis.

The carrying amount of the all property, plant and equipment are de-recognized on its disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal and the gain or loss on de-recognition is recognized in the statement of profit & loss. Other Fixed Assets include Dumper, BPD, Tandom Roller, Paver, Sensor Paver, Tar Boiler and Bitumin Tank.

The useful life of assets are as follows:

Tangible Assets	Useful Life
Building	30 years
Plant & Machinery	15 years
Vehicles	8 years
Furniture & Fixtures	10 years
Office Equipment	5 years
Computer	3 years
Others	9-12 years

iv) IMPAIRMENT OF NON-FINANCIAL ASSETS

The Company assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an assets or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are taken into account. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used. These calculations are corroborated by valuation multiples, quoted share prices for publicly traded companies or other available fair value indicators. Impairment losses of continuing operations, including impairment on inventories, are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

For assets an assessment is made at each reporting date to determine whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses no longer exist or have decreased. If such indication exists, the Company estimates the asset's or CGU's recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. The reversal is limited so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior financial years. Such reversal is recognised in the statement of profit or loss unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount in which case, the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

(v) Borrowing and Borrowing costs

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in Statement of profit and loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method. Borrowings are derecognised from the balance sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired. The difference between the carrying amount of a borrowings that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in Statement of profit and loss as other gains/(losses). Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Company has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use are capitalised as part of the cost of the asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they occur. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds. Borrowing cost also includes exchange differences to the extent regarded as an adjustment to the borrowing costs.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets are capitalised as part of the cost of the assets up to the date the asset is ready for its intended use. All other borrowing costs are recognised as an expense in the Restated Statement of Profit and Loss account in the financial year in which they are incurred.

vi) FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS-INITIAL RECOGNITION, SUBSEQUENT MEASUREMENT AND IMPAIRMENT

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

Financial Assets

(a) Initial recognition and measurement:

All financial assets are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset.

(b) Subsequent measurement

For purposes of subsequent measurement financial assets are classified in two broad categories:

: Financial assets at fair value

: Financial assets at amortised cost

(c) Classification:

The Company classifies financial assets as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income or fair value through profit or loss on the basis of its business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual cash flows characteristics of the financial asset.

(d) Financial assets measured at amortised cost:

Financial assets are measured at amortised cost when asset is held within a business model, whose objective is to hold assets for collecting contractual cash flows and contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely for payments of principal and interest. Such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. The losses arising from impairment are recognised in the Statement of profit and loss. This category generally applies to trade and other receivables.

(e) Financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI):
Financial assets under this category are measured initially as well as at each reporting date at fair value. Fair value movements are recognized in the other comprehensive income.
(f) Financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL):
Financial assets under this category are measured initially as well as at each reporting date at fair value with all changes recognised in profit or loss.
(g) Investment in Equity Instruments:
Equity instruments which are held for trading are classified as at FVTPL. All other equity instruments are classified as FVTOCI. Fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognized in the other comprehensive income. There is no recycling of the amounts from other comprehensive income to profit or loss. There are no investments in Equity Shares by the Company.
(h) Derecognition of Financial assets:
A financial asset is primarily derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired or the Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset, if an entity transfers a financial asset in a transfer that qualifies for derecognition in its entirety and retains the right to service the financial asset for a fee, it shall recognise either a servicing asset or a servicing liability for that servicing contract. If the fee to be received is not expected to compensate the entity adequately for performing the servicing, a servicing liability for the servicing obligation shall be recognised at its fair value. If the fee to be received is expected to be more than adequate compensation for the servicing, a servicing asset shall be recognised for the servicing right at an amount determined on the basis of an allocation of the carrying amount of the larger financial asset.
(i) Impairment of Financial assets:
In accordance with Ind AS 109, the company applies expected credit loss (ECL) model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on the financial assets that are debt instruments and trade receivables. For recognition of impairment loss on other financial assets and risk exposure, the company determines that whether there has been a significant increase in the credit risk since initial recognition.
Financial Liabilities
(a) Initial recognition and measurement:
All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans, borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs. Financial liabilities include trade and other payables, loans and borrowings including bank overdrafts.
(b) Classification & Subsequent measurement:
If a financial instrument that was previously recognised as a financial asset is measured at fair value through profit or loss and its fair value decreases below zero, it is a financial liability measured in accordance with IND AS. Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading, if they are incurred for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term.
The Company classifies all financial liabilities as subsequently measured at amortised cost, except for financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss. Such liabilities, including derivatives that are liabilities, shall be subsequently measured at fair value. However, there is no derivative transactions in the company.
(c) Derecognition of Financial Liabilities:
A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.
Offsetting financial instruments:
Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited to Other Income.
vii) CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS
Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Bank balances other than cash & cash equivalents includes fixed deposits of original maturity of 3 Months to 12 Months. It also includes fixed deposits of original maturity of less than 3 Months which are lien with Bank against Bank Guarantee & Others as it is not liquid in nature and restricted for use.
viii) PROVISIONS, CONTINGENT LIABILITIES AND CONTINGENT ASSETS
(a) General
Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, the amount of a provision shall be the present value of expense expected to be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are therefore discounted, when effect is material, The discount rate shall be pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessment of time value of money and risk specific to the liability. Unwinding of the discount is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss as a finance cost. Provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and are adjusted to reflect the current best estimate.
(b) Contingencies
Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the company or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made. Information on contingent liability is disclosed in the Annexures to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information.
A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity, Contingent assets are not recognised, but are disclosed in the notes. However, when the realisation of income is virtually certain, then the related asset is no longer a contingent asset, but it is recognised as an asset.
ix) SHARE CAPITAL AND SECURITIES PREMIUM
Ordinary shares are classified as Equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.
Par value of the equity share is recorded as share capital and the amount received in excess of the par value is classified as securities premium.
x) REVENUE RECOGNITION
Revenue is measured at the fair value of consideration received or receivable by the Company for goods supplied and services provided, excluding trade discounts and other applicable taxes. Revenue is recognised upon transfer of control of promised goods or services under a contract. Revenue is recognised when the amount can be measured reliably, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Company, the costs incurred or to be incurred can be measured reliably, and when the criteria for each of the Company's different activities has been met.
The Company derives revenues from following types of activities:
a) Sewerage Construction Contracts, Road & Highway Construction & Maintenance, Building Construction, Water Supply Projects and Electrical Works- The Company is engaged in execution of sewerage construction projects, road and highway construction and maintenance contracts, building construction works, water supply projects and electrical works under contracts entered into with government authorities.
b) Operation and maintenance contracts - Customer contracts towards operation and maintenance of sewerage construction projects & road and highway construction.

The Company determines its performance obligations included in the contracts signed with customers. When a customer contract includes both a construction and operation & maintenance, the performance obligations are separately identified and revenue is recognised in accordance with the principles of Ind AS 115.

- Sewerage Construction Contracts, Road & Highway Construction & Maintenance, Building Construction, Water Supply Projects and Electrical Works:

The Company is engaged in the execution of sewerage construction projects, road and highway construction and maintenance contracts, building construction works, water supply projects, electrical transmission and distribution works, and other infrastructure projects on an Engineering, Procurement and Construction (EPC) basis.

Revenue is recognized in accordance with Ind AS 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The transaction price is generally based on contractually agreed rates and may include variable consideration such as price escalation, incentives, variation orders, claims, liquidated damages and penalties. Variable consideration is included in the transaction price only to the extent that it is highly probable that a significant reversal of cumulative revenue recognized will not occur when the uncertainty associated with such consideration is subsequently resolved.

Construction contracts generally comprise a single performance obligation involving the design, engineering, procurement, construction, installation, testing, commissioning, maintenance and handover of infrastructure facilities. The Company transfers control of goods and services continuously over the contract period and therefore satisfies its performance obligations over time.

Revenue is recognized over time using the percentage of completion method, measured by reference to the proportion of contract costs incurred up to the reporting date relative to the total contract costs of the contract (cost-to-cost method). This method faithfully depicts the transfer of control of goods and services to the customer.

Only those costs that reflect work performed are included in costs incurred for determining the stage of completion.

Where the outcome of a contract cannot be measured reliably, revenue is recognized only to the extent of contract costs incurred that are expected to be recoverable.

Contract modifications, variation orders and claims are accounted for when approved or when it is highly probable that the customer will approve the modification and the amount can be measured reliably. Unbilled revenue represents the Company's right to consideration for work performed but not yet billed as well as certified by the principal as at the reporting date and is disclosed within Trade Receivables, as appropriate. Retention money withheld by customers as per contractual terms is recognized when the Company has an enforceable right to receive the consideration and collection is considered probable. Long-term retention receivables are disclosed under Other Financial Assets (Non-Current), while short-term retention receivables are disclosed under Other Financial Assets (Current).

Operation & Maintenance contracts - Revenue from Operation and Maintenance contracts relating to sewerage construction projects & road and highway construction are recognized as the services are provided and invoiced to the customer, as per the terms of the contract.

(b) Other Income

- Interest income

Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis using the effective interest rate method.

xi) TAXATION

(a) Current tax

Current tax is expected tax payable on the taxable income for the financial year, using the tax rate enacted at the reporting date, and any adjustment to the tax payable in respect of the earlier periods.

Current tax assets and liabilities are offset where the company has legal enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on net basis, or to realize the assets and settle the liability simultaneously.

(b) Deferred tax
Deferred tax is recognized for all taxable temporary differences and is calculated based on the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes.
Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.
Deferred tax assets are recognized only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the assets can be utilized. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.
Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset and when the deferred tax balances relate to taxes levied by the same tax authority on the same taxable entity, or on different tax entities, but the company intends to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities will be realized simultaneously.
(c) Current and Deferred Tax for the Financial Year
Current and deferred tax are recognized in the statement of profit & loss, except when they relates to items that are recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current tax and deferred tax is recognized directly in other comprehensive income or equity respectively.
xii) EARNING PER SHARE
Basic Earnings Per Share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity shareholders of the company to the weighted average number of Shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity shareholders of the company after adjusting the effect of all dilutive potential equity shares that were outstanding during the period. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for events such as bonus issue that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources.
xiii) LEASES
As a Lessee
The Company's lease asset classes primarily consist of leases for Land. The Company assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the company assesses whether: (i) the contract involves the use of an identified asset (ii) the company has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease and (iii) the company has the right to direct the use of the asset.
At the date of commencement of the lease, the Company recognizes a right-of-use asset ("ROU") and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and low value leases. For these short-term and low value leases, the Company recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.
Certain lease arrangements includes the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. ROU assets and lease liabilities includes these options when it is reasonably certain that they will be exercised. The right-of-use assets are initially recognized at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.
Right-of-use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. Right of use assets are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets.

The lease liability is initially measured at amortized cost at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rates in the country of domicile of these leases.

Lease liabilities are remeasured with a corresponding adjustment to the related right of use asset if the Company changes its assessment if whether it will exercise an extension or a termination option. Lease liability and ROU asset have been separately presented in the Balance Sheet and lease payments have been classified as financing cash flows.

The entire lease rent pertaining to the leased asset was paid in full by the previous owner of the asset, prior to the transfer of ownership to the company. Accordingly, there is no future lease rent liability payable by the company. Consequently, there is no recognition of lease liability (current or non-current) in the financial statements. Since there are no future lease payments, the requirements of Ind AS 116 with respect to recognition of lease liability and corresponding right-of-use asset and subsequent finance cost adjustments are not applicable in this case. No adjustments related to interest (finance cost) under Ind AS 116 have been made in the financial statements. This treatment is based on the management's representation and the absence of enforceable future lease payment obligations.

xiv) EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

The company provides for the various benefits plans to the employees. These are categorized into Defined Benefits Plans and Defined Contributions Plans. Defined contribution plans includes the amount paid by the company towards the liability for Provident fund to the employees provident fund organization and Employee State Insurance fund in respect of ESI and defined benefits plans includes the retirement benefits, such as gratuity.

a. In respect Defined Contribution Plans, contribution made to the specified fund based on the services rendered by the employees are charged to Statement of Profit & Loss in the financial year in which services are rendered by the employee.

b. Liability in respect of Defined Long Term benefit plan is determined at the present value of the amounts payable determined using actuarial valuation techniques performed by an independent actuarial at each balance sheet date using the projected unit credit methods. Re-measurement, comprising actuarial gain and losses, the effects of assets ceiling (if applicable) and the return on plan assets (excluding interest), is reflected immediately in the statement of Financial Position with a charge or credit recognized in other comprehensive income in the period in which they occur. Past Service cost is recognized in the statement of profit & loss in the period of plan amendment.

c. Liabilities for short term employee benefits are measured at undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid and charged to Statement of Profit & Loss in the financial year in which the related service is rendered.

xv) INVENTORIES

Material at Site & Work in Progress- valued at Cost or NRV, whichever is lower.

Cost is determined using FIFO basis and includes all costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Raw materials, stores and spares, consumables and materials at site are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Project Work-in-Progress represents costs incurred in respect of incomplete EPC projects and comprises direct material, direct labour, subcontracting charges and other directly attributable project costs incurred up to the reporting date. Project Work-in-Progress is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

Net realizable value represents the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale.

In the accounting policies forming part of the previously issued Restated Balance Sheets, Material at Site and Project Work-in-Progress (WIP) were stated at cost. For the Restated Financial Information for the financial year ended March 31, 2026, the accounting policy has been aligned with the applicable accounting standards by stating that inventories, including Material at Site and Project Work-in-Progress, are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value (NRV). Cost is determined using the FIFO method and includes all costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. It is hereby clarified that this revision represents only a refinement in the wording of the accounting policy and does not result in any change in the basis of valuation or the carrying amount of inventories. Based on the valuation carried out by the management, the Net Realizable Value (NRV) is higher than the cost for all reporting periods presented. Accordingly, the inventories continue to be carried at cost, which remains the lower of cost and NRV.

Therefore, there is no change in the valuation methodology or the values reported in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information, and the modification is only to ensure that the accounting policy appropriately reflects the applicable accounting requirements.

xvi) EARNINGS AND EXPENDITURE IN FOREIGN CURRENCY

xvii) New and Amended IND AS

(a) Ind AS 117 Insurance Contracts

The Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) notified the Ind AS 117, Insurance Contracts, vide notification dated 12 August 2024, under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2024.

Ind AS 117 Insurance Contracts is a comprehensive new accounting standard for insurance contracts covering recognition and measurement, presentation and disclosure. Ind AS 117 replaces Ind AS 104 Insurance Contracts. Ind AS 117 applies to all types of insurance contracts, regardless of the type of entities that issue them as well as to certain guarantees and financial instruments with discretionary participation features; a few scope exceptions will apply. Ind AS 117 is based on a general model, supplemented by:

- A specific adaptation for contracts with direct participation features (the variable fee approach)
- A simplified approach (the premium allocation approach) mainly for short-duration contracts

The application of Ind AS 117 does not have a material impact on the Restated Consolidated Financial Information as the Group has not entered any contracts in the nature of insurance contracts covered under Ind AS 117.

(b) Amendments to Ind AS 116 Leases – Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback

The MCA notified the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Second Amendment Rules, 2024, which amend Ind AS 116, Leases, with respect to Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback.

The amendment specifies the requirements that a seller-lessee uses in measuring the lease liability arising in a sale and leaseback transaction, to ensure the seller-lessee does not recognise any amount of the gain or loss that relates to the right of use it retains.

The amendment does not have a material impact on the Restated Consolidated Financial Information.

(c) Amendments to Ind AS 21 - Lack of exchangeability
The MCA notified amendments to Ind AS 21 The effects of changes in foreign exchange rates to specify how an entity should assess whether a currency is exchangeable and how it should determine a spot exchange rate when exchangeability is lacking. The amendments also require disclosure of information that enables users of its Ind AS financial statements to understand how the currency not being exchangeable into the other currency affects, or is expected to affect, the entity's financial performance, financial position and cash flows. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after April 01, 2025. When applying the amendments, an entity cannot restate comparative information. The amendments are not expected to have a material impact on the Restated Consolidated Financial Information.
(d) Amendments to Ind AS 1 - Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current and Non-current Liabilities with Covenants
The Ministry of Corporate Affairs notified amendments to paragraphs 69 to 76 of Ind AS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements to specify the requirements for classifying liabilities as current or non-current. The amendments clarify: What is meant by a right to defer settlement That a right to defer must exist at the end of the reporting period That classification is unaffected by the likelihood that an entity will exercise its deferral right That only if an embedded derivative in a convertible liability is itself an equity instrument would the terms of a liability not impact its classification In addition, a requirement has been introduced to require disclosure when a liability arising from a loan agreement is classified as non-current and the entity's right to defer settlement is contingent on compliance with future covenants within twelve months. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after April 01, 2025 and must be applied retrospectively. The Company is currently assessing the impact the amendments will have on current practice and whether existing loan agreements may require renegotiation

Notes

1. Provision for Gratuity Expense & Actuarial Gain/Loss on Defined benefit Plan

Provision for Gratuity Expense for the financial years ended March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 was not created. Same has been reinstated as per Actuarial valuation report obtained for the financial years ended March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024. Consequent impact on Actuarial Gain/Loss on Defined benefit plan has been reinstated in the Ind AS Restated Consolidated Financial Statement. Under IND AS, all actuarial gains and losses are recognised in Other Comprehensive Income. Benefit paid during the respective financial years is adjusted in the provision for Gratuity as per Actuarial Valuation Report and hence appropriate adjustments are made in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information.

2. Impact of IND AS 116 'Leases;

For the purpose of preparation of Restated Consolidated Financial Information, the Company has adopted Ind AS 116: Leases from the date of transition i.e. April 01, 2022 and management has evaluated the impact of change in accounting policies required due to adoption of Ind AS 116 for the financial years ended March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 and made the necessary adjustments. The entire lease rent pertaining to the leased asset was paid in full by the previous owner of the asset, prior to the transfer of ownership to the company.

Accordingly, there is no future lease rent liability payable by the company. Consequently, there is no recognition of lease liability (current or non-current) in the financial statements. Since there are no future lease payments, the requirements of Ind AS 116 with respect to recognition of lease liability and corresponding right-of-use asset and subsequent finance cost adjustments are not applicable in this case. No adjustments related to interest (finance cost) under Ind AS 116 have been made in the financial statements. This treatment is based on the management's representation and the absence of enforceable future lease payment obligations.

3, Deferred Tax

Under Previous GAAP, Deferred Tax is calculated using the income statement approach which focuses on differences between taxable profits and accounting profits for the period. Under Ind AS 12, deferred tax is calculated using balance sheet approach which focuses on difference between taxable profits and accounting profits for the period. The application of Ind AS 12 approach has resulted in recognition of deferred tax on new temporary differences which was not required under IGAAP. In addition, the various transitional adjustments has led to temporary differences. According to the accounting policies, the company has to account for such differences. Deferred Tax adjustments are recognised in correlation to the transactions either in retained earnings or profit and loss respectively.

4. Expected Credit Loss

Under Ind AS, the company has to provide loss allowance on Trade Receivables based on the Expected Credit Loss (ECL) model which is measured following the "simplified approach". The Company uses an provision matrix to measure the expected credit losses of trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historical observed default rates, adjusted for forward looking estimates. The Company has impaired its Trade Receivables by ₹ 0.16 million as on March 31, 2025, ₹ 0.44 million as on March 31, 2024 and its corresponding effect in statement of profit and loss in the respective financial years.

5. Provision for Tax impact on Associate

An Accounting Adjustment has been made where the provision for tax impact is shown in the Audited Financial Statement for the financial year ended March 31, 2025, although it pertains to March 31, 2024. Thus, the appropriate adjustment has been made in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information for the financial years ended March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 respectively.

6. Interest on delayed payment on MSME

An Accounting adjustment was identified in respect of interest on delayed payments to MSMEs, which had been incorrectly recorded in the audited financial statements for the financial year ended March 31, 2025, amounting to ₹ 0.14 million. This error has been duly corrected, and the appropriate adjustment has been reflected in the restated consolidated financial information for the financial year ended March 31, 2025.

Part B: Material Regrouping

Appropriate regroupings have been made in the Restated Ind AS Consolidated Statement of Assets and Liabilities, Restated Ind AS Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss and Restated Ind AS Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows, wherever required, by reclassification of the corresponding items of income, expenses, assets, liabilities and cash flows, in order to bring them in line with the accounting policies and classification as per Ind AS financial information of the Company for the financial years ended March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 prepared in accordance with Schedule III of Companies Act, 2013, requirements of Ind AS 1 and other applicable Ind AS principles and the requirements of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital & Disclosure Requirements) Regulations 2018, as amended.

Part C: Non Adjusting items:

There are no audit qualifications for the respective years, which do not require any adjustments in the Restated Consolidated Financial Information.

Further, based on the representation and confirmation provided by the management, the Company has stated that the proceedings are time-barred and in violation of the principles of natural justice, including denial of adequate opportunity of being heard. The Company has also sought quashing of the impugned order along with the penalty. The Company's appeal in Form GST APL-01, filed on March 09, 2026 after depositing the statutory pre-deposit of approximately ₹ 1.72 million, is presently pending before the Central Appellate Authority and continues to reflect the status of "Appeal Submitted" on the GST portal. Subsequently, the Office of the Commissioner (Appeals), CGST Meerut, has initiated appellate proceedings and has called for comments from the jurisdictional authority on the grounds of appeal for further consideration of the matter.	34.38	-	-
The VAT Department has issued a letter to Punjab National Bank (PNB) alleging that an outstanding demand of ₹ 0.22 million is payable by the Company for Assessment Year (AY) 2009–2010. The said demand is completely erroneous, illegal, and contrary to the facts and applicable law. Further, the VAT Department had directed PNB for the encashment of the Fixed Deposit Receipt (FDR) of ₹ 0.1 million deposited by the Company as security at the time of its VAT registration. Pursuant thereto, an amount of ₹ 0.17 million has been recovered from the	0.22	-	-

Company, which action is also wholly illegal, arbitrary, and without any legal basis.
The Company has submitted a representation to the VAT Department stating that the assessment proceedings for AY 2009–2010 had already been completed and, upon completion of the assessment, a refund of ₹ 0.64 million was duly sanctioned and issued to the Company during the relevant period. Therefore, no outstanding demand exists against the Company for the said assessment year or for any period thereafter.
Accordingly, the demand raised by the VAT Department and the consequent recovery effected through encashment of the FDR are unjustified and liable to be withdrawn forthwith.

iii) Principal assumptions used in determining gratuity obligations for the Company's plan are shown below:
Particulars	Financial Year ended
	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024
Discount Rate	7.46%	6.73%	7.09%
Salary Growth Rate	5.00%	5.00%	5.00%
Expected Rate of Return on Plan Assets	N.A	N.A	N.A

Withdrawal Rate	5.00%	5.00%	5.00%
Mortality Table	IALM (2012-14) Ult	IALM (2012-14) Ult	IALM (2012-14) Ult
Notes: (1) The discount rate is based on the prevailing market yield of Indian Government Securities as at Balance Sheet date for the estimated term of obligation. (2) The estimate of future salary increase considered in actuarial valuation takes into account inflation, seniority, promotion and other relevant factors such as supply and demand in the employment market.

(₹ in million)

(iv) Sensitivity Analysis
The sensitivity of the defined benefit obligation to changes in the weighted principal assumptions is:
Particulars	Financial Year ended
	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024
(a) Impact of Discount rate on defined benefit obligation
Increased by 1.00%	(0.57)	(0.52)	(0.39)
Decreased by 1.00%	0.66	0.61	0.45
(b) Impact of Salary Escalation rate on defined benefit obligation
Increased by 1.00%	0.61	0.55	0.40
Decreased by 1.00%	(0.55)	(0.51)	(0.39)
The above sensitivity analyses are based on a change in an assumption while holding all other assumptions constant. In practice, this is unlikely to occur, and changes in some of the assumptions may be correlated. When calculating the sensitivity of the defined benefit obligation to significant actuarial assumptions the same method i.e. projected unit credit method has been applied as that used for calculating the defined benefit liability recognised in the balance sheet.
v) Risk Exposure
The defined benefit obligations have the undermentioned risk exposures:
Interest rate risk: The defined benefit obligation calculated uses a discount rate based on government bonds. If bond yields fall, the defined benefit obligation will tend to increase.
Salary Inflation risk: Higher than expected increases in salary will increase the defined benefit obligation.
Demographic risk: This is the risk of variability of results due to unsystematic nature of decrements that include mortality, withdrawal, disability and retirement. The effect of these decrements on the defined benefit obligation is not straight forward and depends upon the combination of salary increase, discount rate and vesting criteria.
Investment risk: The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated using a discount rate determined by reference to high quality corporate bond yields; if the return on plan asset is below this rate, it will create a plan deficit.
vi) Defined benefit liability and employer contributions
The weighted average duration of the defined benefit obligation is years (March 31, 2026: 12.02 years, March 31, 2025: 12.13 years and March 31, 2024: 11.55 years)
The expected maturity analysis of undiscounted gratuity is as follows:
Particulars	Financial Year ended
	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024
Less than a year	0.54	0.66	0.65
Between 1 - 2 years	0.76	0.34	0.30
Between 2 - 3 years	0.42	0.66	0.30
Between 3 - 4 years	1.23	0.36	0.65
Between 4 - 5 years	0.49	1.05	0.31

Contributions are made to provident fund and employees state insurance in India for employees at the rate as prescribed in the regulations. The obligation of the group is limited to the amount contributed and it has no further contractual nor any constructive obligation.
The Company has recognized the following amounts towards defined contribution plan in the Statement of Profit and Loss –

Since there is no future lease payments, the requirements of Ind AS 116 with respect to recognition of lease liability and corresponding right-of-use asset and subsequent finance cost adjustments are not applicable in this case. No adjustments related to interest (finance cost) under Ind AS 116 have been made in the financial statements. This treatment is based on the management's representation and the absence of enforceable future lease payment obligations.

ii) Fair value hierarchy
This section explains the judgements and estimates made in determining the fair values of the financial instruments that are (a) recognised and measured at fair value and (b) measured at amortised cost and for which fair values are disclosed in the financial statements to provide an indication about the reliability of the inputs used in determining fair value, the company has classified its financial instruments into the three levels prescribed under the accounting standard.
Quantitative disclosures of fair value measurement hierarchy are as follows:

Particulars	Fair value measurement using
	Quoted prices in active markets	Significant observable inputs	Significant unobservable inputs	Total
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Financial assets measures at fair value
There has been no transfer among Level 1, Level 2 and Level 3 during the financial year.
Level 1	Level 1 hierarchy includes financial instruments measured using quoted prices. This includes listed equity instruments that have quoted price. The fair value of all equity instruments which are traded in stock exchanges is valued using the closing price as at the reporting period.
Level 2	The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined using valuation techniques which maximise the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on equity specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value instruments are observable, the instrument is included in Level 2.
Level 3	If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in Level 3. This is the case for unlisted equity securities, security deposits included in Level 3.

ANNEXURE 50: FIRST TIME ADOPTION OF IND AS
The Restated Consolidated Financial Information have been compiled from the Audited Financial Statements for the financial years ended March 31, 2023 and March 31, 2022. In preparing these financial statements, the Company's opening balance sheet was prepared as at April 01, 2022, the Company's date of transition to Ind AS. This note explains the principal adjustments made by the Company in restating its IGAAP financial statements, including the balance sheet as at April 01, 2022 and the financial statements as at and for the financial year ended March 31, 2023 and how the transition from IGAAP to Ind AS has affected the Company's financial position, financial performance and cash flows.

A) IND AS ADJUSTMENTS
Optional exemptions availed on first time adoption of IND AS under "IND AS 101".
I. Deemed Cost
The Company has availed the deemed cost exemption as per IND AS 101 in relation to property, plant and equipment and Intangible assets as on the date of transition i.e. April 01, 2022 and hence the net block carrying amount (as per Previous GAAP) has been considered as the gross block carrying amount (as per Ind AS) on that date i.e. April 01, 2022.
II. Remeasurement gain/loss of net defined plan
Under Ind AS, all actuarial gains and losses are recognised in the other comprehensive income.
III. Leases
Ind AS 116 'Leases' requires an entity to assess whether a contract or arrangement contains a lease. In accordance with Ind AS 116 this assessment should be carried out at the inception of the contract or arrangement. Ind AS 101 provides an option to make this assessment on the basis of facts and circumstances existing at the date of transition to Ind AS, except where the effect is expected to be not material.
IV. Deferred Tax
Under Previous GAAP, Deferred tax is calculated using the income statement approach which focuses on differences between taxable profits and accounting profits for the financial year. Under Ind AS 12 deferred tax is calculated using balance sheet approach which focuses on differences between taxable profits and accounting profits for the financial year. The application of Ind AS 12 approach has resulted in recognition of deferred tax on new temporary differences which was not required under IGAAP. In addition, the various transitional adjustments lead to temporary differences. According to the accounting policies, the Company has to account for such differences. Deferred tax adjustments are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in retained earnings or profit and loss respectively.
V. Expected Credit losses
Under Previous GAAP, The Company had recognised provision on trade receivables based on the expectation of the Company. Under Ind AS, the Company has to provide loss allowance on receivables based on the Expected Credit Loss (ECL) model which is measured following the "simplified approach". The Company uses a provision matrix to measure the expected credit losses of trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historical observed default rates, adjusted for forward looking estimates.
VI. Borrowings
Under Previous GAAP, processing fee on borrowings are recognised as expense when incurred. Under Ind AS 109, these costs are recognised under EIR method. Although it has negligible impact on borrowings under IND AS.
VII. Business Combination
In accordance with Ind AS transitional provision, the company opted not to restate business combination which occurred prior to transition date.
B) Reconciliations from previous GAAP
The following reconciliations provide a quantification of the effect of differences arising from the transition from previous GAAP to Ind AS in accordance with Ind AS 101 whereas the notes explain the significant differences thereto.
(i) Balance sheet reconciliations as of April 01, 2022 (ii) Balance sheet reconciliations as of March 31, 2023 (iii) Reconciliations of total equity as at March 31, 2023 and April 01, 2022 (iv) Reconciliations of statement of profit and loss for the financial year ended March 31, 2022 & March 31, 2023 (v) Reconciliations of total comprehensive income for the financial year ended March 31, 2022 & March 31, 2023 (vi) Explanation of material adjustments to statement of cash flows

Notes

1. For the purpose of preparation of Restated Consolidated Financial Information, the Company has adopted Ind AS 116: Leases from the date of transition i.e April 01, 2022 and management has evaluated the impact of change in accounting policies required due to adoption of Ind AS 116 and made the necessary adjustments. The entire lease rent pertaining to the leased asset was paid in full by the previous owner of the asset, prior to the transfer of ownership to the company. Accordingly, there is no future lease rent liability payable by the company. Consequently, there is no recognition of lease liability (current or non-current) in the financial statements. Since there are no future lease payments, the requirements of Ind AS 116 with respect to recognition of lease liability and corresponding right-of-use asset and subsequent finance cost adjustments are not applicable in this case. No adjustments related to interest (finance cost) under Ind AS 116 have been made in the financial statements. This treatment is based on the management's representation a due to the absence of enforceable future lease payments.

2. Under Previous GAAP, Deferred Tax is calculated using the income statement approach which focuses on differences between taxable profits and accounting profits for the financial year. Under Ind AS 12, deferred tax is calculated using balance sheet approach which focuses on difference between taxable profits and accounting profits for the financial year. The application of Ind AS 12 approach has resulted in recognition of deferred tax on new temporary differences which was not required under IGAAP. In addition, the various transitional adjustments has led to temporary differences. According to the accounting policies, the company has to account for such differences. According to the accounting policies, the company has to account for such differences. Deferred Tax adjustments are recognised in correlation to the transactions either in retained earnings or profit and loss respectively.

3.Under Ind AS, the company has to provide loss allowance on Trade Receivables based on the Expected Credit Loss (ECL) model which is measured following the "simplified approach". The Company uses a provision matrix to measure the expected credit losses of trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historical observed default rates, adjusted for forward looking estimates.

4.Provision for Gratuity Expense for the financial years ended March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 was not created as per Indian GAAP. Thus Provision from Gratuity has been created as per IND AS by obtaining Actuarial valuations from the certified Actuarial Valuer. Consequent impact on Actuarial Gain/Loss on Defined benefit plan has been reinstated in the Ind AS Restated Consolidated Financial Information. Under IND AS, all actuarial gains and losses are recognised in Other Comprehensive Income.

There were no material differences between the statements of cash flows presented under Ind AS and the previous GAAP.

ANNEXURE 51

A) FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

A) FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Company's principal financial liabilities comprise loans, borrowings and trade and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance the Company's operations. The Company's principal financial assets include loans, trade and other receivables, and cash and cash equivalents that derive directly from its operations. The Company also holds investments in Partnership Firms.

The Company is exposed to market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The Company's senior management oversees the management of these risks. The Company's senior management ensures that the Company's financial risk activities are governed by appropriate policies and procedures and that financial risks are identified, measured and managed in accordance with the Company's policies and risk objective. The Board of Directors reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks, which are summarised below.

(a) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: interest rate risk, currency risk and other price risk, such as equity price risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk include loans and borrowings. The Company has no direct exposure to foreign currency risk.

-Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Company's long-term debt obligations with floating interest rates. The Company manages its interest rate risk by having a balanced portfolio of fixed and variable rate loans and borrowings. The Company's policy is to borrow funds at fixed and floating rate of interest.

Interest rate sensitivity

The following table illustrates the sensitivity of profit and equity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates of +/- 1%. These changes are considered to be reasonably possible based on observation of current market conditions. Sensitivity calculations are based on an annualised interest cost on the borrowings at floating rate as of the reporting dates March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024. All other variables are held constant.

(₹ in million)

Particulars	As at
	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024
Interest rates- increase by 1%	(5.83)	(6.01)	(5.72)
Interest rates- decrease by 1%	5.83	6.01	5.72

(b) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that counterparty will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss. The Company is exposed to credit risk from its operating activities (primarily trade receivables) and from its financing activities, including investments, deposits with banks and financial institutions and other financial instruments.

(i) Trade receivables

Customer credit risk is managed by the Company's established policies, procedures and controls relating to customer credit risk management. Credit quality of a customer is assessed based on an individual credit limits and are defined in accordance with management's assessment of the customer. Outstanding customer receivables are regularly monitored. The concentration of credit risk is limited due to the fact that the customer base is large. An impairment analysis is performed at each reporting date using a provision matrix to measure expected credit losses. The Company uses ageing buckets and provision matrix for the purpose of computation of expected credit loss. The provision rates are based on past trend of recoverability. The calculation reflects the probability-weighted outcome, the time value of money and reasonable and supportable information that is available at the reporting date about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions. The Company makes provision of expected credit losses on trade receivables using a provision matrix. The provision matrix is based on its historical observed default rates, adjusted for forward looking estimates. At every reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and Company makes appropriate provision wherever outstanding is for longer period and involves higher risk

(₹ in million)

The movement in provision for expected credit loss for trade receivables are as follows:
Particular	Amount
Balance as at March 31, 2023	2.08
Add: Additions during the financial year	0.44
Less: Utilised during the financial year	-
Balance as at March 31, 2024	2.53

Add: Additions during the financial year	1.20
Less: Utilised during the financial year	-

Credit risk from balances with banks is managed by the management in accordance with the Company's policy. Investments of surplus funds are made only with approved counterparties based on limits defined by the management. The limits are set to minimise the concentration of risks and therefore mitigate financial loss through counterparty's potential failure to make payments.

(c) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company may encounter difficulty in meeting its present and future obligations associated with financial liabilities that are required to be settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. The Company's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility through the use of bank overdrafts, bank loans and finance leases. The Company closely monitors its liquidity position and deploys a robust cash management system. It aims to minimise these risks by generating sufficient cash flows from its current operations, which in addition to the available cash and cash equivalents and sufficient committed fund facilities, will provide liquidity. The liquidity risk is managed on the basis of expected maturity dates of the financial liabilities. The carrying amounts are assumed to be reasonable approximation of fair value.

Business Overview

We are a multidisciplinary public infrastructure development company engaged in the execution of turnkey Engineering, Procurement and Construction ("EPC") contracts. We operate across various infrastructure segments, including Water & Wastewater Infrastructure such as Water Supply Scheme Projects ("WSSPs"), Sewerage Networks, Sewerage Treatment Plants ("STPs"), Wastewater Treatment Plants ("WWTPs"), Transmission mains, Reservoirs, Trenchless & Micro tunnelling Works, Roads and Highways work, Electrical Transmission work, Urban Infrastructure which includes sector-level planning and execution of residential building projects and Operation and Maintenance (“O&M”) of public utilities. We execute projects primarily for state governments and government agencies across Northern & Central India, including Uttar Pradesh, Uttarakhand, Rajasthan and the National Capital Territory of Delhi. Recently, we have expanded our footprint in the State of Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and Odisha.

Our project execution model is predominantly tender-based, with contracts awarded by state agencies, public works departments, urban local bodies, and other government bodies. We operate across multiple project locations and operate through dedicated site teams aligned with the nature and geography of individual contracts.

Incorporated in the year 1998, our Company commenced operations in Uttar Pradesh with residential and road construction projects, including the development of planned housing colonies, sector-level layouts, and execution of road construction, widening and strengthening works under Public Works Departments (“PWD”) and National Highways programs. These early projects laid the foundation for our subsequent diversification into water supply, wastewater management, and public utility infrastructure.

We have executed projects under key central and state-sponsored schemes including the Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation (“AMRUT”), Jawaharlal Nehru National Urban Renewal Mission (“JNNURM”), Urban Infrastructure Development Scheme in Satellite Towns (“UIDSST”), Namami Gange Programme (“Namami Gange”), Jal Jeevan Mission (“JJM”), and Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana (“PMGSY”). We also have experience in implementing infrastructure projects funded by Asian Development Bank (“ADB”), which require compliance with rigorous technical and environmental standards.

Our integrated in-house capabilities span civil construction, mechanical and electrical integration, and commissioning. These enable us to offer comprehensive infrastructure solutions from concept to delivery. Additionally, we support long-term asset sustainability through our operations and maintenance (“O&M”) services across WWTP, STP and Road projects, reinforcing our lifecycle approach to public infrastructure.

Our growth and strategic direction has significantly benefited from the leadership of our Managing Director, Mr. Sanjay Tyagi, who joined the Company in April 2007. His professional journey began at the Ghaziabad Development Authority, where he served as an Engineer from January 1990 to March 2007. His expertise in civil engineering and infrastructure development, combined with his extensive experience in government contract procurement and execution, has been crucial to the company's success. He is responsible for our Company's operations including, procurement, strategic planning, project execution oversight, quality control, and project delivery, ensuring successful project execution and that the company maintains its high standards of performance. Under his guidance, we diversified into specialized EPC segments, notably entering wastewater treatment infrastructure through our strategic partnership in M/s Ultratech Engineers, a multi-party partnership firm instituted pursuant to a deed executed in March 2009 (with effect from January 25, 2009), which was subsequently acquired by our Company pursuant to a business transfer agreement dated June 02, 2016. This partnership was instrumental in enhancing our technical capabilities and allowed us to qualify for larger, complex infrastructure tenders.

Principal Factors Affecting Our Results of Operations

Our financial performance and results of operations are influenced by a number of important factors, some of which are beyond our control, including without limitation, intense global and domestic competition, general economic conditions, changes in conditions in the regional markets in which we operate, changes in costs of supplies, and evolving government regulations and policies. Some of the more important factors are discussed below, as well as in the section titled “Risk Factors” beginning on page 33.

Increasing Demand for Working Capital Requirements

Our operations across infrastructure segments, including water and wastewater projects, roads, electrical networks, and civil construction are inherently working capital intensive due to significant upfront expenses in procurement, mobilization, and project execution. As per our restated consolidated financial Information, our working capital requirements for the financial year ended March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 amounted to ₹ 1,338.16 million, ₹ 1,400.09 million and ₹ 1,280.66 million, respectively.

Further, our working capital requirements for Financial Year 2027 are estimated at ₹ 2,909.29 million out of which an amount of ₹ 1,500.00 million will be funded out of the Net Proceeds from issue of fresh equity shares in financial year 2027, whereas the balance, if any, would be arranged from our internal accruals and/or borrowings. For details of our working capital requirements and estimation, kindly refer “Objects of the Offer” beginning on page 136.

Cost and availability of Raw material, labour and other inputs

Our operations across infrastructure segments including wastewater treatment, water supply schemes, roads, housing, electrical works, and microtunneling require significant consumption of raw materials, construction equipment, and skilled and unskilled labour. Inputs such as steel, cement, pipes, electrical components, and fuel are critical to our project execution. The cost and availability of these materials are influenced by multiple external factors including domestic and international supply-demand dynamics, local sourcing constraints, transportation costs, and geopolitical developments.

For the financial year ended March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 our cost of revenue of operations adjusted to change in inventories amounted to ₹ 2,579.36 million, ₹ 2,170.50 million and ₹ 1,839.95 million, respectively, representing 74.76%, 77.64% and 81.38%, respectively of our revenue from operations. For further details, kindly refer “Restated Consolidated Financial Information” beginning on page 364.

Seasonal fluctuations lead to delays or disruptions to our operations during critical periods

Our business operations may be affected by seasonal factors which may restrict our ability to carry on activities related to our construction projects, laying of water pipes and fully utilize our resources.

The following factors may restrict our ability:

- Heavy or sustained rainfalls
- Flood
- Cyclones or
- Other extreme weather conditions

The above could result in delays or disruptions to our operations during the critical periods of our projects and cause severe damages to our premises and equipment's.

In particular, the monsoon season may adversely affect our ability to carry on activities related to our projects and efficiently utilize our resources, resulting in a slowdown in construction projects. This may lead to delays in project execution and consequently defer the recognition of revenue and profits to subsequent quarters. Adverse seasonal developments may also necessitate the evacuation of personnel, suspension or curtailment of operations, damage to construction sites or delays in the delivery of materials. Such fluctuations may adversely affect our revenues, cash flows, results of operations and financial conditions.

In the past, we have experienced an instance of dispute in relation to project execution. A wastewater infrastructure project was awarded by Rajasthan Urban Infrastructure Development Project (“RUIDP”) in Udaipur, certain delays, not attributable to our Company, led to deductions and the imposition of liquidated damages by the client, which we disputed. Pursuant to the final Extension of Time dated February 27, 2025 granted by RUIDP, under which an amount aggregating to ₹ 5.00 million (towards deductions) and ₹ 54.06 million (towards price escalation claims) were subsequently released/adjusted in our favour.

Largely concentrated to two states (“States”) and is affected by various factors associated with these states.

Our project portfolio has historically been concentrated in projects in Uttar Pradesh and Rajasthan. Though we are undertaking projects in other parts of India, including Uttarakhand, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar, Odisha and National Capital Territory of Delhi. This concentration of our business in Uttar Pradesh and Rajasthan subjects us to various risks, including but not limited to:

- regional slowdown in construction activities or reduction of infrastructure projects in states;
- vulnerability to change of policies, laws and regulations or the political and economic environment of states;
- constraint on our ability to diversify across states;
- perception by our potential clients that we are a regional construction company, which hampers us from competing for large and complex projects at the national level; and
- Limitation on our ability to cluster projects in the states where we intend to conduct business.

While we strive to diversify across states and reduce our concentration risk, there is no guarantee that the above factors associated with the states will not continue to have a significant impact on our business. If we are not able to mitigate this concentration risk, we may not be able to develop our business as we planned and our business, financial condition and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected. As on the date of this Prospectus, our Company has executed 18 projects out of which 16 projects were executed in Uttar Pradesh and currently we are executing 19 projects out of which 08 projects are executing in Uttar Pradesh. While our Company has not faced any instance of disqualification, cancellation, or blacklisting of any project in these states in past, there can be no assurance that such circumstances will not arise in the future, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

For further information, kindly refer ‘Our Business’ – “Our Order Book” and “Order Book for Completed Projects” beginning on pages 254 and 268, respectively.

Increasing share of business from government and government initiatives in the water and wastewater infrastructure sector

Our business is driven by public infrastructure projects funded under various Central and State Government programs. These include sector-specific schemes such as Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation (“AMRUT”), Jal Jeevan Mission (“JJM”), National Mission for Clean Ganga (“NMCG”), as well as broader infrastructure initiatives like the Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana (“PMGSY”), the Rajiv Gandhi Grameen Vidyutikaran Yojana (“RGGVY”) and Restructured Accelerated Power Development and Reforms Programme (“RAPDRP”) and electrification schemes by utility agencies such as Paschimanchal Vidyut Vitaran Nigam Limited (“PVVNL”) and Dakshinanchal Vidyut Vitaran Nigam Limited (“DVVNL”). These schemes have collectively contributed to a significant portion of our order book across sectors such as wastewater treatment, water supply, sewerage, roads, and power distribution. For further details of our ongoing projects, kindly refer “Our Business – Our Order Book” on page 254.

As of July 15, 2026, we are executing 06 projects under AMRUT 2.0. Apart from these projects, the bid of our Company has also been recently awarded as L1 status by Delhi Jal Board under AMRUT 2.0 valuing ₹1964.68 million. Our continued participation in such government-led initiatives is crucial to maintaining project flow and sustaining our growth.

However, the ability to secure contracts under these schemes depends on various factors, including adherence to evolving eligibility norms, timely availability of internal and external resources, and responsiveness to tendering requirements. Any failure to qualify, delays in bidding processes, or inability to execute awarded projects in line with prescribed benchmarks may curtail our ability to grow in these sectors. We intend to continue participating in tenders issued under these and similar schemes. However, our ability to secure and successfully execute such projects depends on various factors including availability of financial and technical resources, management bandwidth, and responsiveness to tender conditions. Any inability or delay in capitalizing on these schemes, or failure to meet qualification or execution standards, could restrict our growth trajectory. Moreover, the scope and funding of these schemes are contingent upon government budgetary allocations and policy priorities. A reduction in outlay, reallocation of funds, delays in disbursement, or a shift in implementation strategy such as moving from EPC to Public-Private Partnership (PPP) or Hybrid Annuity Model (HAM) models could reduce the availability of new projects or alter risk-sharing frameworks unfavourably. Any such development may materially affect our future business pipeline and financial performance.

Accordingly, the Company has applied the same accounting policy and accounting policy choices (both mandatory exceptions and optional exemptions availed as per Ind AS 101, as applicable) as on April 01, 2022.

(b) Basis Of Measurement

The Restated Consolidated Financial Information have been prepared on a historical cost basis except certain items that are measured at fair value as explained in accounting policies.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Company takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability, if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. Fair value for measurement and/or disclosure purposes in these financial statements is determined on such a basis, except for leasing transactions that are within the scope of Ind AS 116 – Leases, and measurements.

2.2 Basis Of Consolidation

The Restated Consolidated financial information presented for the reporting years include the financial statements of the Company and its share in associate accounted in accordance with the relevant Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013.

Associates are entities over which the Company exercise significant influence but does not control. Significant influence is assessed annually with reference to the voting power (usually arising from equity shareholdings and potential voting rights) and other rights (usually contractual) enjoyed by the Company in its capacity as an investor that provides it the power and consequential ability to direct the investee’s activities and significantly affect the Company’s returns from its investment. Such assessment requires the exercise of judgement and is disclosed by way of a note to the restated financial information. Investment in Associates is accounted as per Equity Method as per IND AS in the Consolidated Restated Financial Statement.

2.3 USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of the Restated Consolidated financial information is in conformity with Ind AS requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions. These estimates, judgments and assumptions affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the financial years. Accounting estimates could change from period to period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as management becomes aware of changes in circumstances surrounding the estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on going concern basis.

Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised, if the revision affects only that period. If the revision affects both current and future years, the same is recognised accordingly. Key source of estimation of uncertainty at the date of financial statements, which may cause material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, is in respect of impairment, useful lives of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets, valuation of deferred tax assets, provisions and contingent liabilities, fair value measurements of financial instruments and retirement benefit obligations as disclosed below:

Impairment

The Company estimates the value in use of the cash generating unit (CGU) based on future cash flows after considering current economic conditions and trends, estimated future operating results and growth rates and anticipated future economic and regulatory conditions. The estimated cash flows are developed using internal forecasts. The cash flows are discounted using a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value.

Useful lives of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets

The Company reviews the useful life of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets at the end of each reporting period. This reassessment may result in change in depreciation and amortisation expense in future periods.

Valuation of deferred tax assets

Allowances for expected credit loss

The Company makes provision for expected credit losses through appropriate estimations of irrecoverable amount. The identification of expected credit loss requires use of judgment and estimates. The Company evaluates trade receivables ageing and makes a provision for those debts as per the provisioning policy. Where the expectation is different from the original estimate, such difference will impact the carrying value of the trade and other receivables and doubtful debts expenses in the period in which such estimate has been changed.

Retirement benefit obligations

The Company's retirement benefit obligations are subject to number of assumptions including discount rates, inflation and salary growth. Significant assumptions are required when setting these criteria and a change in these assumptions would have a significant impact on the amount recorded in the Company's balance sheet and the statement of profit and loss. The Company sets these assumptions based on previous experience and third-party actuarial advice.

Classification of Leases

The Company enters into leasing arrangements for Leasehold Land. The classification of the leasing arrangement as a finance lease or operating lease is based on an assessment of several factors, including, but not limited to, transfer of ownership of leased asset at end of lease term, lessee's option to purchase and estimated certainty of exercise of such option, proportion of lease term to the asset's economic life, proportion of present value of minimum lease payments to fair value of leased asset and extent of specialized nature of the leased asset.

2.4 Significant Accounting Policies

The material accounting policies applied by the Company in the preparation of the Restated Consolidated Financial Information are listed below. Such accounting policies have been applied consistently to all the financial years presented in this Restated Consolidated Financial Information, unless otherwise indicated.

i) Current V/S Non-Current Classification

The Company presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current/ non-current classification. An asset is classified as current when it is:

- Expected to be realised or intended to sold or consumed in normal operating cycle
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading.
- Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

All other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle.
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading.
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

The Company classifies all other liabilities as non-current. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents. Based on the nature of service and the time between rendering of services and their realization in cash and cash equivalents, 12 months has been considered by the company for the purpose of current / non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

ii) Functional And Presentation Currency

iii) Property, Plant and Equipment (PPE):

PPE is recognised when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. PPE is stated at original cost net of tax/duty credits availed, if any less accumulated depreciation and cumulative impairment, if any. All directly attributable costs related to the acquisition of PPE and, borrowing costs case of qualifying assets are capitalised in accordance with the Company's accounting policy.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

PPE not ready for the intended use on the date of the Balance Sheet are disclosed as "capital work-in-progress"

Depreciation Methods, Estimated Useful Life

Depreciation is recognised using written down value method so as to write off the cost of the assets (other than freehold land and capital work-in-progress) less their residual values over their useful lives specified in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013, or in the case of assets where the useful life was determined by technical evaluation, over the useful life so determined.

Depreciation on additions to deductions from, owned assets is calculated on pro rata basis according to the period of use. PPE is de-recognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on de-recognition is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the same period.

The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at each financial year end and the effect of any change is accounted for on prospective basis.

The carrying amount of all the property, plant and equipment are de-recognized on its disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal and the gain or loss on de-recognition is recognized in the statement of profit & loss. Other Fixed Assets include Dumper, BPD, Tandom Roller, Paver, Sensor Paver, Tar Boiler and Bitumin Tank.

The useful life of assets is as follows:

Tangible Assets	Useful Life
Building	30 years
Plant & Machinery	15 years
Vehicles	8 years
Furniture & Fixtures	10 years
Office Equipment	5 years
Computer	3 years
Others	9-12 years

iv) Impairment Of Non-Financial Assets

The Company assesses, at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an assets or cash-generating unit's (CGU) fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. Recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. When the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are taken into account. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used. These calculations are corroborated by valuation multiples, quoted share prices for publicly traded companies or other available fair value indicators.

Impairment losses of continuing operations, including impairment on inventories, are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

For assets an assessment is made at each reporting date to determine whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses no longer exist or have decreased. If such indication exists, the Company estimates the asset's or CGU's recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. The reversal is limited so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognised in the statement of profit or loss unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount in which case, the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

(v) Borrowing and Borrowing costs

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in Statement of profit and loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method. Borrowings are derecognised from the balance sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired. The difference between the carrying amount of a borrowings that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in Statement of profit and loss as other gains/(losses). Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Company has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use are capitalised as part of the cost of the asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they occur. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds. Borrowing cost also includes exchange differences to the extent regarded as an adjustment to the borrowing costs.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets are capitalised as part of the cost of the assets up to the date the asset is ready for its intended use. All other borrowing costs are recognised as an expense in the Restated Statement of Profit and Loss account in the year in which they are incurred.

vi) Financial Instruments-Initial Recognition, Subsequent Measurement And Impairment

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

Financial Assets

- (a) Initial recognition and measurement: All financial assets are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of financial assets not recorded at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset.
- (b) Subsequent measurement: For purposes of subsequent measurement financial assets are classified in two broad categories:
 - Financial assets at fair value
 - Financial assets at amortised cost
- (c) Classification: The Company classifies financial assets as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income or fair value through profit or loss on the basis of its business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual cash flows characteristics of the financial asset.
- (d) Financial assets measured at amortised cost: Financial assets are measured at amortised cost when asset is held within a business model, whose objective is to hold assets for collecting contractual cash flows and contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely for payments of principal and interest. Such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. The losses arising from impairment are recognised in the Statement of profit and loss. This category generally applies to trade and other receivables.
- (e) Financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVTOCI): Financial assets under this category are measured initially as well as at each reporting date at fair value. Fair value movements are recognized in the other comprehensive income.
- (f) Financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL): Financial assets under this category are measured initially as well as at each reporting date at fair value with all changes recognised in profit or loss.
- (g) Investment in Equity Instruments: Equity instruments which are held for trading are classified as at FVTPL. All other equity instruments are classified as FVTOCI. Fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognized in the other comprehensive income. There is no recycling of the amounts from other comprehensive income to profit or loss. There are no investments in Equity Shares by the Company.

- (h) Derecognition of Financial assets: A financial asset is primarily derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired or the Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset, if an entity transfers a financial asset in a transfer that qualifies for derecognition in its entirety and retains the right to service the financial asset for a fee, it shall recognise either a servicing asset or a servicing liability for that servicing contract. If the fee to be received is not expected to compensate the entity adequately for performing the servicing, a servicing liability for the servicing obligation shall be recognised at its fair value. If the fee to be received is expected to be more than adequate compensation for the servicing, a servicing asset shall be recognised for the servicing right at an amount determined on the basis of an allocation of the carrying amount of the larger financial asset.
- (i) Impairment of Financial assets: In accordance with Ind AS 109, the company applies expected credit loss (ECL) model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on the financial assets that are debt instruments and trade receivables. For recognition of impairment loss on other financial assets and risk exposure, the company determines that whether there has been a significant increase in the credit risk since initial recognition.

Financial Liabilities

- (a) Initial recognition and measurement: All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans, borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs. Financial liabilities include trade and other payables, loans and borrowings including bank overdrafts.
- (b) Classification & Subsequent measurement: If a financial instrument that was previously recognised as a financial asset is measured at fair value through profit or loss and its fair value decreases below zero, it is a financial liability measured in accordance with IND AS. Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading, if they are incurred for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term.
The Company classifies all financial liabilities as subsequently measured at amortised cost, except for financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss. Such liabilities, including derivatives that are liabilities, shall be subsequently measured at fair value. However, there is no derivative transactions in the company.
- (c) Derecognition of Financial Liabilities: A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.
- (d) Offsetting financial instruments: Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited to Other Income.

vii) Cash And Cash Equivalents:

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Bank balances other than cash & cash equivalents includes fixed deposits of original maturity of 3 Months to 12 Months. It also includes fixed deposits of original maturity of less than 3 Months which are lien with Bank against Bank Guarantee & Others as it is not liquid in nature and restricted for use.

viii) Provisions, Contingent Liabilities And Contingent Assets

(a) General: Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, the amount of a provision shall be the present value of expense expected to be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are therefore discounted, when effect is material, The discount rate shall be pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessment of time value of money and risk specific to the liability. Unwinding of the discount is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss as a finance cost. Provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and are adjusted to reflect the current best estimate.

(b) Contingencies: Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the company or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made. Information on contingent liability is disclosed in the Annexures to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information.

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity, Contingent assets are not recognised but are disclosed in the notes. However, when the realisation of income is virtually certain, then the related asset is no longer a contingent asset, but it is recognised as an asset.

ix) Share Capital and Securities Premium

Ordinary shares are classified as Equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

Par value of the equity share is recorded as share capital and the amount received in excess of the par value is classified as securities premium.

x) Revenue Recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of consideration received or receivable by the Company for goods supplied and services provided, excluding trade discounts and other applicable taxes. Revenue is recognised upon transfer of control of promised goods or services under a contract. Revenue is recognised when the amount can be measured reliably, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Company, the costs incurred or to be incurred can be measured reliably, and when the criteria for each of the Company's different activities has been met.

The Company derives revenues from following types of activities:

a) Sewerage Construction Contracts, Road & Highway Construction & Maintenance, Building Construction, Water Supply Projects and Electrical Works- The Company is engaged in execution of sewerage construction projects, road and highway construction and maintenance contracts, building construction works, water supply projects and electrical works under contracts entered into with government authorities.

b) Operation and maintenance contracts - Customer contracts towards operation and maintenance of sewerage construction projects & road and highway construction.

The Company determines its performance obligations included in the contracts signed with customers. When a customer contract includes both a construction and operation & maintenance, the performance obligations are separately identified and revenue is recognised in accordance with the principles of Ind AS 115.

Sewerage Construction Contracts, Road & Highway Construction & Maintenance, Building Construction, Water Supply Projects and Electrical Works:

The Company is engaged in the execution of sewerage construction projects, road and highway construction and maintenance contracts, building construction works, water supply projects, electrical transmission and distribution works, and other infrastructure projects on an Engineering, Procurement and Construction (EPC) basis.

Revenue is recognized in accordance with Ind AS 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The transaction price is generally based on contractually agreed rates and may include variable consideration such as price escalation, incentives, variation orders, claims, liquidated damages and penalties. Variable consideration is included in the transaction price only to the extent that it is highly probable that a significant reversal of cumulative revenue recognized will not occur when the uncertainty associated with such consideration is subsequently resolved.

Construction contracts generally comprise a single performance obligation involving the design, engineering, procurement, construction, installation, testing, commissioning, maintenance and handover of infrastructure facilities. The Company transfers control of goods and services continuously over the contract period and therefore satisfies its performance obligations over time.

Revenue is recognized over time using the percentage of completion method, measured by reference to the proportion of contract costs incurred up to the reporting date relative to the total contract costs of the contract (cost-to-cost method). This method faithfully depicts the transfer of control of goods and services to the customer. Only those costs that reflect work performed are included in costs incurred for determining the stage of completion.

Where the outcome of a contract cannot be measured reliably, revenue is recognized only to the extent of contract costs incurred that are expected to be recoverable.

Contract modifications, variation orders and claims are accounted for when approved or when it is highly probable that the customer will approve the modification and the amount can be measured reliably.

Unbilled revenue represents the Company's right to consideration for work performed but not yet billed as well as certified by the principal as at the reporting date and is disclosed within Trade Receivables, as appropriate.

Retention money withheld by customers as per contractual terms is recognized when the Company has an enforceable right to receive the consideration and collection is considered probable. Long-term retention receivables are disclosed under Other Financial Assets (Non-Current), while short-term retention receivables are disclosed under Other Financial Assets (Current).

Operation & Maintenance contracts - Revenue from Operation and Maintenance contracts relating to sewerage construction projects & road and highway construction are recognized as the services are provided and invoiced to the customer, as per the terms of the contract.

(b) Other Income

Interest income: Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis using the effective interest rate method.

xi) Taxation

(a) Current tax: Current tax is expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using the tax rate enacted at the reporting date, and any adjustment to the tax payable in respect of the earlier periods.

Current tax assets and liabilities are offset where the company has legal enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on net basis, or to realize the assets and settle the liability simultaneously.

(b) Deferred tax: Deferred tax is recognized for all taxable temporary differences and is calculated based on the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes.

Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax assets are recognized only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the assets can be utilized. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset and when the deferred tax balances relate to taxes levied by the same tax authority on the same taxable entity, or on different tax entities, but the company intends to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities will be realized simultaneously.

(c) Current and Deferred Tax for the Year: Current and deferred tax are recognized in the statement of profit & loss, except when they relate to items that are recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current tax and deferred tax is recognized directly in other comprehensive income or equity respectively.

xii) Earning Per Share

Basic Earnings Per Share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity shareholders of the company to the weighted average number of Shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity shareholders of the company after adjusting the effect of all dilutive potential equity shares that were outstanding during the period. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for events such as bonus issue that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources.

xiii) Leases

As a Lessee

The Company's lease asset classes primarily consist of leases for Land. The Company assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the company assesses whether: (i) the contract involves the use of an identified asset (ii) the company has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease and (iii) the company has the right to direct the use of the asset.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Company recognizes a right-of-use asset ("ROU") and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and low value leases. For these short-term and low value leases, the Company recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

Certain lease arrangements include the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. ROU assets and lease liabilities include these options when it is reasonably certain that they will be exercised. The right-of-use assets are initially recognized at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. Right of use assets are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets.

The lease liability is initially measured at amortized cost at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rates in the country of domicile of these leases.

Lease liabilities are remeasured with a corresponding adjustment to the related right of use asset if the Company changes its assessment if whether it will exercise an extension or a termination option. Lease liability and ROU asset have been separately presented in the Balance Sheet and lease payments have been classified as financing cash flows.

The entire lease rent pertaining to the leased asset was paid in full by the previous owner of the asset, prior to the transfer of ownership to the company. Accordingly, there is no future lease rent liability payable by the company. Consequently, there is no recognition of lease liability (current or non-current) in the financial statements. Since there are no future lease payments, the requirements of Ind AS 116 with respect to recognition of lease liability and corresponding right-of-use asset and subsequent finance cost adjustments are not applicable in this case. No adjustments related to interest (finance cost) under Ind AS 116 have been made in the financial statements. This treatment is based on the management's representation and the absence of enforceable future lease payment obligations.

xiv) Employee Benefits:

The company provides for the various benefits plans to the employees. These are categorized into Defined Benefits Plans and Defined Contributions Plans. Defined contribution plans include the amount paid by the company towards the liability for Provident fund to the employees provident fund organization and Employee State Insurance fund in respect of ESI and defined benefits plans includes the retirement benefits, such as gratuity.

- a. In respect Defined Contribution Plans, contribution made to the specified fund based on the services rendered by the employees are charged to Statement of Profit & Loss in the year in which services are rendered by the employee.
- b. Liability in respect of Defined Long Term benefit plan is determined at the present value of the amounts payable determined using actuarial valuation techniques performed by an independent actuarial at each balance sheet date using the projected unit credit methods. Re-measurement, comprising actuarial gain and losses, the effects of assets ceiling (if applicable) and the return on plan assets (excluding interest), is reflected immediately in the statement of Financial Position with a charge or credit recognized in other comprehensive income in the period in which they occur. Past Service cost is recognized in the statement of profit & loss in the period of plan amendment.
- c. Liabilities for short term employee benefits are measured at undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid and charged to Statement of Profit & Loss in the year in which the related service is rendered.

xv) Inventories:

Material at Site & Work in Progress- valued at Cost or NRV, whichever is lower.

Cost is determined using FIFO basis and includes all costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Raw materials, stores and spares, consumables and materials at site are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Project Work-in-Progress represents costs incurred in respect of incomplete EPC projects and comprises direct material, direct labour, subcontracting charges and other directly attributable project costs incurred up to the reporting date. Project Work-in-Progress is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

Net realizable value represents the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale.

In the accounting policies forming part of the previously issued Restated Balance Sheets, Material at Site and Project Work-in-Progress (WIP) were stated at cost. For the Restated Financial Information for the year ended March 31, 2026, the accounting policy has been aligned with the applicable accounting standards by stating that inventories, including Material at Site and Project Work-in-Progress, are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value (NRV). Cost is determined using the FIFO method and includes all costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. It is hereby clarified that this revision represents only a refinement in the wording of the accounting policy and does not result in any change in the basis of valuation or the carrying amount of inventories. Based on the valuation carried out by the management, the Net Realizable Value (NRV) is higher than the cost for all reporting periods presented. Accordingly, the inventories continue to be carried at cost, which remains the lower of cost and NRV.

Therefore, there is no change in the valuation methodology or the values reported in the Restated Financial Information, and the modification is only to ensure that the accounting policy appropriately reflects the applicable accounting requirements.

(a) Ind AS 117 Insurance Contracts: The Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) notified the Ind AS 117, Insurance Contracts, vide notification dated 12 August 2024, under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2024.

Ind AS 117 Insurance Contracts is a comprehensive new accounting standard for insurance contracts covering recognition and measurement, presentation and disclosure. Ind AS 117 replaces Ind AS 104 Insurance Contracts. Ind AS 117 applies to all types of insurance contracts, regardless of the type of entities that issue them as well as to certain guarantees and financial instruments with discretionary participation features; a few scope exceptions will apply. Ind AS 117 is based on a general model, supplemented by:

- A specific adaptation for contracts with direct participation features (the variable fee approach)
- A simplified approach (the premium allocation approach) mainly for short-duration contracts

The application of Ind AS 117 does not have a material impact on the Restated Consolidated Financial Information as the Group has not entered any contracts in the nature of insurance contracts covered under Ind AS 117.

(b) Amendments to Ind AS 116 Leases – Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback: The MCA notified the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Second Amendment Rules, 2024, which amend Ind AS 116, Leases, with respect to Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback.

The amendment specifies the requirements that a seller-lessee uses in measuring the lease liability arising in a sale and leaseback transaction, to ensure the seller-lessee does not recognise any amount of the gain or loss that relates to the right of use it retains.

The amendment does not have a material impact on the Restated Consolidated Financial Information.

(c) Amendments to Ind AS 21 - Lack of exchangeability: The MCA notified amendments to Ind AS 21 The effects of changes in foreign exchange rates to specify how an entity should assess whether a currency is exchangeable and how it should determine a spot exchange rate when exchangeability is lacking.

The amendments also require disclosure of information that enables users of its Ind AS financial statements to understand how the currency not being exchangeable into the other currency affects, or is expected to affect, the entity's financial performance, financial position and cash flows. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2025. When applying the amendments, an entity cannot restate comparative information.

The amendments are not expected to have a material impact on the Restated Consolidated Financial Information.

(d) Amendments to Ind AS 1 - Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current and Non-current Liabilities with Covenants: The Ministry of Corporate Affairs notified amendments to paragraphs 69 to 76 of Ind AS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements to specify the requirements for classifying liabilities as current or non-current. The amendments clarify:

- What is meant by a right to defer settlement
- That a right to defer must exist at the end of the reporting period
- That classification is unaffected by the likelihood that an entity will exercise its deferral right
- That only if an embedded derivative in a convertible liability is itself an equity instrument would the terms of a liability not impact its classification

In addition, a requirement has been introduced to require disclosure when a liability arising from a loan agreement is classified as non-current and the entity's right to defer settlement is contingent on compliance with future covenants within twelve months. The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 April 2025 and must be applied retrospectively. The Company is currently assessing the impact the amendments will have on current practice and whether existing loan agreements may require renegotiation

(e) Amendments to Ind AS 7 and Ind AS 107 - Supplier Finance Arrangements: The Ministry of Corporate Affairs notified amendments to Ind AS 7 Statement of Cash Flows and Ind AS 107 Financial Instruments: Disclosures to clarify the characteristics of supplier finance arrangements and require additional disclosure of such arrangements. The disclosure requirements in the amendments are intended to assist users of financial statements in understanding the effects of supplier finance arrangements on an entity's liabilities, cash flows and exposure to liquidity risk. The amendments will be effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after April 01, 2025.

The amendments are not expected to have a material impact on the Company's Restated Consolidated Financial Information.

For the purpose of preparation of Restated Consolidated Financial Information, the Company has adopted Ind AS 116: Leases from the date of transition i.e. April 01, 2022 and management has evaluated the impact of change in accounting policies required due to adoption of Ind AS 116 for the financial years ended March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 and made the necessary adjustments. The entire lease rent pertaining to the leased asset was paid in full by the previous owner of the asset, prior to the transfer of ownership to the company. Accordingly, there is no future lease rent liability payable by the company. Consequently, there is no recognition of lease liability (current or non-current) in the financial statements. Since there are no future lease payments, the requirements of Ind AS 116 with respect to recognition of lease liability and corresponding right-of-use asset and subsequent finance cost adjustments are not applicable in this case. No adjustments related to interest (finance cost) under Ind AS 116 have been made in the financial statements. This treatment is based on the management's representation and the absence of enforceable future lease payment obligations.

3. Deferred Tax

Under Previous GAAP, Deferred Tax is calculated using the income statement approach which focuses on differences between taxable profits and accounting profits for the period. Under Ind AS 12, deferred tax is calculated using balance sheet approach which focuses on difference between taxable profits and accounting profits for the period. The application of Ind AS 12 approach has resulted in recognition of deferred tax on new temporary differences which was not required under IGAAP. In addition, the various transitional adjustments has led to temporary differences. According to the accounting policies, the company has to account for such differences. According to the accounting policies, the company has to account for such differences. Deferred

Tax adjustments are recognised in correlation to the transactions either in retained earnings profit and loss respectively.

4. Expected Credit Loss

Under Ind AS, the company has to provide loss allowance on Trade Receivables based on the Expected Credit Loss (ECL) model which is measured following the "simplified approach". The Company uses a provision matrix to measure the expected credit losses of trade receivables. The provision matrix is based on its historical observed default rates, adjusted for forward looking estimates. The Company has impaired its Trade Receivables by ₹ 0.16 million as on March 31, 2025, ₹ 0.44 million as on March 31, 2024 and its corresponding effect in statement of profit and loss in the respective financial years.

The said demand is completely erroneous, illegal, and contrary to the facts and applicable law. Further, the VAT Department had directed PNB for the encashment of the Fixed Deposit Receipt (FDR) of ₹ 0.1 million deposited by the Company as security at the time of its VAT registration. The Company’s senior management ensures that the Company’s financial risk activities are governed by appropriate policies and procedures and that financial risks are identified, measured and managed in accordance with the Company’s policies and risk objective. The Board of Directors reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks, which are summarised below.

(a) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: interest rate risk, currency risk and other price risk, such as equity price risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk include loans and borrowings.

The Company has no direct exposure to foreign currency risk.

-Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company’s exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Company’s long-term debt obligations with floating interest rates. The Company manages its interest rate risk by having a balanced portfolio of fixed and variable rate loans and borrowings. The Company’s policy is to borrow funds at fixed and floating rate of interest.

Interest rate sensitivity

The following table illustrates the sensitivity of profit and equity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates of +/- 1%. These changes are considered to be reasonably possible based on observation of current market conditions. Sensitivity calculations are based on an annualised interest cost on the borrowings at floating rate as of the reporting dates March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024. All other variables are held constant.

The Company is exposed to credit risk from its operating activities (primarily trade receivables) and from its financing activities, including investments, deposits with banks and financial institutions and other financial instruments.

(i) Trade receivables

Credit quality of a customer is assessed based on an individual credit limits and are defined in accordance with management's assessment of the customer. Outstanding customer receivables are regularly monitored. The concentration of credit risk is limited due to the fact that the customer base is large. An impairment analysis is performed at each reporting date using a provision matrix to measure expected credit losses. The Company uses ageing buckets and provision matrix for the purpose of computation of expected credit loss. The provision rates are based on past trend of recoverability. The calculation reflects the probability-weighted outcome, the time value of money and reasonable and supportable information that is available at the reporting date about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions. The Company makes provision of expected credit losses on trade receivables using a provision matrix. The provision matrix is based on its historical observed default rates, adjusted for forward looking estimates. At every reporting date, the historical observed default rates are updated and Company makes appropriate provision wherever outstanding is for longer period and involves higher risk

(₹ in million)

Credit risk from balances with banks is managed by the management in accordance with the Company's policy. Investments of surplus funds are made only with approved counterparties based on limits defined by the management. The limits are set to minimise the concentration of risks and therefore mitigate financial loss through counterparty's potential failure to make payments.

(c) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company may encounter difficulty in meeting its present and future obligations associated with financial liabilities that are required to be settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. The Company's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility through the use of bank overdrafts, bank loans and finance leases. The Company closely monitors its liquidity position and deploys a robust cash management system. It aims to minimise these risks by generating sufficient cash flows from its current operations, which in addition to the available cash and cash equivalents and sufficient committed fund facilities, will provide liquidity. 2. A complaint was filed before the Court of the Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Kotputli by Mahendra Kumar Sharma, Accountant of Technocraft Ventures Limited on behalf of Technocraft Ventures Limited (“Complainant”), against Dholaram Saini, Proprietor of Papton Timbers, Kotputli (“Accused”), under Sections 318(4), 318(1), 317(5), 191(2), 317(2) and 316(1) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (“BNS”). The Complainant stated that while executing a sewerage scheme project in Kotputli, the Complainant procured materials from various suppliers and made payments through bank transfers. On March 29, 2025, an amount of ₹ 1.81 million meant for another supplier (CRM Polymers) was mistakenly transferred to the bank account of the Accused maintained with SBI Kotputli. Upon discovering the error on April 03, 2025, the Complainant contacted the Accused; however, the accused denied receiving the funds and subsequently withdrew the entire amount through multiple cheque and ATM transactions between 29 March and 3 April 2025, despite knowing that the money had been mistakenly transferred and did not belong to him. Although the Accused later deposited ₹ 0.2 million on April 05, 2025, the remaining ₹ 1.61 million has not been returned despite repeated requests. Consequently, the Complainant filed the present complaint alleging fraudulent misappropriation of funds and prayed that the matter be referred for investigation under Section 175(3) of the Bhartiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 and that strict legal action be taken against the accused in accordance with law. Pursuant to the said complaint, FIR bearing No. 0234/2025 was registered on May 05, 2025, and investigation was initiated by the police. The case is currently pending before the Court of the Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Kotputli. According to the recent update, final report has been submitted by the police. The next date of hearing is August 20, 2026.

ii. Material civil proceedings

1. Writ Petition No. 34903 of 2021, has been filed before the Hon'ble High Court of Allahabad by M/s Ultratech Engineers (the business which has since been taken over by our Company) ("Petitioner") against Uttar Pradesh Jal Nigam and its officials ("Respondents"). The Petitioner filed a writ of mandamus to compel the Respondents to release long-standing, acknowledged payments for completed construction work. The Petitioner had completed certain sewer work for the Respondent under the Agra Sewerage Scheme Phase I and though the project agreement originally set a completion date of March 31, 2012, several extensions moved the final revised deadline to June 30, 2015. Following the successful completion of the trial run and defect liability period, the Respondents issued an experience certificate on August 3, 2017, officially acknowledging the satisfactory completion of the project. On June 15, 2019, the Petitioner submitted a final bill and hand receipts totalling ₹ 17.25 million. While the Respondents acknowledged this total liability in multiple correspondences between July and September 2020, they claimed they could not remit the full payment due to a "paucity of funds" and a lack of budget allocation. After the filing of the writ petition, the High Court, by order dated March 22, 2022, the High Court directed the Respondent Department to prepare a demand draft in favour of the Petitioner. As the said direction was not complied with, the Petitioner filed a contempt petition for wilful disobedience of the Court's order. The Petitioner prayed to issue a notice to Respondents to release the outstanding dues amounting to ₹ 17.25 million and to pay an interest amount of 12% to the Petitioners commencing from the date on which payment became due. As on date, the case is currently pending before the Hon'ble High Court of Allahabad but as all the payments have been received under the project, the writ petition and the contempt application will be withdrawn on next date of hearing.
2. Writ Petition No. 34905 of 2021 was filed by our Company ("Petitioner") before the Hon'ble High Court of Allahabad against Uttar Pradesh Jal Nigam ("Respondent") and its officials in relation to outstanding dues of ₹ 21.70 million (exclusive of interest) under Contract Agreement No. 01/GM/2011-12 for the design, construction, and commissioning of a 3 MLD sewerage treatment plant and related infrastructure at Pilkhuwa. Although the project was completed and acknowledged through an experience certificate dated February 4, 2019, due to non-compliance with the order dated March 22, 2022, a contempt application (Contempt Application No. 1520 of 2023) was filed. Subsequent to this, partial payments were made and the contempt application was disposed vide order dated August 2, 2023, based on the Respondents' submission that the entire amount had been paid. However, the Hon'ble Court granted liberty to seek recall in the event of non-compliance, and accordingly, a recall application was filed as the entire amount was not paid by the department and only ₹5.64 million was paid, which was allowed vide order dated March 10, 2025, and the case has been restored to its original number. The Petitioner prayed for payment of the remaining ₹16.06 million. As on date, due to an inadvertent error, the claim amount mentioned in the contempt application is ₹14.17 million instead of ₹16.06 million as reflected in the case documents, and the Petitioner will file the necessary application to rectify the same; both the contempt application and the writ petition remain pending.

3. Our Company (“Claimant”) initiated arbitration proceedings bearing number 02/2021 before the Sole Arbitrator against the State of Rajasthan and others (“Respondent”). The Claimant entered into a contract dated August 29, 2017, for design-build and operation & maintenance services for a sewerage scheme covering various wards in Udaipur, including riverbank sewer laying and lateral networks. The Claimant alleged multiple delays caused by the Respondents, including late provision of satellite imagery, removal of encroachments, permissions for crossings (Highway, Railway, Water Resources Department), and supply of reference designs and land. These delays extended the project milestones significantly beyond stipulated completion dates. The Claimant sought extensions of time pursuant to contractual clauses due to delays attributable to the Respondents. The Respondents imposed liquidated damages and penalties arbitrarily, without following prescribed procedures, notices, or contractual formulas. The claimant requested to have these issues adjudicate before the dispute adjudication board but upon no response from respondents, the Claimant filed an arbitral application before the Hon’ble Rajasthan High Court and a sole arbitrator was appointed. Due to prolonged delays caused by the Respondents, the Claimant claimed price escalation compensation under contractual provisions, with a significant outstanding balance unpaid, reimbursement of substantial litigation costs incurred due to the Respondents’ non-compliance, and interest on delayed and illegally deducted payments and damages, calculated at 9% per annum compounded monthly amounting to a cumulative claim of ₹ 109.20 million. As on date Arbitration is in abeyance or suspended on account of the expiry of time period of the arbitration proceedings as envisaged in the Section 29-A of the Arbitration Act, 1996. Further, some of the claims will be amended on account of the acceptance of delay by the department through its letter. The Company is in process of reviving the arbitration proceedings by institution of appropriate application.

4. Our Company (“Petitioner”) has filed a writ petition before the Hon’ble High Court of Delhi bearing number 2463/2026 challenging the proposed forfeiture and encashment of its bid security by the Delhi Jal Board (‘DJB’) (“Respondent”) in relation to Tender for construction and maintenance of sewage treatment plants. The Petitioner had participated in the tender and was declared technically qualified; however, prior to the opening of financial bids or award of any contract, the DJB demanded an Additional Performance Bank Guarantee (APBG) of approximately ₹340.70 million, alleging that the Petitioner’s bid was “unworkably low.” Subsequently, the Petitioner withdrew its bid on December 26, 2025, after discussions with DJB officials who allegedly assured that no coercive action would be taken. Thereafter, the DJB annulled the tender on January 15, 2026, on technical grounds and issued a fresh tender, yet refused to release the Petitioner’s bid security comprising ₹2.00 million in cash and a ₹27.40 million bank guarantee and indicated its intention to forfeit the same. The Petitioner contends that retention and proposed encashment of the bid security after cancellation of the tender is arbitrary, illegal, and violative of Article 14 of the Constitution of India, as the security serves no legal purpose once the bidding process has been annulled. Accordingly, the Petitioner has sought directions for immediate release of the bid security and interim protection restraining encashment of the bank guarantee. After the filing of the Writ Petition, the Hon’ble High Court, by order dated February 20, 2026, directed the Respondents to file their reply explaining the reasons for withholding the bid security despite termination of the tender process, and granted the Petitioners liberty to file a rejoinder thereafter. Accordingly, the Petitioner has filed its Rejoinder and the matter is currently pending before the Hon’ble High Court of Delhi. The next date of hearing for final arguments is September 28, 2026.

5. Our Company (“Petitioner”) has filed a writ petition before the Hon’ble High Court of Delhi bearing number 2359/2026 under Article 226 of the Constitution of India challenging the proposed forfeiture and encashment of its bid security by the Delhi Jal Board (‘DJB’) (“Respondent”) in relation to a tender for construction of three decentralized sewage treatment plants in the Najafgarh drainage zone. The Petitioner had participated in the tender and was declared technically qualified; however, the tender process was subsequently annulled on January 15, 2026, due to technical reasons and changes in NIT conditions/specifications, without any contract being awarded. Despite the annulment of the tender, the Respondent has refused to release the Petitioner’s bid security totalling approximately ₹16.79 million, comprising ₹2.00 million in online payment and ₹14.79 million furnished through a bank guarantee, and has indicated the possibility of invoking the same. The dispute is further linked to a parallel tender (NIT-05) where the Respondent had demanded an Additional Performance Bank Guarantee (APBG) even before identification of the lowest bidder, following which the Petitioner withdrew its bids on December 26, 2025, after discussions with DJB officials who allegedly assured that no coercive action would be taken. The Petitioner contends that retention or threatened encashment of the bid security after annulment of the tender is arbitrary, unlawful, and violative of Article 14 of the Constitution of India, particularly when no contract was awarded. Accordingly, the Petitioner has sought issuance of a writ of mandamus directing immediate release of the bid security and restraining the Respondent from encashing the bank guarantee. After the filing of the Writ Petition, the Hon'ble High Court, by order dated February 20, 2026, directed the Respondents to file their reply explaining the reasons for withholding the bid security despite termination of the tender process, and granted the Petitioners liberty to file a rejoinder thereafter. Accordingly, the Petitioner has filed its Rejoinder. The next date of hearing for final arguments is September 28, 2026.

6. Our Company (“Petitioner”) has filed a writ petition bearing number 2464/2026 before the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi under Article 226 of the Constitution of India challenging the proposed forfeiture and encashment of its bid security by the Delhi Jal Board (‘DJB’) (“Respondent”) in relation to tender for construction and maintenance of decentralized sewage treatment plants. The Petitioner had participated in the tender and was declared technically qualified; however, following issues arising from a parallel tender where the DJB demanded an Additional Performance Bank Guarantee (APBG) prior to award of the contract, the Petitioner withdrew its bid on December 26, 2025 after discussions with DJB officials who allegedly assured that no coercive action would be taken. Subsequently, the DJB annulled the tender on January 15, 2026, citing technical reasons, yet refused to release the Petitioner's bid security comprising ₹2.00 million in cash and a ₹17.90 million bank guarantee, and indicated its intention to invoke the same. The Petitioner contends that retention and proposed encashment of the bid security after cancellation of the tender is arbitrary, unlawful, and violative of Article 14 of the Constitution of India, particularly when no contract was awarded and the annulment arose from defects in the tender framework. Accordingly, the Petitioner has sought directions for immediate release of the bid security and interim protection restraining encashment of the bank guarantee. After the filing of the Writ Petition, the Hon'ble High Court, by order dated February 20, 2026, directed the Respondents to file their reply explaining the reasons for withholding the bid security despite termination of the tender process, and granted the Petitioners liberty to file a rejoinder thereafter. Accordingly, the Petitioner has filed its rejoinder. The next date of hearing for final arguments is September 28, 2026.
7. Our Company (“Petitioner”) has filed a writ petition bearing C.W.J.C. No. 6702/2026 before the Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Patna under Article 226 of the Constitution of India against the State of Bihar and others (“Respondents”) challenging the arbitrary and unlawful demand of Additional Performance Guarantee (“APG”) amounting to ₹ 301.13 million raised by Bihar Urban Infrastructure Development Corporation Ltd. (BUIDCo) pursuant to the Letter of Acceptance dated March 23, 2026 in respect of the “Siwan Sewerage Network and STP under AMRUT 2.0” project. The Petitioner, having been declared technically qualified and having submitted its bid in accordance with the tender conditions (ITB Clause 6.5 read with RCD Letter dated January 16, 2020), contends that the APG has been incorrectly computed by including non-SOR items and by altering the agreed tender framework post bid submission, thereby inflating the demand and violating settled principles of public procurement and Article 14 of the Constitution. Despite submitting a representation dated April 2, 2026, highlighting such discrepancies, the Respondents failed to provide any justification and continued to insist on compliance, effectively compelling the Petitioner to furnish an unlawful APG as a condition for further participation. The Petitioner has accordingly sought, inter alia, quashing of the impugned APG demand, directions to recompute the APG strictly in accordance with the tender conditions and RCD guidelines, restraint on the Respondents from acting upon post-bid modifications or taking coercive steps including cancellation of award or forfeiture of bid security, and interim relief staying the operation of the impugned demand during pendency of the petition. Pursuant to the Order dated May 14, 2026, the Hon'ble Court directed the Petitioner to furnish a bank guarantee of ₹ 200.00 million and provide an undertaking that an APG would be submitted to BUIDCO in accordance with the final directions to be passed by the Hon'ble Court in the writ petition. The Petitioner has filed an appropriate application before the Hon'ble Court seeking rectification of the amount of ₹ 200.00 million recorded in the said Order on the ground that the same was inadvertently recorded and does not reflect the proceedings before the Hon'ble Court. However, without prejudice to its rights and contentions and solely to avoid any delay in execution of the Project, the Petitioner has furnished a bank guarantee of ₹200.00 million in compliance with the said Order and the contract agreement has been executed. The said application is pending adjudication. The interlocutory application has been taken on record by the Hon'ble court and the next date of hearing is not updated by the High court registry.

8. Our Company (“Petitioner”) has filed a writ petition bearing C.W.J.C. No. 4742/2026 before the Hon’ble High Court of Judicature at Patna under Article 226 of the Constitution of India against the State of Bihar and others (“Respondents”) challenging the arbitrary and unlawful demand of Additional Performance Guarantee (“APG”) raised by Bihar Urban Infrastructure Development Corporation Limited (“BUIDCo”) pursuant to the Letter of Acceptance dated February 27, 2026 (revised on March 11, 2026) in relation to the “Jehanabad Sewerage Network and STP under AMRUT 2.0” project. The Petitioner, having been declared technically qualified and L-1 bidder, contends that the APG demand (initially approximately ₹397.86 million, revised to approximately ₹282.73 million) has been computed by retrospectively applying a post-bid RCD letter dated September 26, 2025 and by including non-SOR components, contrary to Clause 6.5 of the bidding documents read with the RCD circular dated January 16, 2020, which governed the tender at the time of bid submission (September 12, 2025), rendering the demand arbitrary, illegal, and violative of Article 14 of the Constitution of India; despite representations dated March 3, 2026 and March 18, 2026, the Respondents failed to provide any justification. The Petitioner has accordingly sought, inter alia, quashing of the impugned APG demand, directions for recomputation strictly in accordance with the tender conditions, restraint on coercive actions including cancellation of award or forfeiture of bid security, and interim stay on enforcement of the impugned demand. Pursuant to the Order dated May 14, 2026, the Hon'ble Court directed the Petitioner to furnish a bank guarantee of ₹165.79 million and provide an undertaking to the Respondent that an additional performance guarantee would be furnished, if required, in accordance with the final order to be passed by the Hon'ble Court. In compliance with the said Order the Petitioner has furnished the bank guarantee of ₹165.79 million, pursuant to which the relevant work contract has been executed in favour of the Company. The next date of hearing is not updated by the High court registry.

II. Material Tax Litigation involving our Company

A. Tax Litigation by our Company

1. Our Company (“Petitioner”) has filed a writ petition bearing number 10144/2025 before the Hon’ble High Court of Rajasthan against the Union of India and others (“Respondent”), challenging adverse GST orders and parallel tax proceedings. The core issue revolves around the applicability of the GST exemption under Entry 3B of Notification No. 13/2023-CT (Rate) dated October 19, 2023, which exempts services related to sanitation conservancy provided to governmental authorities. The Petitioner contends that its services, involving design, construction, and operation of sewerage treatment plants, fall squarely within this exemption. However, the Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling (AAAR), while overturning prior favourable observations, introduced a new, unargued ground denying the exemption by narrowly interpreting "sanitation conservancy," thus violating natural justice. Concurrently, two wings of the SGST department initiated coercive, parallel proceedings alleging tax evasion on the same subject matter, resulting in forced GST deposits under protest totaling approximately ₹36.98 million (inclusive of interest amount of ₹21.70 million) despite the Petitioner’s claim of statutory exemption. The Petitioner had also paid ₹131.00 million as GST through GSTR-3B in FY2023-24 and FY2024-25. The Petitioner seeks quashing of the impugned order, refund of deposited GST, and cessation of parallel coercive actions. Notices were issued to the Respondents, pursuant to which reply has been filed by the Respondent. The matter is presently pending for subsequent arguments before the Hon'ble High Court of Rajasthan. The next date of hearing is not updated by the High court registry.

2. Our Company (“Petitioner”) has filed a writ petition bearing number 7862/2025 before the Hon'ble High Court of Rajasthan against the Union of India and others (“Respondent”) challenging the order dated November 22, 2024 passed by the Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling (AAAR), Rajasthan GST, along with coercive and parallel proceedings initiated by different wings of the State GST Department in relation to the same subject matter. The dispute concerns the applicability of GST exemption under Entry 3B of Notification No. 13/2023-CT dated October 19, 2023, which exempts services relating to sanitation conservancy provided to governmental authorities. The Petitioner contends that the contract awarded by the Municipal Council, Kotputli under the AMRUT 2.0 scheme involving design, construction, installation, commissioning, and operation of sewerage systems and sewage treatment infrastructure squarely falls within the scope of sanitation conservancy services and is therefore exempt from GST. However, the AAAR dismissed the appeal against the AAR order dated July 26, 2024, by introducing a new ground, holding that the services do not qualify as sanitation conservancy, without providing prior notice or an opportunity of hearing, thereby allegedly violating the principles of natural justice. Simultaneously, the Enforcement Wing and Assessment Wing of the SGST Department initiated parallel proceedings, including inspections, summons, show-cause notices, and summary demand orders for alleged GST evasion on the same contract. As a result of these proceedings, the Petitioner deposited approximately ₹36.98 million under protest, while also paying approximately ₹115.83 million as GST during FY 2023-24 and FY 2024-25 through regular filings. The Petitioner seeks quashing of the impugned AAAR order, refund of GST deposited under protest, and setting aside of the parallel coercive proceedings. The matter is presently pending for reply and subsequent arguments before the Hon'ble High Court of Rajasthan. The next date of hearing has not been updated by the High court registry.
3. Our Company (“Petitioner”) has filed a writ petition bearing number 7962/2025 before the Hon'ble High Court of Rajasthan against the Union of India and others (“Respondent”) challenging the order dated November 22, 2024 passed by the Appellate Authority for Advance Ruling (‘AAAR’), Rajasthan GST, along with parallel proceedings initiated by different wings of the State GST Department concerning the same subject matter. The dispute concerns the applicability of GST exemption under Entry 3B of Notification No. 13/2023-CT (Rate) dated October 19, 2023, which exempts services relating to sanitation conservancy provided to governmental authorities. The Petitioner contends that the contract awarded under the AMRUT 2.0 scheme for design, construction, and operation of sewerage systems and sewage treatment plants falls squarely within the scope of sanitation conservancy services and should therefore be exempt from GST. However, the AAAR dismissed the appeal against the AAR order dated July 26, 2024 by introducing a new ground that the services do not qualify as sanitation conservancy, without providing the Petitioner an opportunity to respond, thereby allegedly violating principles of natural justice and exceeding appellate jurisdiction. Simultaneously, the Enforcement Wing and Assessment Wing of the SGST Department initiated parallel proceedings, including inspections, summons, show cause notices, and demand orders alleging GST evasion on the same contract, resulting in the Petitioner depositing approximately ₹36.98 million under protest (including interest of approximately ₹21.70 million), despite claiming exemption. The Petitioner had also paid approximately ₹104.88 million as GST through GSTR-3B during FY 2023-24 and FY 2024-25. The Petitioner seeks quashing of the impugned AAAR order, refund of GST deposited under protest, and setting aside of the parallel coercive proceedings. The matter is presently pending for reply and subsequent arguments before the Hon'ble High Court of Rajasthan. The next date of hearing has not been updated by the High court registry.
4. Our Company (“Petitioner”) has filed a writ petition before the Hon'ble High Court of Rajasthan, against the Union of India and others (“Respondent”) bearing number 11423/2025, challenging the order dated June 19, 2025, passed by the Appellate Authority, State Tax, Jaipur-II, which confirmed a demand of interest amounting to ₹ 21.70 million on retrospective tax payments, despite the dispute being interpretational in nature. The Petitioner alleges that the tax authorities issued a summary order (Form GST DRC-07) on October 10, 2024, without a prior show-cause notice or an opportunity for a personal hearing, which they argue is a gross violation of the principles of natural justice and Section 75(4) of the GST Act. Furthermore, the Petitioner contends that the initial summary order was unsigned, unreasoned, and calculated interest on the gross tax liability including tax paid through credits which they claim is contrary to established law. The petition also challenges associated recovery proceedings, including the issuance of a recovery notice dated July 14, 2025, under Section 79 of the RGST Act, as being premature and contrary to CBIC Circular No. 224/18/2024-GST, in view of the non-constitution of the GST Appellate Tribunal. The matter is currently pending adjudication. The High Court of Rajasthan granted interim stay vide Order dated July 29, 2025, and directed that the recovery notices shall not be acted upon and the aforementioned interim directions were affirmed and made absolute vide a subsequent order dated October 7, 2025, till the disposal of the Petition. The next date of hearing has not been updated by the High court registry.

5. Our Company (“Appellant”) has filed an appeal before the appropriate appellate authority against the Order-in-Original dated December 10, 2025 passed by the Assistant Commissioner, CGST Division-VI, Ghaziabad, pursuant to a Show Cause Notice dated June 30, 2025 issued on the basis of a DGARM report dated July 18, 2022, alleging mismatches in Input Tax Credit (ITC) claimed in GSTR-3B vis-à-vis GSTR-2A and discrepancies in GSTR-9 for the financial years 2018-19 to 2020-21. The order confirmed a tax demand of ₹17.18 million (CGST, SGST and IGST) along with an equivalent penalty under Section 74 of the CGST Act, 2017, aggregating to a total demand of approximately ₹34.37 million. The Appellant contends that the invocation of Section 74 is erroneous in the absence of any allegation or evidence of fraud, wilful misstatement or suppression of facts, and that the proceedings are time-barred and in violation of principles of natural justice, including denial of a proper opportunity of hearing. The Appellant has also made a statutory pre-deposit of approximately ₹17.19 million and seeks quashing of the impugned order and penalty. The appeal has been preferred by the Company and the matter is presently pending adjudication before the appellate authority.
6. Our Company (“Noticee”) is subject to proceedings initiated pursuant to a Show Cause Notice issued by the Directorate General of GST Intelligence (DGGI), Meerut Zonal Unit, concerning the applicable GST rate on Works Contract Services provided to the Uttar Pradesh Jal Nigam (UPJN) during January 2022 to December 2022. The department has alleged that the Noticee incorrectly applied a concessional GST rate of 12% instead of 18% following amendments effective January 1, 2022, contending that UPJN does not qualify as a “Local Authority” under Section 2(69) of the CGST Act, 2017 and therefore the concessional rate is not applicable. Accordingly, the SCN proposes a differential tax demand of approximately ₹31.51 million (CGST and SGST combined) to be paid by the Noticee. The Noticee has contested the proceedings on several grounds, including lack of jurisdiction of DGGI officers to issue the notice, parallel proceedings by multiple authorities, and the classification of UPJN as a “Local Authority” under the UP Water Supply and Sewerage Act, 1975, which would entitle the services to the concessional GST rate. The Noticee has also alleged coercive recovery of approximately ₹4.00 million during the investigation and has sought refund of the same. The demand raised in the Show Cause Notice has been confirmed u/s 73 of CGST Act, 2017 vide Order-in-Original dated 29.12.2025, against which the Company has filed a writ petition bearing number 1999/2026 before the Hon’ble High Court, Allahabad. Notices have been issued in the writ petition and the demand has been stayed vide order dated May 13, 2026. The matter is now pending for reply.

A. Litigation against our Promoters

i. Criminal Proceedings

1. In FIR No. 393/2023 registered at Police Station Kotwali, District Jaunpur, under Sections 283, 290, 431 and 304A of the Indian Penal Code, the complaint was filed by Vivekanand, Junior Engineer, Construction Division, U.P. Jal Nigam (Urban), Jaunpur (“Complainant”), against Sanjay Tyagi (Managing Director), Vinay Kumar Shukla (General Manager), Arpit Singhal (Project Manager) and Kunal Gupta (Deputy Project Manager) of M/s Technocraft Construction Pvt. Ltd (“Accused”). The complaint alleged that the company was executing sewer line installation work in Jaunpur city under the AMRUT scheme, and on December 05, 2023 during inspection at Ahmed Khan Mandi (Sundarpur Colony) it was found that excavation work for sewer line installation was being carried out without compliance with mandatory safety measures such as shoring, barricading and protective equipment. Despite repeated warnings and prior written notices regarding adherence to safety standards, the contractor allegedly failed to implement the required precautions. Subsequently, a soil collapse occurred at the excavation site, trapping a labourer who was later declared dead at the district hospital, allegedly due to the negligence and failure of the executing firm to maintain safety standards at the worksite. Based on the complaint, the police registered the FIR and initiated investigation into the alleged negligence leading to the fatal accident and violation of contractual and safety obligations. Charge sheet was filed dated March 19, 2024, and a case was registered before the Hon’ble Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jaunpur bearing case number 6293/2024. All the accused have been granted bail upon furnishing bond of twenty thousand rupees. The case is currently pending before the Hon’ble Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jaunpur as one of the accused has not appeared and therefore the Hon’ble court has issued summon for securing the accused presence and the next date of hearing is October 31, 2026.
2. In FIR No. 513 of 2023 registered at Police Station Line Bazar, District Jaunpur, Sachin Singh, Executive Engineer, Nirman Khand, U.P. Jal Nigam (Urban), Jaunpur (“Complainant”), filed a complaint against Sanjay Tyagi, Fateh Chand Sharma (General Manager), and Arpit Singhal (Project Manager) (“Accused”) in relation to sewer line installation work being executed by M/s Technocraft Construction Pvt. Ltd., Noida, under the AMRUT programme pursuant to Contract No. 18/SE7th Circle UPJN VNS/2019-20. The complaint alleged that while undertaking deep excavation for sewer line installation near Collectorate Mode, Jaunpur, the executing firm failed to comply with mandatory safety standards such as barricading, diversion boards, reflectors and caution tapes. Due to the absence of such safety measures, a motorcycle rider, Jiyalal, fell into a deep excavation pit on October 02, 2023, and narrowly escaped serious injury, and the incident was circulated widely on social media, attracting attention from the district administration. It was further alleged that despite repeated written and verbal instructions from departmental authorities and the district administration regarding compliance with safety norms, the firm continued to violate contractual safety obligations, leading to repeated accidents involving vehicles and animals falling into open sewer pits. Accordingly, based on the said complaint, FIR No. 513 of 2023 was registered, and legal action was sought against the responsible officials of the executing firm for violating contractual conditions and endangering public safety, resulting in potential loss of life and property to the residents of the city. The charge sheet was filed dated January 6, 2025, and the case has been registered bearing case number 90/2025. All the Accused have been granted bail upon furnishing bond of twenty-five thousand rupees vide order dated February 20, 2025. The case is currently pending before the Hon’ble Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jaunpur for framing of charges. The next date of hearing is October 31, 2026.
3. In FIR No. 191 of 2021 registered at Police Station Line Bazar, District Jaunpur, Sanjay Kumar Gupta, Executive Engineer, Construction Section, U.P. Jal Nigam (Urban), Jaunpur (“Complainant”), filed a complaint against Sanjay Tyagi (“Accused”), in relation to sewer line installation work being executed in Jaunpur city under the AMRUT Programme pursuant to Contract No. 18/SE 7th Circle UPJN-VNS/2019-

20. The complaint alleged that although the contractor had carried out excavation and sewer line laying work in several areas of the city including TD College Road, Sheikhpur Tiraha to Roadways Station Road, Judge Colony Road and Hussainabad Kalichabad, the firm failed to complete the mandatory permanent restoration of the excavated roads within the stipulated period of 45 days as required under the contractual conditions. Even after several months, the roads remained improperly restored, interlocking roads had subsided at multiple locations, and drains damaged during excavation had not been repaired, resulting in waterlogging, inconvenience to the public and risk of accidents. It was further alleged that despite repeated written notices and directions issued by departmental authorities and the district administration to complete restoration works, the contractor failed to comply with the contractual obligations, thereby causing damage to public property and obstructing public convenience. The charge sheet was filed dated August 12, 2021, and the case was registered before the Hon'ble Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jaunpur bearing case number 3233/2024. The bail was granted to the Accused upon furnishing a bond of twenty thousand rupees and two sureties of the same amount vide order dated March 03, 2025.
